2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

FACTS & FIGURES OF CAROLINA BASKETBALL

✓ 1 - The Tar Heels are the winningest program in Atlantic Coast Conference history. Carolina is first in the ACC with 1,781 wins, 493 wins, 23 ACC regular-season championships, 15 ACC Tournament titles, 81 NCAA Tournament wins, 15 NCAA Final Four appearances and four national championships.

✓ 1 - Carolina basketball has the highest graduation rate of any men's basketball program in the ACC over the last eight years, according to a media study done in 2001.

✓ 1 - The Smith Center was named the No. 1 basketball arena in the country by The Sporting News last year in a vote of Division I head coaches.

✓ 1 - Matt Doherty is the only man in ACC history to play on and coach a No. 1 ranked team at the same school.

✓ 1 - Carolina is the only school among last year's final Associated Press Top 10 who is also ranked in the Top 5 among all public universities by U.S. News and World Report. Carolina's Kenan-Flagler Business School is also ranked No. 5 in the country by U.S. News for its undergraduate business program.

✓ 2 - Carolina is second all-time in the country in total wins (1,781) and winning percentage (.739).

Hugh Morton

Matt Doherty is one of only two men in ACC history to play on and coach a No. 1-ranked team.

Dan Sears

Carolina has made six Final Four appearances in the last 11 seasons.

✓ 2 - Matt Doherty is the second former Tar Heel player to be head coach at his alma mater and the first since Monk McDonald in 1924.

✓ 2 - Carolina has not lost more than two consecutive home games since 1953.

✓ 3 - Carolina is one of only two schools in the country to have three different players win the John Wooden Award as the National Player of the Year. UNC's recipients include Phil Ford in 1978, Michael Jordan in 1984 and Antawn Jamison in 1998.

✓ 3 - The number of the NBA's 50 Greatest Players who played at North Carolina, making Carolina one of only three schools to have three players listed. The Tar Heels are Billy Cunningham, Michael Jordan and James Worthy. The list was selected in 1996 on behalf of the NBA by a panel of 50 former players and members of the media.

✓ 3 - Vince Carter, Jerry Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace played in the 2001 NBA All-Star Game. Carolina had as many NBA All-Stars as the rest of the ACC combined.

✓ 3 - Antawn Jamison is one of three players in Atlantic Coast Conference history to be named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Tournament MVP, ACC Male Athlete of the Year, NCAA Regional MVP and National Player of the Year in the same season. Carolina's Lennie Rosenbluth (1957) and Duke's Christian Laettner (1992) are the only other players to accomplish the feat.

✓ 4 - Four former Tar Heels led their respective NBA franchises in scoring last year, including Vince Carter (27.6 ppg for Toronto), Antawn Jamison (24.9 ppg for Golden State), Jerry Stackhouse (29.8 ppg for Detroit) and Rasheed Wallace (19.2 ppg for Portland). Stackhouse was second in the NBA in scoring. Carter was fifth, Jamison was ninth and Wallace was 29th.

✓ 4 - National championships won by North Carolina's men's basketball program. The Tar Heels have been crowned college basketball's best in 1924, 1957, 1982 and 1993.

✓ 5 - Former Tar Heels in the Basketball Hall of Fame — Coach Ben Carnevale, Billy Cunningham, Coach Frank McGuire, Coach Dean Smith and Robert McAdoo.

✓ 5 - NBA Rookie of the Year Awards won by Carolina players, more than any other school. In 1999, Vince Carter won the award playing for the Toronto Raptors. Other winners include Robert McAdoo (Buffalo Braves), Walter Davis (Phoenix Suns), Phil Ford (Kansas City Kings) and Michael Jordan (Chicago Bulls).

✓ 6 - NCAA Final Four appearances Carolina has made in the last 11 seasons (1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998 and 2000).

✓ 6 - Years in which the Tar Heels have finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation in one of the major polls. That includes the 1957, 1982, 1984, 1993, 1994 and 1998 seasons.

✓ 6 - The number of Tar Heels who had their jersey numbers retired by NBA franchises, the most of any school. They include Billy Cunningham (Philadelphia 76ers), Brad Daugherty (Cleveland Cavaliers), Walter Davis (Phoenix Suns), Bobby Jones (Philadelpha 76ers), Michael Jordan (Chicago Bulls) and James Worthy (Los Angeles Lakers).

✓ 7 - Number of consecutive decades in which Carolina has played in the NCAA Final Four (UNC had one appearance in the 1940s, one in the 1950s, three in the 1960s, two in the 1970s, two in the 1980s, five in the 1990s and one thus far in 2000.)

✓ 8 - Atlantic Coast Conference opponents against whom the Tar Heels have winning records. The closest series Carolina has with any league foe is against Duke. Beginning with the ACC's founding prior to the 1953-54 season, the Tar Heels are 77-52 against the Blue Devils, a winning percentage of .597.

✓ 9 - National Players of the Year who have worn Carolina uniforms, the latest being Antawn Jamison, a unanimous selection in 1998.

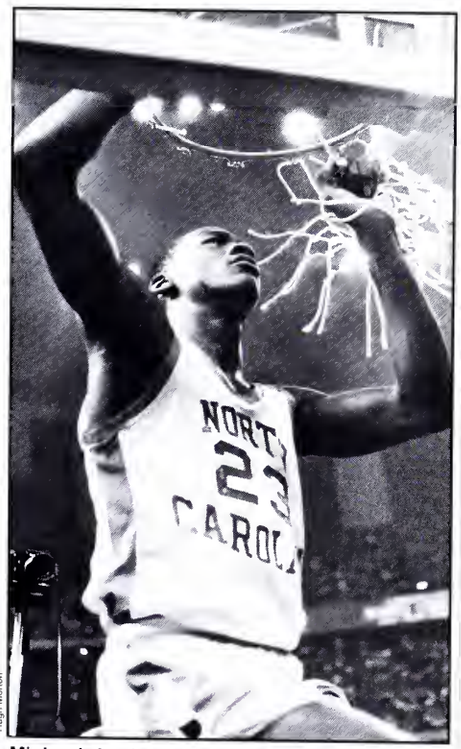
✓ 10 - Joseph Forte became the 10th Carolina player to win ACC Player of the Year honors when he shared the award in 2000-01 with Duke's Shane Battier. Carolina's other recipients include Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Pete Brennan (1958), Lee Shaffer (1960), Billy Cunningham (1965), Larry Miller (1967 and 1968), Mitch Kupchak (1976), Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984) and Antawn Jamison (1998).

✓ 11 - UNC players selected in the first round of the NBA Draft in the last 11 years.

✓ 11 - Number of NCAA regional championships won by Carolina under former head coach Dean Smith. Only former UCLA coach John Wooden went to more Final Fours. Wooden led the Bruins to 12 NCAA Final Four appearances.

✓ 13 - UNC won 13 ACC Tournament championships under Dean Smith. That's the most in league history for any coach. Mike Krzyzewski of Duke ranks second with six.

✓ 15 - Carolina is credited with 15 NCAA Final Four appearances. That is more than any other school in the nation.



Hugh Morton

Michael Jordan hit the winning shot to give Carolina the 1982 NCAA championship.

✓ 15 - Carolina has won 15 ACC Tournament championships, three more than any other conference school.

✓ 16 - Times in the last 35 years the Tar Heels have been ranked among the top four teams in the country by at least one of the two major polls.

✓ 17 - Number of former Tar Heels active in the NBA at the start of the 2001-02 training camps. They included Vince Carter (Toronto), Ed Cota (New York), Hubert Davis (Washington), Joseph Forte (Boston), Rick Fox (L.A. Lakers), Brendan Haywood (Washington), Antawn Jamison (Golden State), Michael Jordan (Washington), George Lynch (Philadelphia), Jeff McInnis (L.A. Clippers), Eric Montross (Toronto), Makhtar Ndiaye (Cleveland), Kevin Salvadori (Boston), Jerry Stackhouse (Detroit), Rasheed Wallace (Portland), Scott Williams (Milwaukee) and Shammond Williams (Seattle).

✓ 17 - Carolina has advanced to the Final 16 of the NCAA Tournament in 17 of the last 21 years. Carolina reached the Final 16 in 13 consecutive years, from 1981 to 1993, equalling the longest streak in NCAA history (UCLA also went 13 straight years from 1967-79).

✓ 17 - Carolina has reached the Final Eight of the NCAA Tournament 17 times over the past 35 years.

✓ 23 - In the 48-year history of the ACC, Carolina has earned the regular-season championship 23 times. That's 48 percent of the time in a nine-member league. Duke is second with 16 regular-season titles.

✓ 24 - Carolina has shot 50 percent or better from the field 24 times in the last 31 years.

✓ 26 - UNC has finished in the Top 10 of a major wire service poll (media or coaches) in 26 of the last 35 seasons. Kentucky is second with 23 appearances. Carolina has been in at least one Top 10 in 22 of the last 28 seasons and in both Top 10 rankings in 16 of the last 21 campaigns. Dean Smith had more teams post Top 10 finishes (25) than any other coach in history. Adolph Rupp of Kentucky is second with 18.

✓ 27 - The Tar Heels have made an NCAA record 27 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. Arizona (current) has the second-longest streak in history with 17.

✓ 27 - Carolina players have won 27 NBA championship rings, including 1999-2000 and 2000-01 champions Rick Fox and general manager Mitch Kupchak of the Los Angeles Lakers

✓ 27 - Carolina has played in the championship game of the ACC Tournament a record 27 times. Duke is second with 22 appearances. The Tar Heels have played in the title game nine times in the last 11 years and 12 times in 15 years.

✓ 28 - The Tar Heels held the opponents to under 50 percent shooting from the floor in each of the final 28 games last season.

UNC STREAKS ENTERING THE SEASON ...

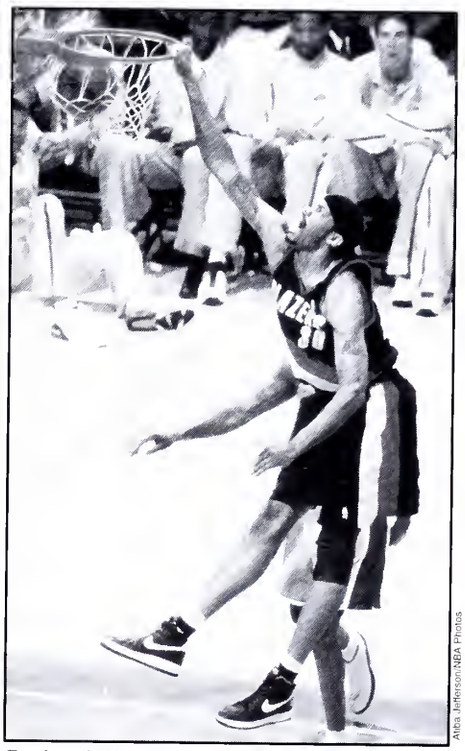
✓ 37 straight finishes of third place or better in the ACC

✓ 31 straight 20-win seasons (longest in NCAA history)

✓ 27 straight NCAA Tournament appearances (longest in NCAA history)

✓ 26 top-10 national poll finishes in the last 35 seasons

✓ nine consecutive records of .500 or better on the road in ACC play



Atlha Jefferson/NBA Photos

Rasheed Wallace has appeared in the last two NBA All-Star Games and is among the best power forwards in basketball.

✓ 30 - The number of 20-win seasons Dean Smith posted as head coach at North Carolina. That's the most in college basketball history. Current Fresno State coach Jerry Tarkanian is second with 29 20-win seasons.

✓ 31 - Number of consecutive years in which Carolina has won at least 21 basketball games. That is an NCAA record for most consecutive 20-win seasons.

✓ 31 - Number of Tar Heel players selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Duke is second among ACC schools with 21. Last year, Brendan Haywood and Joseph Forte were first round picks. Overall, 85 UNC players have been chosen in all rounds of the NBA Draft.

✓ 34 - Wins by the Tar Heels in 1997-98, making Bill Guthridge the winningest first-year head coach in Division I men's basketball history. Guthridge is also the winningest second-year and third-year coach in NCAA history.

✓ 35 - Carolina has qualified for postseason play in each of the last 35 years. Thirty-one of those trips have been to the NCAA Tournament and four were to the NIT. The four NIT trips and four of the NCAA appearances came in an era when only the winner of the ACC Tournament was eligible to receive an NCAA bid.

✓ 37 - The Tar Heels have finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings in 37 straight seasons. In those 37 seasons, Carolina has finished first 18 times, second 12 times and third on seven occasions.

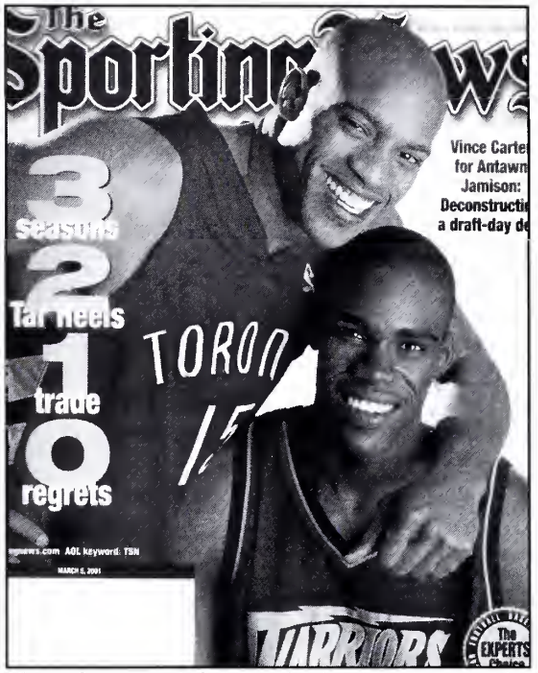
✓ 39 - Carolina has finished the season ranked in the Top 25 of one of the two major polls on 39 occasions. That includes 29 Top 10 finishes. The media poll began in 1949 and the coaches poll in 1951.

✓ 39 - Number of Carolina players who have been named All-America, the latest being Joseph Forte and Brendan Haywood in 2000-01.

✓ 50 - Antawn Jamison scored 51 points in consecutive games last season for the NBA's Golden State Warriors. The last two NBA players to score 50-plus points in back-to-back games are former Tar Heels Michael Jordan (in 1986-87) and Jamison.

Graduation photos by Dan Sears.

✓ 53 - Jason Capel and Kris Lang each have scored 1,000-plus career points. They are among the 53 1,000-point scorers in Carolina history. The Tar Heels have produced more 1,000-point scorers than any school in the country.



Vince Carter and Antawn Jamison are among the NBA's top stars, with each signing long-term contracts prior to the 2001-02 season.

Brian Fleming

Julius Peppers is one of the best college athletes in recent memory. He led the nation in sacks on the football field in 2000 and was a key member of the last two Carolina basketball teams.

✓ 58 - Number of Tar Heel players since 1962 who have played professional basketball in either the National Basketball Association or American Basketball Association.

✓ 61 - The Tar Heels have earned 61 first-team All-ACC honors, the highest figure in ACC history. Duke is second with 47.

✓ 64.5 - The percentage of ACC regular-season road games UNC has won over the past 34 seasons, based on a record of 160-88. No other team has won at least half its ACC road games in that time.

✓ 65 - Dean Smith led UNC to a record 65 wins in NCAA Tournament play. Duke's Mike Krzyzewski is second with 56 and UCLA's John Wooden is third with 47.

✓ 81 - Carolina has won 81 NCAA Tournament games in its 35 tourney appearances. That is second on the all-time list, behind Kentucky's 87 victories.

✓ 81 - Carolina has been ranked No. 1 in the country in 81 Associated Press polls. That is the third-highest figure in history behind UCLA (128) and Kentucky (87).

✓ 95.8 - Carolina played in front of 95.8 percent capacity crowds last year at the Smith Center. Ten of UNC's 14 home games were sellouts.

✓ 333 - Number of consecutive games played by the Tar Heels in which they were ranked by the Associated Press from the 1990-91 preseason until Jan. 24, 2000. That is an ACC record.

✓ 879 - Dean Smith directed the Tar Heels to 879 wins in 36 seasons as head coach. He is the all-time winningest NCAA Division I basketball coach. Kentucky's Adolph Rupp is second all-time with 876.

✓ 1,781 - Carolina has won 1,781 games in its 91 seasons of intercollegiate basketball competition. That is second in college basketball history. Kentucky is first with 1,795 wins in 98 seasons.

✓ 21,750 - Capacity of the Dean E. Smith Center. Carolina averaged 20,836 fans last year, the second-highest attendance in the country. No other ACC school was ranked in the Top 15 in the country in attendance last year.

2001-02 OUTLOOK

A young Tar Heel team looks to build on last year's ACC regular-season championship.

Seniors Jason Capel and Kris Lang lead the Tar Heels as they pursue their 28th straight NCAA Tournament appearance and 32nd consecutive 20-win campaign. Second-year head coach Matt Doherty will look to those experienced seniors and a blend of younger players to return the Tar Heels to the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Last year, Carolina ran off 18 wins in a row to vault to the No. 1 ranking in the country and tie for the ACC regular-season championship. The Tar Heels may have to replace five of the top seven performers from that team, including the top two scorers, guard Joseph Forte and center Brendan Haywood, starting point guard Ronald Curry and sixth-man Julius Peppers. Forte (20.0 ppg) and Haywood (12.3 ppg) were both selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Curry and Peppers are two-sport standouts at Carolina and may elect not to play basketball this season to prepare for professional football careers.

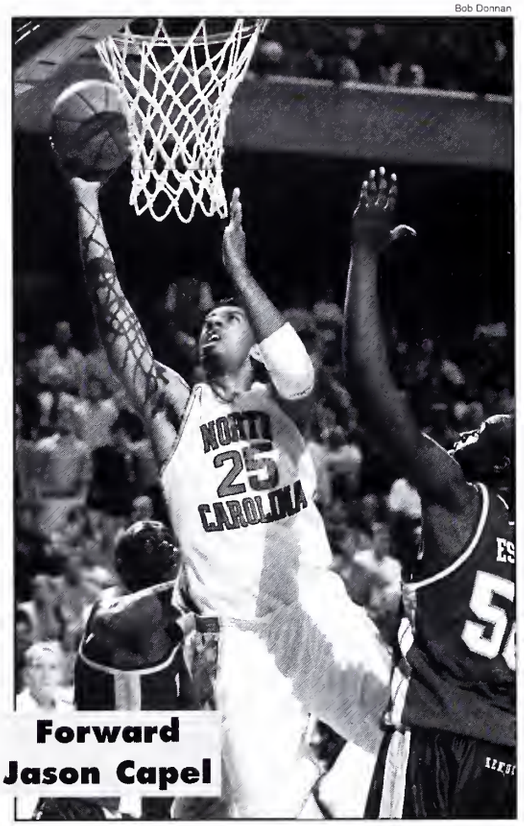
Capel and Lang are two of the most experienced players in the country. They were recruited by Dean Smith, played in a Final Four under Bill Guthridge and won an ACC regular-season title with Doherty. Both are members of the 1,000-point club at Carolina, combining to score 2,085 points.

Capel, 6-8, from Fayetteville, N.C., can play any of four positions. He is a preseason candidate for the John Wooden Award as the National Player of the Year. As a junior, Capel averaged 11.4 points and 7.3 rebounds per game. He shared team rebounding honors with Haywood. The honorable mention All-ACC selection also led the Tar Heels in three-point field goals made (56) and three-point percentage (.418) and was second in steals (36).

"Jason Capel does everything well," says Doherty. "I entrust a lot to him, handling the ball and shooting, putting guys in place, plus he's a great rebounder. He's a strong kid, who does all the little things for a team. This year he will probably add a little more scoring responsibility."

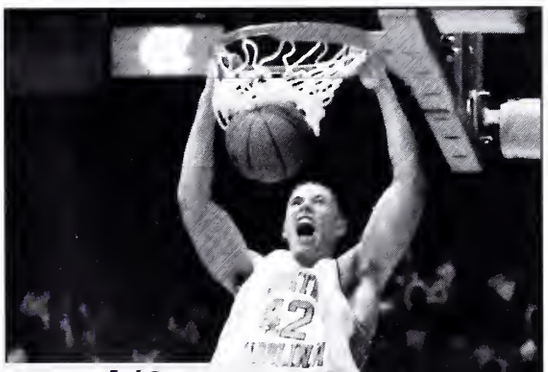
Lang, 6-11, can play both power forward and the post. The Gastonia, N.C., native has averaged 10.2 points and 5.1 rebounds per game in 102 career contests for the Tar Heels. He played in every game last year after battling injuries and illnesses his sophomore season. Lang has an excellent jump hook with both hands and can step out and knock down a 15-foot jumper as well. He shot better than 50 percent from the field in each of his first three seasons. An excellent defender, Lang will be expected to provide solid frontcourt play.

Bob Donnan



Forward Jason Capel

"Kris Lang is a great talent," says Doherty. "He's one of the best athletes I've coached for a player his size. He can really run and jump and he's the strongest kid on our team. Last year he showed he could score 20 points and get 10 rebounds. This year I hope he does that on a regular basis. The big thing with him is his health. If he is healthy, then that gives him more confidence. He needs to play with confidence. I think he can be as good as any power forward in the country."



Forward/Center Kris Lang

Robert Crawford

Capel and Lang may be the most experienced players on the squad, but they certainly are not the only returning members from last year's team that went 26-7. Fifth-year players Brian Bersticker and Orlando Melendez will challenge for spots in the playing rotation.

Bersticker, a 6-10 forward/center from Virginia Beach, Va., graduated last spring and is playing this season as a graduate student. He has scored 212 points and blocked 53 shots in 78 career games at UNC. He missed most of 1999-2000 with a fractured left foot, but returned last season to play in 20 contests.

"Brian Bersticker is a great shooter and very good shot blocker," says Doherty. "He can stretch the defense with his shooting range. Brian needs to be stronger to hold his position in and around the basket on both ends of the floor. If he has done his job in the weight room this summer then he has a good chance to help us this year."

Melendez has played in 52 games in four previous seasons. He played in three games as a true freshman in 1997-98 before suffering a season-ending foot injury. The 6-8 native of Juana Diaz, P.R., is an outstanding athlete and good outside shooter. He must show improvement on the defensive end and ball handling to see increased playing time this year at the shooting guard or small forward positions.

"Orlando is a great athlete, but he needs to get stronger, and be a great defender," says Doherty. "I think he has the potential to do that. He needs to take care of the ball and execute on offense."

Will Johnson, a 6-7 junior from Hickory, N.C., has an opportunity to see increased playing time on the perimeter. Johnson is a solid outside shooter and strong rebounder. A former all-state high school soccer goalie and basketball player, Johnson attends Carolina on a Morehead Scholarship, the most prestigious grant awarded at the University. Johnson scored 10 points last season against Miami (Fla.) and hit two long-range jumpers in the win at UCLA.

"Will plays extremely hard, and is a very tough kid," says Doherty. "He spent this summer working for Morgan Stanley in New York as a part of the Morehead program and was exposed to some inner city ball that should help him develop. He has a chance to help us this year at the 3-4 spots. Plus, Will is one of the best shooters on the team."

"We can potentially have five or six different guys who can score 20 points in a game. Balance will be the key to this team. I hope it will be harder to defend us."
-Matt Doherty

Jonathan Holmes, a 6-0 junior guard from Bloomington, Ind., is one of at least four players competing for playing time at point guard. Holmes has 28 assists in 39 games as a Tar Heel. He scored nine points and added five assists in Carolina's 91-81 win over Tulsa last November. As a freshman, he had five points and six assists against Florida State when he played in place of Ed Cota, who was out due to illness.

"Jon really knows how to run a team," says Doherty. "He worked hard this summer on his conditioning. He's lighter than he was last year. I think the point guard spot is wide open. He's prepared to battle for that this year. I know he did a great job every day last year in practice."

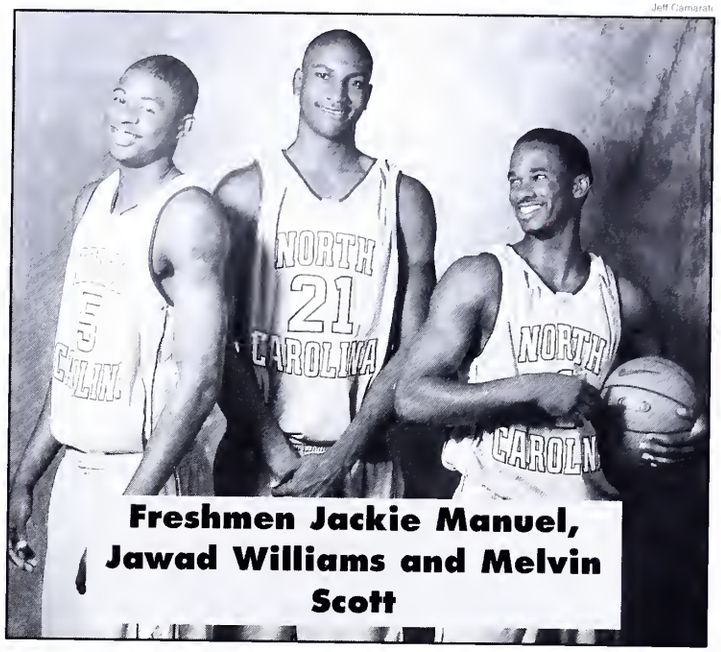
Holmes should compete at point guard with sophomores Adam Boone and Brian Morrison and freshman Melvin Scott. That quartet, plus the possible addition of Curry following the football season, should provide plenty of competition in practice and give Doherty a number of options at the position.

Boone, a Minneapolis, Minn., native, started the first seven games last year at the point and appeared in all but one game. He sprained his ankle in a freak accident just before the second Clemson game and was unable to play as the Tigers snapped Carolina's 18-game win streak. Boone had 44 assists and 33 turnovers as a freshman, including a season-high four assists on two occasions.

"Adam was doing a great job for us right up until he got hurt," says Doherty. "That injury set him back and set our team back a bit. We relied on him a great deal. He played well at Duke and against Georgia Tech at home, but then he got hurt and was never right again the rest of the year. We missed him at Clemson; it was a tough adjustment for our team. I expect him to battle for the starting point guard spot this year."

Morrison, from Kirkland, Wash., showed flashes of outstanding athletic ability last year. Morrison can play either guard position and should see more playing time if he becomes more consistent both handling and shooting the ball. He played in every game last year and averaged 3.0 points per game. He began his collegiate career by scoring 14 points against Winthrop and 13 at Appalachian State. Morrison did an excellent job defending Clemson's Will Solomon in the home win over the Tigers. He also provided a spark as he scored eight points against Duke in Chapel Hill.

Jeff Camarata



Freshmen Jackie Manuel, Jawad Williams and Melvin Scott

"Brian's one of the best athletes on the team," says Doherty. "He has to get stronger, but he couldn't lift weights this summer due to an elbow problem so we'll have to see how he progresses. If he takes care of the ball and is able to read and react on offense he can be a great player. He has to limit his turnovers and make sensible plays on offense. He's a very good defender because he's so quick. Strength will be important to him both offensively and defensively."

Scott, from Southern High School in Baltimore Md., is one of three true freshmen this year.

"Melvin caught my eye the summer before his junior year," says Doherty. "He caught my eye because he can guard the basketball and really shoot the ball. He's a very smart basketball player. He, like Jackie Manuel, always wanted to come to Carolina. They are a great fit. Melvin can play both guard spots."

Manuel, a 6-6 wing, is from Cardinal Newman High School in West Palm Beach, Fla. He was the first player to verbally commit to sign a scholarship to play at Carolina for Doherty. He committed to Carolina just a short time after Doherty was named head coach in July 2000.

"When I became the head coach and saw how good Joseph Forte was, I knew we might not have him for too long, so I wanted to fill that two-guard slot. Jackie Manuel is a very good shooter and basketball player. He understands the game, passing, shooting, angles, little things like that. He has the ability to be a great defender because he is so long and quick."

The third incoming freshman who will have an impact this season is Jawad Williams, a 6-9 native of Cleveland, Ohio, who comes to UNC

*red-shirt freshman

Head Coach: Matt Doherty (North Corolina '84) • 26-7 at Carolina (1 yeor) • 48-23 overall (2 years)

from St. Edwards High School in Lakewood, Ohio. Williams can play a variety of positions and should primarily play at small and power forward this year.

"Jawad is an athletic, 6-9, wing player, who may have to play some at '4'," says Doherty. "If he's there, he can really stretch the defense. He's a good shooter, and a very good basketball player. He's long and if he's committed to defense, I think he can be a tremendous defensive player. I've said I want to recruit players who can pass, handle and shoot. Jawad certainly fills that bill."

Another newcomer to the active roster is 7-5 center Neil Fingleton, a red-shirt freshman. Fingleton hails from Durham, England, but moved to Worcester, Mass., in August 1997, and attended Holy Name Central Catholic High School. He had surgery in the summer of 2000 to repair disks in his back and as a result, was able to practice, but not play last year.

"If Neil can run the floor, then he can be effective for us," says Doherty. "Like the professional game, the college game is fast so he has to be able to react and change ends. I like how Neil is really committed to becoming a good player. This summer he played for the Great Britain National Team (in the World University Games) and that has to help him and give him some confidence."

Should Curry and Peppers decide to play basketball this season, it would greatly increase the team's depth and level of experience. Curry would be one of five point guard candidates, and Peppers would make a major difference on the Tar Heel frontline.

Peppers averaged 7.2 points and 4.0 rebounds per game last year and led UNC with a field goal percentage of .618. He scored 21 points and had 10 rebounds in the second round NCAA Tournament game against Penn State.

Curry joined the starting lineup in mid-December and was at the controls as Carolina won the next 16 games in a row. He came up big in wins at Maryland and Duke, had eight assists in the home win over the Terps and a career-high 10 assists in the ACC Tournament win over Clemson.

Regardless of Curry's and Peppers' status, Carolina should be more balanced offensively than a year ago.

"We will be a little smaller, but hopefully a little quicker," says Doherty. "I think we can put lineups on the floor so we can potentially have five or six different guys who can score 20 points in a game. Balance will be the key to this team. I hope it will be harder to defend us. Last year teams would double-team Haywood all the time or keep Joe from getting the ball. I hope our balance will make us more difficult to guard because they can't just shut down one guy."

Several players, including Morrison, Scott, Manuel, Capel, Williams, Lang and Bersticker, can play a number of positions, which will allow Doherty to experiment with a number of combinations.

"That gives us some flexibility," Doherty, last year's Associated Press Coach of the Year, says. "I still haven't settled on all of our offensive sets. I know we will move the ball around and I know I have confidence in our shooters. It may be more of an open post offense. I think you will see more guys who should drive to the goal more. And I've encouraged Lang to step out and shoot the jump shot, because he can hit that shot and it will open things up for us around the goal.

"I don't think we'll change a lot defensively," Doherty continues. "I hope we can get after people. We'll miss Ronald Curry on the ball and miss Haywood in the paint. Brendan was a big reason why people shot a low percentage against us. People had one eye on Brendan and one eye on the basket. We don't have a great shot blocker this year. Lang is a great defender, but not a shot blocker. Brendan is one of the best defenders I've ever coached."

Even with the loss of All-Americas Forte and Haywood and the possible loss of Curry and Peppers, Doherty is not one to concede anything to his ACC rivals.

"I like the talk that we won't be in the upper echelon of the league this year," says Doherty. "It adds great bulletin board stuff. We are Carolina. There is a lot of pride in that uniform. Our goals will never change. We want to win the ACC, the ACC Tournament and the national championship. Just because we lost two first round draft choices doesn't mean that is going to change."

TAR HEEL TIDBITS

✓ Carolina returns 50.6 percent of its scoring, 63.2 percent of its rebounding and 66.0 percent of its assists from last season.

✓ Seniors Kris Lang and Jason Capel are just the seventh and eighth Carolina four-year starters since freshmen became eligible in 1972-73.

✓ The last UNC team to start at least two freshmen on a regular basis was the 1998-99 squad (Jason Capel and Kris Lang).

TAR HEEL TRADITIONS

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Bob Donnan

Others say the nickname was acquired during the War Between the States. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

For nearly 70 years the mascot of North Carolina's basketball and other teams has been a ram. Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant, 9-1 football record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's unusual sobriquet.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

Tar Heels rams have traveled everywhere from New York City (for the Carolina-Notre Dame game in 1949) to Jacksonville for Carolina's Gator Bowl appearances.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white. Since society membership was compulsory for all students, the opinions and activities of these organizations were by nature of circumstances all embracing. It was the custom for all men from localities west of Chapel Hill to affiliate with the Di and generally for students from the east to become members of the Phi.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

Later, when intercollegiate athletics were established, the question of what to wear became a problem. Certainly, the students wanted to be associated with the University, but the school had no official colors. So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

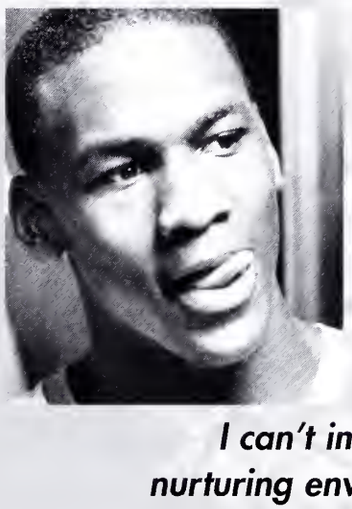
THE CAROLINA EXPERIENCE



"I am proud to be a part of the Carolina basketball family. I can't imagine a more nurturing environment or a better program in which to learn the game of basketball than at North Carolina."

– Michael Jordan

THE CAROLINA EXPERIENCE

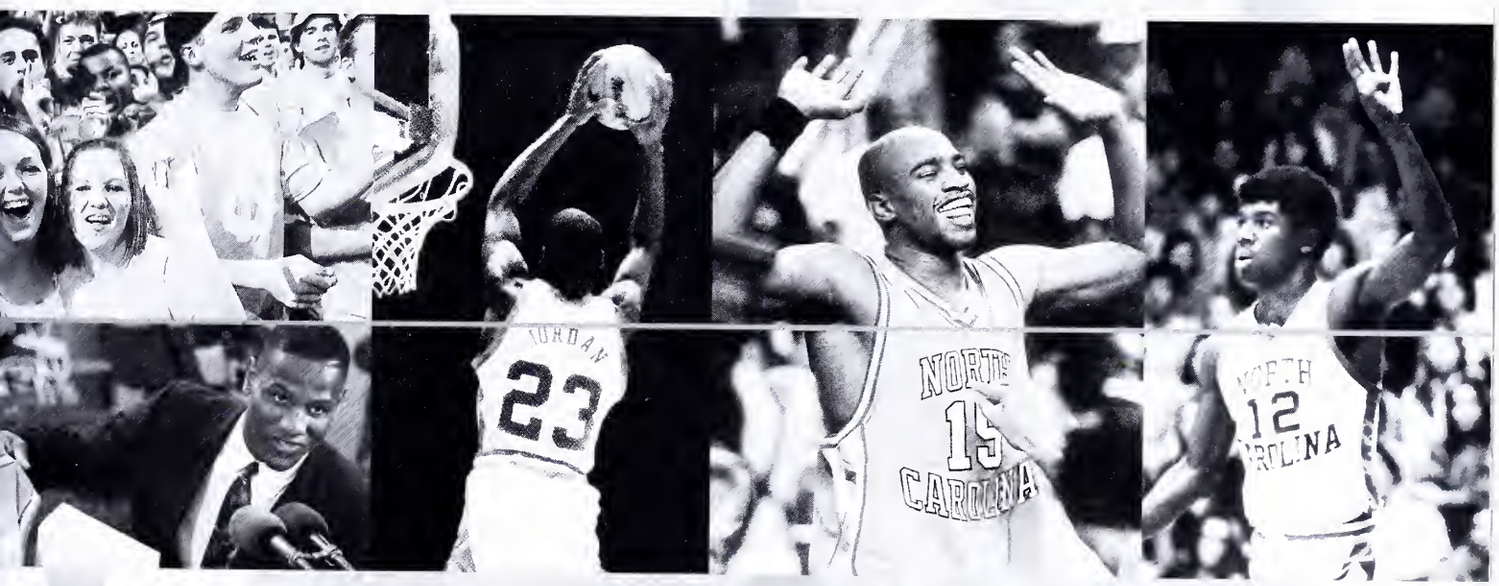
"Fundamentals are the game's required reading, its compulsory figures. If [a player] refuses to learn them, an ordinary ballplayer won't become good. If he does learn them, who knows where someone blessed with talent will soar? Year after year, North Carolina gives us examples of both."

– Sports Illustrated's Alex Wolff

THE GREATEST:
Dean Smith retired in 1997 as the NCAA's alltime winningest coach with 879 victories.

U.S. News and World Report ranks Carolina as the fifth-best public university in the nation.

Vince Carter helped lead Carolina to back-to-back ACC titles and Final Four berths in 1997 and 1998.



North Carolina is college basketball's second-winningest program of all time, with 1,781 wins in 91 seasons.

Perhaps the best point guard in NCAA history, Phil Ford was the National Player of the Year in 1978.

In 1924, Cartwright Carmichael and Jack Cobb led Carolina to a 26-0 record. UNC was voted the national champion by the Helms Foundation.

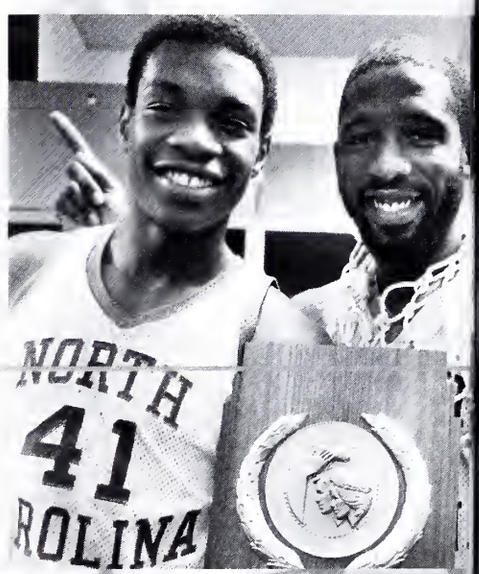
In 1957, Carolina went 32-0 and won the national championship by defeating Michigan State and Kansas in the Final Four. Both games went to triple overtime. Carolina was led by National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth.

FOUR NATIONAL TITLES

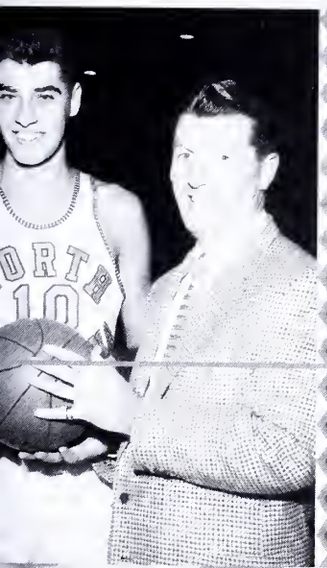
In 1982, James Worthy scored 28 points and Michael Jordan hit the game-winning shot as Carolina edged Georgetown, 63-62.

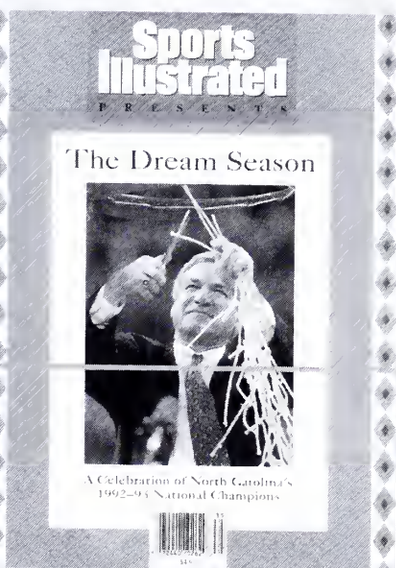
In 1993, Final Four Most Outstanding Player Donald Williams and frontcourt standouts George Lynch and Eric Montross led Carolina past Michigan, 77-71. The championship was Dean Smith's second national title.

Sam Perkins and James Worthy with the 1982 trophy.



Donald Williams was the Most Outstanding Player of the 1993 NCAA Final Four.





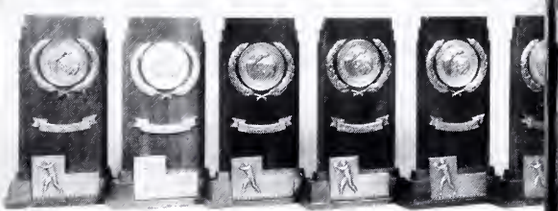
Lennie Rosenbluth and Frank McGuire led Carolina to a 32-0 record and its first NCAA title.

One of the best defensive players in UNC history, George Lynch was the captain of the 1993 Tar Heels.

Carolina has been to an NCAA-record 15 Final Fours.

FIFTEEN FINAL FOURS

THREE-PEAT:
In 1969, Bill Bunting, Rusty Clark and Dick Grubar led Carolina to a 27-5 record and its third straight Final Four.



Carolina has been to the Final Four in six of the past 11 seasons.

Matt Doherty and James Worthy helped lead Carolina to the 1982 national championship.

Carolina has been to at least one Final Four in each of the last seven decades.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Carolina Basketball is nationally known for its prominence both on the playing court and academically. Not only is the University proud of achievements such as 15 Final Fours and being the winningest program in Atlantic Coast Conference history, it is also proud of the academic record of its men's basketball players.

Over the past 40 years, a staggering percentage of men's basketball student-athletes and managers have earned their undergraduate degrees from the University of North Carolina. Many have gone on to postgraduate degrees and professional careers such as law and medicine.

Over the past eight years, more than 76 percent of the Tar Heels have earned degrees. That is the highest percentage in the ACC and the second-highest among all state schools in the nation.

Carolina's Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes is a major component in the lives of a Tar Heel. The Academic Support Program assists student-athletes in successfully reaching their academic goals. The program supports students in the process of exploring their interests and abilities and in developing a broad academic experience.

Men's basketball players receive unparalleled individual instruction from counselors and tutors. UNC is unique in that every tutor who works with the men's basketball program is a professional educator — no undergraduate tutors — and each works with a specific academic program. English professors work with the student-athletes in English subjects, math professors help with math, etc.

Computers are available for basketball players to use in the players' lounge, adjacent to the locker room in the Smith Center. The computers are equipped with laser printers complete with a variety of software packages, including word processing, spreadsheets, CD-ROM reference materials, internet access and e-mail.

Carolina's academic support staff, led by Associate Athletic Director John Blanchard and Associate Director Burgess McSwain, works with the current student-athletes as well as with those players who may go on to NBA careers before receiving their degree.

In December 1999, Jerry Stackhouse and Antawn Jamison received their degrees at Commencement exercises in the Smith Center. Stackhouse had entered the NBA draft after his sophomore year in 1995 and Jamison declared for the NBA after his junior season in 1998.

Last spring, Vince Carter made national headlines after attending Graduation the same morning he was preparing to play the Philadelphia 76ers in Game 7 of the NBA Eastern Conference finals.

"Dream big dreams. Dream the kind of dreams Vince Carter is dreaming today," UNC Board of Governors Chairman Benjamin S. Ruffin said.

"The best part about it was actually walking into the stadium (for graduation)," said Carter. "It was awesome, a wonderful feeling. It was a breath of fresh air just to be able to put a cap and gown on and walk out there and accomplish something like that. A lot of people might not think it's important, might not care if the get their degree. It doesn't work that way in my family; it doesn't work that way in my mind."

"As a kid, I always dreamed about playing in the NBA," says Jamison, who was one of three players in the NBA to average 24 points and eight rebounds per game last year (Shaquille O'Neal and Chris Webber were the other two.) "But I never realized how special graduating from college would be. It's more important than anything I've accomplished in my life.

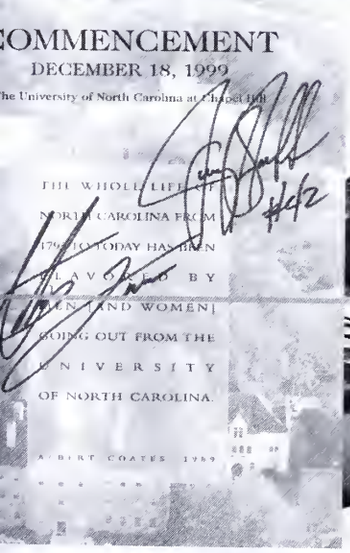
"That was one of the main reasons I went to Carolina," says Jamison. "A lot of the other programs were telling me how I could be this and that, but Carolina always talked about getting an education first. I know how important it is to Coach Smith that the players get their degrees. In some ways, it's a show of respect for Coach and the Carolina family to go ahead and work and get your degree."

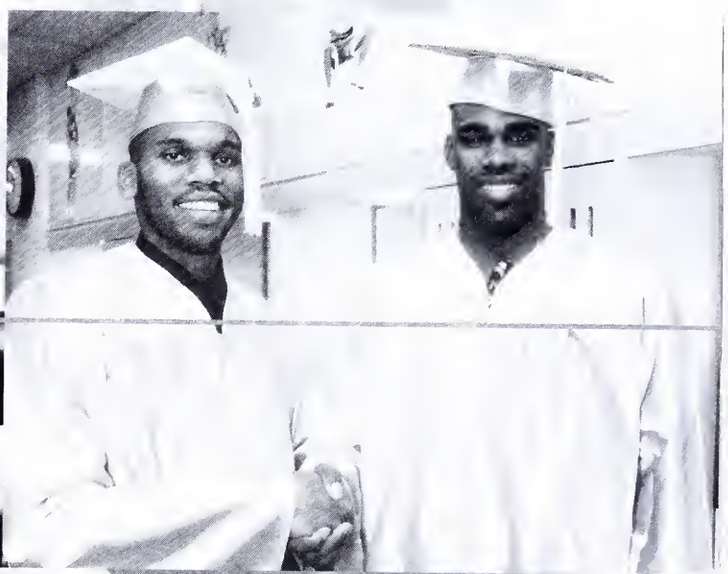
"Graduating means more to me than anything in basketball," said Stackhouse. "We've played basketball all of our lives. This is something special because I used my mind instead of my body."

Carter, Jamison and Stackhouse are by no means the only former Tar Heels to get their college degrees. But each of them led their respective NBA teams in scoring last year, are considered among the finest players in the world and have demonstrated the value of a Carolina education. They are shining stars both on and off the court and they have made UNC very proud of them.

"Vince Carter donned some Carolina Blue yesterday for the last time. His smile could have lit up the world. He was attending his college graduation and I could only think of one thing. This is great. Kids are watching."

– Dan Patrick, ESPN





UNC topped the nation's elite universities for the second consecutive year with the highest percentage of black freshmen enrolled in the country's highest-ranked universities and liberal arts colleges in the fall of 2000, according to a survey by "The Journal of Blacks in Higher Education."

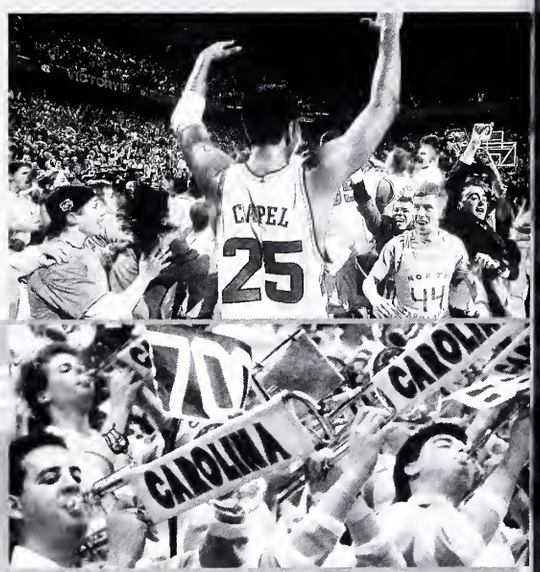
"Jordan, as ice-bucket cool as a 6'5" freshman could be, had already contributed six baskets and nine rebounds. Now, with 18 seconds to go, Jordan caught Black's pass in front of the Carolina bench. He was all alone. It was a play designed for him. He was right where he had imagined he would be on the bus ride over from the hotel, with the ball — and the game — in his hands. 'I didn't see it go in,' he said. 'I didn't look at the ball at all. I just prayed.' String music, choir."

– Curry Kirkpatrick, Sports Illustrated, April 5, 1982

In a survey of Division I coaches published during the 2000-01 season, The Sporting News ranked the Dean E. Smith Center as the No. 1 Game Venue in all of college basketball. The Sporting News wrote that "packing more than 21,000 people who bleed Tar Heel Blue into the Smith Center is a sure thing for creating that warm glow that college sports fans flock to in the dead of winter."

SMITH CENTER EXCITEMENT



A new seating plan unveiled in December of 2000 has brought students closer to the action at the Smith Center.

Renovations already underway will add a separate practice facility and expanded locker room to the Smith Center.

"The Carolina approach to strength and conditioning is a year-round one. We want our players to be able to compete against the challenging ACC schedule, our tough non-conference schedule and the rigors of the postseason. That kind of preparation will give our players the best opportunity to play in the NBA after they leave Carolina."

– Strength & Conditioning Director Thomas McKinney

PERSONALIZED DEVELOPMENT

Thomas McKinney brings a great deal of energy and passion to our strength and conditioning program. Coach McKinney's goals are to work with our players to help them become the best conditioned athletes possible to help North Carolina be in position to win championships each year and to develop our players so they will be best prepared to have successful NBA careers."

– UNC Head Coach Matt Doherty

"The intensity and style of play Coach Doherty wants to employ require that our players be in the best physical condition possible. That includes strength, conditioning and mental development. I'm upbeat and vocal and I'll push our guys to make themselves better."

– Strength & Conditioning Director Thomas McKinney

"I think Matt Doherty is doing a tremendous job of having those guys play hard for him and keeping the tradition alive. I bleed Carolina Blue. I'm always watching those guys and I'm very proud."

COACH MATT DOHERTY

National Coach of the Year

Matt Doherty was named the National Coach of the Year for 2000-01 by the Associated Press. He is the first Tar Heel and just the second ACC coach in history to win the award.

"If it wasn't for the University, I definitely wouldn't be in this situation that I am now, so I owe a lot to them. Every opportunity I get, I'm always checking my boys out."

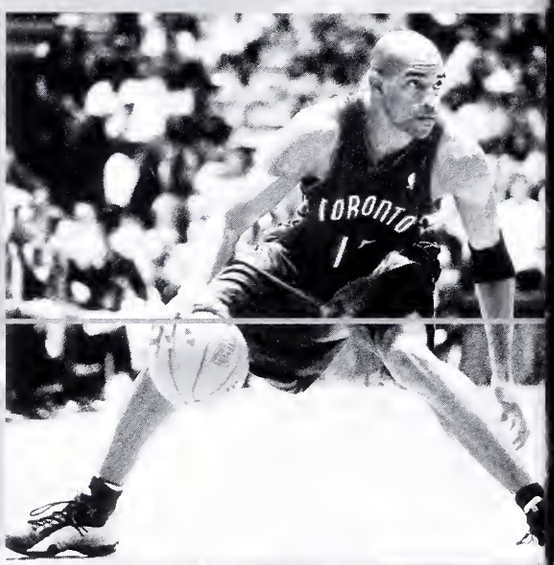
TAR HEELS IN THE NBA



Sports Illustrated senior writer Alex Wolff penned a column on CNN/SI.com on February 8, 2001. The following are excerpts from that column:

"Check out the NBA scoring leaders, and among the top eight you'll find three erstwhile Heels: Jerry Stackhouse, Vince Carter and Antawn Jamison.

I'm going to take the decidely old-school position that you can trace the success of all of these guys to some aspect of the Carolina way.

There aren't many others in the NBA as adept at knowing where and when to bring their physical gifts to bear.

Most of all, at Carolina all these guys learned the habit of winning. They developed the mental conditioning to face, and usually subdue, a succession of opponents determined to make their own season by taking out the princelings of the Piedmont. Imposing your will, night after night, is one of the most gueling demands the NBA makes on its players."

"You look at the NBA and you look at Carter and Jamison, Stackhouse and Wallace, what they are doing at the NBA level. It just blows you away," said Dick Vitale on the February 3, 2001 ESPN telecast of the UNC-Duke game. "Their numbers have gotten so much better because at Carolina, they learned how to play the team concept, they learned how to be unselfish, they learned fundamentals and they transformed that into the NBA to where they are standouts."

"Any time you put on the North Carolina jersey you are representing the history of Carolina basketball. For the rest of my life I will cherish the friendships I made here and the unity we had as a team. That's something that will never go away. Coaching Legacy

Dean Smith, college basketball's alltime winningest coach, and Bill Guthridge, who led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three seasons, helped build Carolina's program into the finest in the nation.

Matt Doherty was named National Coach of the Year in 2000-01 by the Associated Press.

Larry Brown and George Karl are two of the best coaches in the NBA and both played at Carolina. Brown was the 2001 NBA Coach of the Year, leading the 76ers to the NBA Finals. Karl led the Milwaukee Bucks to the Eastern Conference finals in 2001.

Jeff Lebo, Buzz Peterson, Randy Wiel and Roy Williams are among the former Tar Heels who are now college head coaches.

Carolina basketball receives unprecedented coverage from local and national media.

Heel to lead the team in free throw shooting as a freshman • Curtis Hunter accomplished the feat in 1982-83.

Missed eight games, due mainly to injuries • Did not play against Dartmouth due to an illness in his family, missed six games in late-January/mid-February due to mononucleosis, and did not play against Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament because of a back strain.

Battled through a disk problem all season • Fell on his back taking a charge in the UNC Charlotte, initially aggravating his back condition • Took a hard fall in practice two days before the regular-season finale against Duke • That caused him to miss the ACC Tournament opener against Georgia Tech.

Returned to action against fifth-ranked Maryland in the ACC semifinals and scored 13 points in the upset win • He was 5 for 6 from the field, including 3 for 3 from three-point range • However, he fell hard on his back attempting to grab a rebound and did not play the final 14:09 • In the championship game against Duke, he did not score in limited action • He was able to play just four minutes in the NCAA Tournament against Weber State.

Shared team-scoring honors with 15 points and was 7 of 8 from the free throw line in the home win over NC State • His three-point basket with 9:49 remaining cut the Wolfpack lead to one point • Sank four free throws in overtime to lead Carolina to a 68-65 win over Wake Forest on Feb. 23.

Scored a season-high 16 points in back-to-back games against Old Dominion and the College of Charleston and was named the Most Valuable Player of the Food Lion MVP Classic • Was 6 of 7 from the field against ODU, where his father, Jeff, was the head coach, and 4 of 5 against College of Charleston.

Hit three three-point field goals in Carolina's 89-76 loss vs. Maryland on Jan. 13.

Scored 11 points, including several crucial free throws, in Carolina's 77-72 win vs. Louisville • In fact, Capel was 9 of 10 from the free throw line against the Cardinals.

PREP

Attended St. John's at Prospect Hall in Frederick, Md. • Played for Coach Stu Vetter, who also coached former Tar Heels Mike Pepper, George Lynch and Serge Zwikker in high school • Helped lead St. John's to USA Today's 1998 high school national championship • Two-time team captain at St. John's • Attended Chesapeake Indian River High in Virginia as a freshman and sophomore • In the eighth grade, he played on the varsity at Greensboro (N.C.) Day School • At the time his dad was the head coach at N.C. A&T • First-team All-America as a senior by Street & Smith's • Second-team Parade and Basketball Times All-America • Finalist for the Naismith Prep Player of the Year Award • Virginia Player of the Year as a sophomore and Maryland Private School Player of the Year as a junior • Averaged 20.1 points, 12.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game as a senior and 20.2 points, 9.0 rebounds and 4.2 assists a contest as a junior • Was Most Valuable Player at eight different high school tournaments • Scored 22 points in the McDonald's All-Star Game • Played for the USA Basketball Junior National Team in the Nike Hoop Summit • Teamed with Ronald Curry to win the AAU Junior Olympic 19-and-under national championship in 1998 and the under-17 title in 1997 • His older brother, Jeff, played at Duke from 1993-97 and captained the Blue Devils as a senior • His dad, Jeff Sr., was a collegiate head coach, most recently at Old Dominion.

AT CAROLINA

Could be a major contributor this season after two years as one of Carolina's top reserves • A tough, strong power forward who is remarkably agile for a man his size • Is perhaps gifted enough to play in both the NFL and the NBA.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (2000-01)

Named by The Sporting News as the country's Top Two-Sport Athlete (as voted by NCAA Division I coaches) • Joined the basketball team after the conclusion of the football season and the completion of fall semester exams • Played in 25 contests • Averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds per game and led the Tar Heels with a field goal percentage of .643 • Made 63 of 98 shots from the floor • Made at least 60 percent of his shots from the floor in 16 of 25 games • Scored in double figures six times, including 21 against Penn State, 18 against Maryland, 14 against Wake Forest, 13 against Marquette, 12 vs. Princeton and 10 vs. NC State • Made his season debut at UCLA after just three days of practice and had six points and four rebounds in the win • Scored 13 points and grabbed nine rebounds against Marquette • Thunderous alley-oop dunk (pass by Ronald Curry) against Wake Forest on Jan. 6 was CNN/SI's Play of the Day • Matched his then-career-high with 14 points in the Feb. 3 win over Georgia Tech • Had six points, five rebounds and an impressive dunk in the win at Wake Forest on Feb. 6 • Made his first career start on Feb. 10 versus Maryland and responded with a career-high 18 points on 7 of 10 shooting • Had eight points, five rebounds and three assists in the home win over Clemson • Scored 10 points in 18 minutes on Feb. 28 vs. NC State as Carolina clinched a share of the ACC regular season championship • Started both NCAA Tournament games, responding with 12 points against Princeton and a career-high 21 points and 10 rebounds against Penn State (his first career double-double) • Made 13 of 15 field goal attempts in the two NCAA Tournament games in the Louisiana Superdome • Went 5 for 6 from the floor, and added five boards and three steals in the first round against Princeton • Made 8 of 9 field goal attempts, 5 of 7 free throws, and had 10 rebounds versus Penn State.

Peppers Notes

- A stellar defensive end on the football team and perhaps the top prospect for the 2002 NFL Draft
- Chosen the top two-sport athlete in the nation by a vote of Division I basketball coaches last season
- Majoring in Afro-American studies

Peppers's Career Highs

ADAM BOONE

#31 Guard

6-2, 202, Sophomore

Minneapolis, Minn. (Minnetonka)

AT CAROLINA

Will compete for starting honors at point guard • Shared point guard duties as a freshman primarily with Ronald Curry • Averaged almost 11 minutes per game as a freshman • Must improve defensively and in attacking the defenses to grab hold of the starting job • Showed the ability to hit the three-point shot.

Boone Notes

- Starting candidate at point guard
- Has worked to improve his defense and quickness
- Undeclared major

FRESHMAN SEASON (2000-01)

Became the 16th Tar Heel to start in his first game as a freshmen since first-year players became eligible to play in 1972-73 • Other UNC players to do this include Phil Ford, Mike O'Koren, James Worthy, Michael Jordan, Kenny Smith, J.R. Reid, Pete Chilcutt, Rick Fox, Vince Carter, Antawn Jamison, Ed Cota, Brendan Haywood, Jason Capel, Kris Lang and Joseph Forte • Had 44 assists and 33 turnovers • Had a season-high four assists on two occasions (at Appalachian State and against Clemson in Chapel Hill) • Nailed three three-pointers at Appalachian State • Strong second-half at UCLA was a factor in Carolina's road win • Had three assists and no turnovers and played good defense against the Bruins • Hit a key three-pointer in the win at Maryland • Did not score but played very poised for 15 minutes at Duke after Ronald Curry got in early foul trouble, posting three assists and two turnovers • Registered season highs in minutes played, points and rebounds against Georgia Tech on Feb. 3 • Scored 10 points, had five rebounds in 28 minutes in the win over the Yellow Jackets that moved Carolina into the No. 1 ranking in the nation • Did not play in the loss at Clemson due to a sprained left ankle • Scored 10 of his 15 field goal attempts from three-point range • Shot 75 percent from the free throw line, although he attempted free throws in just three games • Had three steals in the win over Texas A&M.

Boone's Career Highs

BRIAN MORRISON

#3 Guard

6-2, 184, Sophomore

Redmond, Wash. (Lake Washington)

AT CAROLINA

One of the best athletes on the team • Will challenge for playing time at both guard positions • Showed good range and defensive potential last year • Saw time as a freshman at both point and shooting guard • Needs to get stronger and improve his ball-handling to earn more playing time • Showed flashes of being an excellent defender.

Morrison Notes

- Among Carolina's most athletic players
- Showed flashes of potential last season and should be improved as a sophomore
- Could see playing time at shooting guard or the point
- Majoring in communications studies with a minor in psychology

FRESHMAN SEASON (2000-01)

Played in 32 of Carolina's 33 games • Scored a freshman-high 97 points, had 35 rebounds and 38 assists • Shot 17 for 45 from three-point range, a percentage of .378 • Scored in double figures twice, including 14 points against Winthrop and 13 at Appalachian State • Made 3 of 4 from three-point range and had a season-high three steals in the season opener against Winthrop • Scored in 18 of 32 games • Did not play at Florida State due to a sprained right ankle • Suffered the injury in practice on Jan. 18 • Scored seven straight UNC points in the road win over UCLA • Scored nine points and played exceptional defense against Will Solomon in the second half in Carolina's 92-65 win over Clemson in Chapel Hill • Hit a big three-pointer to put UNC up, 57-56, in the second half at Wake Forest • Scored eight points in nine minutes versus Duke on March 4 • Tied his season high with five assists and had two steals against Clemson in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals • Also had five assists against Kentucky • Made at least one three-pointer in 12 games and had four games in which he connected on at least two three-pointers • Had a season-high five rebounds at Michigan State and at Clemson.

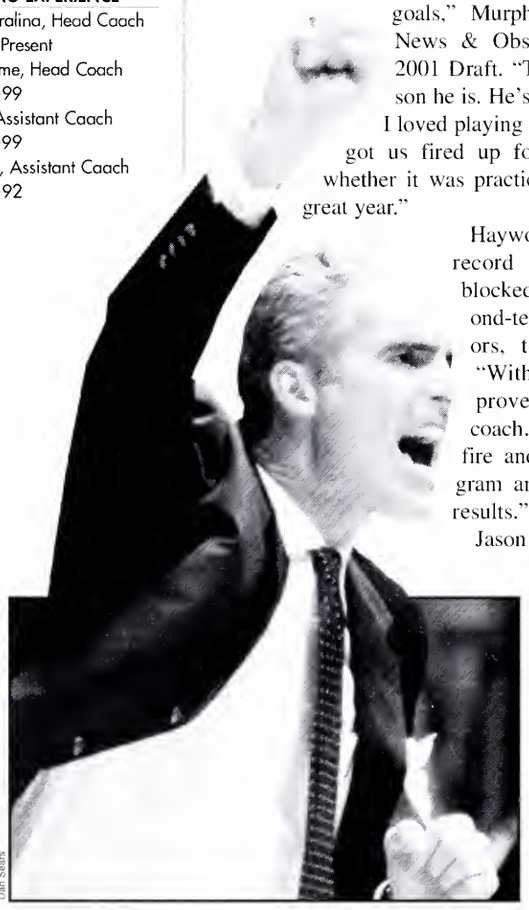
If year one of Matt Doherty's tenure as head coach of the Tar Heels is any indication, then it should be a very long time before Carolina needs to look for its next basketball coach. Doherty, in just his second season directing a Division I program, led the Tar Heels to 26 wins, a No. 1 national ranking late in the regular season, a 13-3 league record and share of the ACC regular-season championship, a berth in the ACC Tournament finals and an NCAA Tournament berth.

Doherty became the first coach in ACC history to win the regular-season title in his first year in the conference. He also became first person in ACC history to play and coach for No. 1 ranked teams at the same school.

For his efforts, the 1984 UNC graduate was named the National Coach of the Year by The Associated Press and the district coach of the year by the United States Basketball Writers Association. For the second consecutive season, Doherty coached the conference's player of the year. Guard Joseph Forte was Co-ACC Player of the Year and a consensus first-team All-America. Notre Dame forward Troy Murphy earned Big East Player of the Year honors in 1999-2000 while playing for Doherty.

Forte and Murphy were both selected in the first round of the 2001 NBA draft. Two other players Doherty has coached, Carolina center Brendan Haywood and Kansas center Eric Chenowith, also were selected in the first and second rounds, respectively.

"Coach Doherty's really got so many things he wants to do, but he's going to accomplish all of his goals," Murphy told the (Raleigh) News & Observer just before the 2001 Draft. "That's the kind of person he is. He's that good of a person. I loved playing for Coach Doherty. He got us fired up for everything we did, whether it was practice or games. It was a great year."



Dan Sears

Haywood, who set a school record last year with 120 blocked shot and earned second-team All-America honors, told CBS Sportsline: "Without a doubt he's proven he was the right coach. He's brought a lot of fire and passion to this program and you are seeing the results."

Jason Capel agrees.

"He's a players' coach," Capel told the Winston-Salem Journal. "He's real cool, real demanding. He knows how to get on you, but at the same time pat you on the back. He demands us to be as enthusiastic or more enthusiastic than he is. That's a lot to live up to right there."

"Coach Doherty helps you up if you dive on the floor, he dives on the floor with you," Capel told Newsday. "He's a straight-to-the-point kind of guy; he's not going to pull any punches. It's cool to have someone you know and you can look up on the wall and see his picture up there and he wears the NCAA championship ring."

Doherty Notes

- 2000-01 AP National Coach of the Year
- The first coach in history to win the regular-season ACC title in his first year in the conference
- Is the first UNC grad to coach at Carolina since 1924
- Has tutored three first-round NBA Draft picks in two years as a head coach

Doherty's first UNC team won 11 straight games to open ACC play and 18 consecutive games overall. That was the sixth-longest win streak in Carolina history and the longest since 1985-86. Carolina tied for the regular-season ACC title, the Tar Heels' first since 1994-95. The Tar Heels posted an 8-3 road record with wins at NCAA Tournament qualifiers Duke, Maryland, Georgia Tech, UCLA and Wake Forest.

"It's proving that you must be yourself and utilize your personality as a strength," said ESPN/ABC's Dick Vitale. "And that's what Doherty has done by working up the crowd into a frenzy with his emotional style. I have never seen the Dean Dome as alive and rocking as it was versus Wake Forest. Sam Cassell once labeled the Carolina crowd as 'wine and cheese' bunch. Sorry, Sammy, but you haven't been to Chapel Hill recently ... Yes, the beat goes on at the Smith Center, just with a different maestro."

Late last season, Hall of Fame sportswriter Ron Green wrote about Doherty's passion and energy in a Charlotte Observer column: "Doherty played in a three-on-three game as part of Midnight Madness. He throws t-shirts into the crowd before games. On the sidelines, he takes his jacket off and twists and slides and stomps and yells and jumps, with feeling. He bumps fists with his players, joins in their postgame mosh pit in the locker room and isn't afraid to show his emotions ... The players have responded. They've played with far more fire this season ... The tall guy on the sidelines can outjump Bill Guthridge or Dean Smith, but he has kept his feet on the ground enough to preserve what they built, and in a most human way, made it better. He gets my vote (for ACC Coach of the Year)."

Doherty was named the 17th head basketball coach in school history on July 11, 2000. Doherty played at Carolina from 1980-84 and was head coach at Notre Dame for one season. He led the Irish to a 22-15 record and a berth in the NIT finals in his first season as a collegiate head coach.

"As a coach, Matt has the total package," says Dean Smith. "He can coach, he can teach the game to others, he represents the University the right way, is task-oriented, not time-oriented, and is obviously a much more thorough recruiter than I ever was. That's a real positive."

Doherty is the second former Tar Heel player to be named head coach of the Tar Heels. Monk McDonald, who played at UNC from 1921-24, led Carolina to a 20-5 record in 1925 in his only season as head coach.

"The tradition that's been created from Frank McGuire to Coach (Dean) Smith to Coach (Bill) Guthridge is second to none," Doherty says. "This is the best job in all of basketball. The Lakers, the Bulls, anything. This is the best job in all of basketball."

Kevin Allen/Impact Images

Doherty had been an assistant coach at the University of Kansas for seven years and at Davidson College for three years prior to his stint at Notre Dame. Doherty was named head coach of the Irish on March 30, 1999.

"As a player, Matt was the consummate coach on the floor, always thinking one step ahead of the game," says former NBA All-Star and Carolina teammate Brad Daugherty. "I know in my case as a younger teammate of his, I would look to Matt for advice even more than Michael (Jordan) and Sam (Perkins) because he knew everyone's position on the floor. He always played hard and strategically. Matt brings a no-nonsense style of basketball to Carolina. The youth and enthusiasm he brings to the program are dynamite."

The 22 wins by the Irish were the most the program has enjoyed since posting a 21-9 mark in 1988-89. Notre Dame's 8-8 finish in BIG EAST Conference regular-season play marked the first season in the Irish's five-year membership in the league the team had not posted a losing record.

"Coach Doherty has brought a lot of emotion," Murphy said. "We go out there and no matter who we're playing, we believe we can win. That definitely comes from Coach Doherty. He's always behind us. He's the ultimate players' coach. He's our leader."

The Irish defeated five ranked teams and got off to a quick start with a 59-57 win at Ohio State in the first round of the Preseason NIT. The fourth-ranked Buckeyes played in the previous NCAA Final Four. The Irish also posted a pair of wins over defending national champion Connecticut and defeated nationally-ranked St. John's and Seton Hall. The 22 wins for Doherty also marked the most ever by a first-year head coach at Notre Dame.

"He took care of every single aspect of coaching," Connecticut coach Jim Calhoun told the Winston-Salem Journal. "I don't think what he did at Notre Dame was a miracle, but the feeling of playing Notre Dame was more difficult because of Matt Doherty sitting in that seat. He came into a tough basketball league and he wasn't intimidated at all."

DOHERTY AS A PLAYER

Doherty played at Carolina under Dean Smith, the winningest coach in Division I history. The Tar Heels compiled a 117-21 record in Doherty's four seasons, a winning percentage of .848. He played in the 1981 NCAA championship game loss to Indiana, and started at small forward a year later as Carolina beat Georgetown to win the NCAA title. As a senior in 1984, Doherty tri-captained a team that swept through the ACC regular season with a 14-0 record and was ranked No. 1 in the country in the final polls. He started on two of Carolina's greatest teams ever — the 1982 squad that won the national title and featured James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Michael Jordan and Jimmy Black and the 1984 team that finished the season ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press and included Jordan, Perkins, Brad Daugherty and Kenny Smith.

"Matt played small forward, but today it would be called point forward because he was a great passer and unselfish player," says Coach Smith. "He was a very smart player and had great savvy. He was a tremendous passer and smart defender. He was a streaky shooter, but had some big games shooting the ball. He was always thinking pass first, especially playing with Perkins and our other post players, he knew to get the ball inside first. Matt knew the game and knew the only statistic that was important was how many games we won. He played hard and played starters minutes for four seasons."

He became just the second player in ACC history (North Carolina's Walter Davis was the first) to accumulate 1,000 points, 400 rebounds and 400 assists in a career. He averaged 9.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game and finished his career with 1,165 points, 448 rebounds and 446 assists in 129 games played. He played in all 101 games over his last three seasons.

"Matt had an excellent playing career at Carolina," says Guthridge. "It was obvious during his playing days he could be a very good coach if he chose that profession. He was a smart player, had a great feel for the game and knew how it should be played. He was a competitive, hard-nosed team player."

Freshman Season (1980-81) — The Tar Heels finished 29-8, won the ACC Tournament, finished ranked sixth nationally (both polls) and advanced to the NCAA title game against Indiana. Doherty averaged 6.0 points, 3.0 rebounds and had 67 assists in 28 games as a reserve forward. He missed nine games at midseason due to a fractured left thumb, the only games he would miss in his collegiate career.

Sophomore Season (1981-82) — The Tar Heels were 32-2, won the ACC Tournament and regular-season titles, finished ranked first in both polls and won the NCAA championship by defeating Georgetown (he had four points, three rebounds, one assist in that game). Doherty averaged 9.3 points, 3.0 rebounds, had 105 assists and led the team in free-throw percentage with a .772 mark (71 of 92). That team began the season ranked number one in the polls and Doherty appeared (along with Dean Smith, Perkins, James Worthy and Jimmy Black) on the cover of the Sports Illustrated preseason college basketball issue. He hit three free throws in the final 28 seconds of North Carolina's 47-45 triumph over Virginia in the ACC Tournament title game. He shared UNC scoring honors with 16 points in the NCAA regional semifinal win over Alabama.

Junior Season (1982-83) — The Tar Heels finished 28-8, won the ACC regular-season title, finished ranked eighth in both polls and advanced to the NCAA East Regional final. Doherty averaged 10.5 points and 3.8 rebounds, led the team in assists with 150 and was named the team's most outstanding defensive player. He scored a career-high 28 points in the 1983 ACC Tournament quarterfinal versus Clemson.

Senior Season (1983-84) — The Tar Heels finished 28-3, won the ACC regular-season title, finished ranked first in both polls and advanced to the NCAA East Regional semifinals. Doherty averaged 9.8 points and 4.0 rebounds and again led the team in assists with 124. He was a first-team selection on the All-ACC Tournament team (after earning second-team honors each of the two previous seasons) after hitting 17 of 25 field goals. He tri-captained the team with Perkins and Cecil Exum and received the Jim Tatum Award which is given to the UNC student-athlete with the most outstanding achievement in his/her sport and constructive participation in the community.

Ron Green Jr. wrote in 1981 for the Chapel Hill Newspaper: "Doherty is a vital element in the Tar Heel chemistry. He knows how to get the ball to his teammates when they can use it and he knows what to do with it when they give it back. Call it savvy, call it court-sense. That's what Doherty has ... What Doherty does to compensate for any quickness he might lack is outthink the opposition. He used to spend his summer days on playground courts, playing from sunup to sundown. It was there, as well as from his high school coach, that Doherty learned to play basketball.

"Rather than run up and down the court wondering about where his next jumper was coming from, Doherty studied the game. He watched the other players and he watched himself. A tidbit here, a tidbit there and Doherty was accumulating a storehouse of basketball sense."

He finished among the Tar Heel career leaders in scoring, free-throw percentage (.761 on 309 of 406) and assists (third with 446 when he graduated, behind only Phil Ford and Black, and still ranked ninth). The Tar Heels were 48-8 (.857) in ACC play.

He was a member of the ACC All-Academic team as a senior and played on the 1983 United States Select team that competed internationally. Doherty was a sixth-round pick by the Cleveland Cavaliers in the 1984 NBA draft as the 119th overall selection.

He graduated from UNC in 1984 with a degree in business administration and Dean's List honors. He worked in New York City for more than three years as a bond salesman for Kidder Peabody & Co., Inc., then spent a year as an executive search consultant with Sockwell and Anderson in Charlotte, N.C. He served two seasons as a basketball analyst in 1987-88 and 1988-89 as color commentator for the Davidson basketball radio network and also working games at North Carolina, St. Francis (N.Y.) College and Charlotte area high schools.

He began his coaching career with an AAU team in Charlotte with former Tar Heel three-sport standout Charles Waddell. The AAU team included future UNC point guard Jeff McInnis. Doherty then spent three seasons (1989-90 through 1991-92) as an assistant coach at Davidson under head coach Bob McKillop, who coached him as a player at Holy Trinity High School in Hicksville, N.Y.

The high school seniors he helped recruit in his final season at Davidson finished 25-5, ended up unbeaten in league play and participated in the NIT as college seniors in 1996.

After three seasons at Davidson, Doherty moved on to the University of Kansas, where he spent seven years as an assistant to Roy Williams. Williams was an assistant coach under Dean Smith when Doherty played in Chapel Hill.

The Jayhawks advanced to the NCAA tournament in each of his seven seasons in Lawrence. During those seven years, Kansas played in the 1993 Final Four, advanced to the Final Eight in '96, the Sweet 16 in '94, '95 and '97 — and to the second round each of his last two years.

"I'm so pleased Matt is the head basketball coach at North Carolina because I love that program so, so much and know it's in fantastic hands," says Williams. "Matt is one of the most organized, intense and competitive coaches I have ever known, and those qualities will help keep the North Carolina basketball program where it is and where it should be, and that's at the top of the basketball world. The greatest compliment I can give somebody is to say how much I love that basketball program, and along with that say I am so, so pleased that Matt Doherty is in charge. He is a Tar Heel and will continue that program at the high level of Coach Smith and Coach Guthridge."

Kansas won five Big Eight/Big 12 Conference titles during his stay and compiled an overall 202-42 (.828) record, including a 15-7 mark in NCAA tournament play.

Doherty coordinated recruiting and scouting at Kansas and assisted in all day-to-day operations of the Jayhawk program. During his tenure, he played a key role in signing nine McDonald's high school All-Americas, including Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Ryan Robertson, Lester Earl, Eric Chenowith, Kenny Gregory, Jeff Boschee and Nick Collison. Both Vaughn and LaFrentz (twice) earned Big Eight or Big 12 Conference player of the year honors; LaFrentz and Pierce earned consensus All-America honors in 1998 and Vaughn won first-team honors in 1997.

Here's a year-by-year look at what the Jayhawks accomplished in each of Doherty's seven seasons on the staff:

* 1992-93 - Kansas finished 29-7, won the Preseason NIT, won its third straight Big Eight regular-season title, finished the season ranked ninth (AP) and fourth (USA Today) and advanced to the Final Four.

* 1993-94 - Kansas finished 27-8, finished ranked 13th (AP) and 12th (USA Today) and advanced to the NCAAFinal 16.

* 1994-95 - Kansas finished 25-6, won the Big Eight Conference regular-season title, finished ranked fifth (AP) and 10th (USA Today), advanced to the NCAA Midwest semifinals.

* 1995-96 - Kansas finished 29-5, won the Big Eight Conference regular-season title, finished ranked fourth (AP) and fifth (USA Today), advanced to the NCAA West final.

* 1996-97 - Kansas finished 34-2, won its first 22 games, won the Big 12 Tournament and regular-season titles, finished ranked first (AP) and fifth (USA Today), advanced to the NCAA Final 16.

* 1997-98 - Kansas finished 35-4 (tying a Kansas record for team wins), won the Preseason NIT, won the Big 12 Tournament and regular-season titles, finished ranked second (AP) and eighth (USA Today), reaching the NCAA second round.

* 1998-99 - Kansas finished 23-10, won the Big 12 Tournament title for the third straight year, advanced to the NCAA Midwest second round.

Born Matthew Francis Doherty on Feb. 25, 1962, in East Meadow, N.Y., he and his wife, the former Kelly Propst of Concord, N.C., are parents of a son, Tucker, born June 17, 1997, and a daughter, Hattie Fitzgerald, born Sept. 13, 1999. WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MATT DOHERTY

"Matt Doherty is proving that you must be yourself and utilize your personality as a strength. And that's what Doherty has done by working up the crowd into a frenzy with his emotional style. I have never seen the Smith Center as alive and rocking ... After one year of rejuvenating the Notre Dame campus in South Bend, Ind., he has moved to his alma mater, where he has the Tar Heels on a big-time roll."
— Dick Vitale

"I think Matt Doherty is doing a tremendous job of having those guys play hard for him and keeping the tradition alive."
— Former Tar Heel Antawn Jamison

"Without a doubt he's proven he was the right coach. He's brought a lot of fire and passion to this program and you are seeing the results."

2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

MATT DOHERTY ON . . .

Playing at Carolina

It's not that I remember a single game or one event, but a group of guys who, molded by a great coach and great man, did what is best for the team. We were unselfish. No one cared about who scored, we just wanted to win. It was a confident, talented group. We had two guys in the NBA Top 50 alltime in Michael Jordan and James Worthy and Sam Perkins is one of best players ever to play at Carolina and has played more than 15 years in the NBA. That was a great group of players who worked hard, didn't have a selfish bone about them, cared about winning and were very competitive. That made for a pretty darned good team.

What comes to mind when you are introduced as the head coach at North Carolina

Pride, excitement, a dream come true. It's going to be an exciting time for me to coach these kids and it will be exciting to coach my first game at the Smith Center. I hope I'm here for a long, long time.

What do you want people to say about your teams?

They play extremely hard, they play as a team, they are an intelligent team, they won championships and they did it with class.

Do you see a common trait among great players?

Pride. It comes out and is the umbrella for competitiveness and work ethic. If you have pride, you are going to compete and put in the practice time. You can be competitive, but maybe you don't work as hard or you can work hard but not be competitive. But pride overrides those two traits. Then you have to have ability. If you have ability and pride, you are going to work at your game and become a good player.

Family

Without them I wouldn't be here. I love being around my family, my kids. That's the tough thing about my profession. I say I love being around them, but if you chart my hours per day, a small percentage go to my family. But as basketball coach at North Carolina, you have to spend time away from home and that makes it tough. When you can spend time with family, you need to.

Why should a high school player say yes to North Carolina?

Because it's the best basketball program in the country. We have the best fans, best mix of basketball and academics. Great facilities, climate, the league, the tradition. You will have a common thread with Michael Jordan, Vince Carter, Phil Ford, Walter Davis, James Worthy and all those other great players. You will be around good people. You will play for a coaching staff that truly cares about you, one which will push you to become the best player you can become. You will put yourself in a position to achieve your goals as an individual player and be in a position to win a national championship.

I wanted to play for a guy like Dean Smith who I knew would take care of me and teach me the fundamentals of basketball, but also be in a place that every year that had a chance to cut down the nets. I didn't want to go to another school and watch Carolina cut down the nets.

Bob Donnan

Practices

They are going to be very high energy. I don't like guys standing around. Our players and staff move quickly from one drill to another. That is very similar to Coach Smith, Coach Guthridge and Coach Williams. You will hear a lot of energy in the Smith Center when we are practicing or something is wrong.

Goals

I've got five goals for this program. The first one is to get better every day. The players have a scholarship to earn and part of their job is to get better every day. The next goal is to win the next game. I think you need some short term goals. The third goal is to win the ACC regular season, the fourth goal is to win the ACC tournament and the fifth goal is to win the national championship. And those will be my five goals every year I'm here. If I start changing those goals, it's time to look for a new coach.

Style of play

We will play hard, play smart and play together. That sounds familiar. You've heard that before. It works. Our team will play as hard or harder than any team in the country. That I will promise you. I can't ask guys to run faster or jump higher, but I can ask them to play hard, and they will play hard. I'll spoil them off the court if they spoil me on the court. Hopefully, things won't change too much. Because things have been going pretty good for a long, long time.

Recruiting

Speed kills. That's the kind of thing every coach is looking for. I don't want to sacrifice skill level, either. I like guys who handle, pass and shoot, who are athletic and want to be coached for a few years.

Carolina head coaching job

The tradition that's been created from Frank McGuire to Coach Smith to Coach Guthridge is second to none. This is the best job in all of basketball. The Lakers, the Bulls, anything. This is the best job in all of basketball. I hope that I can carry on the tradition, not only of winning but of the excellence off the court. The tying in of the Carolina family. I understand the effort it takes to make sure all the former players and coaches feel a part of this program. It's something that Coach Smith and Coach Guthridge have made a priority ever since I can remember. I don't know how Coach Smith and Coach Guthridge did it, but every once in a while I would get a handwritten note, I'd get a Christmas card, I'd get the media guide and it meant the world to me as a former player. Coach Smith and Coach Guthridge certainly made every player who ever played here feel special as a player and as a former player.

Doug Wojcik is in his second year as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina. Last year at Carolina, the Tar Heels won 26 games, earned a No. 1 national ranking late in the regular season, posted a 13-3 league record and won a share of the ACC regular-season championship, advanced to the ACC Tournament finals, and were the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament South Regional.

Wojcik also directs the junior varsity program at Carolina.

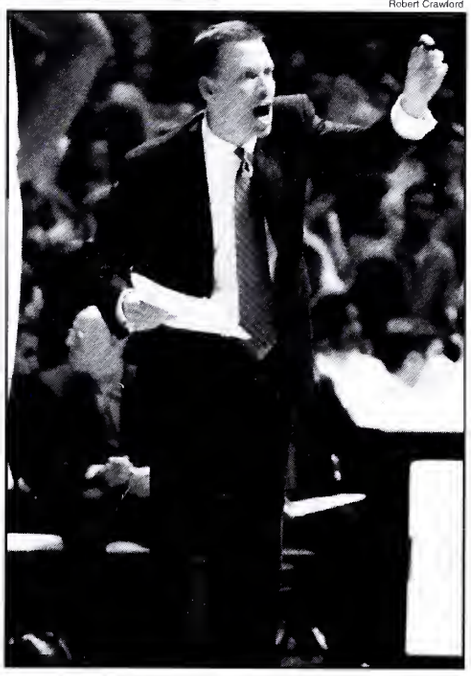
In 2001, he was named a "head-coach-in-waiting" by Athlon Sports.

The Wheeling, W. Va., native was an assistant coach under Matt Doherty at the University of Notre Dame in 1999-2000 and came to Carolina with Doherty on July 11, 2000. Prior to joining Doherty at Notre Dame, Wojcik (pronounced WO-jick) had been an assistant for nine years at the United States Naval Academy.

Notre Dame went 22-15 and earned a berth in the NIT championship game.

A former team captain at Navy, Wojcik coordinated recruiting for Navy in addition to working with the Midshipmen perimeter and post players. Hassan Booker was among the players Wojcik coached at the Academy. Booker a two-time all-conference selection, won the 1998 Chip Hilton Award presented by the Basketball Hall of Fame to the player who demonstrates personal character both on and off the court

Robert Crawford



A 1987 graduate of the Naval Academy, Wojcik captained the Middies as a senior in 1986-87. He led Navy to the NCAA Tournament in three straight seasons, including a 1986 East Regional Final appearance against eventual national runnerup Duke. He then served as an assistant coach on Navy teams that played in the NCAA Tournament in 1994, 1997 and 1998. The 1998 team lost to the Tar Heels in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament in Hartford, Conn. He has played a part in every conference title won by Navy and in six of the 11 NCAA bids received in Academy history.

Wojcik still holds Navy records for most assists in a game (14), season (251) and career (714), setting the single-season mark as a junior. He started every game at point guard for three seasons, helping Navy to a 26-6 record as a sophomore followed by marks of 30-5 and 26-6 his final two seasons. Teammate David Robinson turned over his 1986 Colonial Athletic Association MVP award to Wojcik, citing his unselfish play and leadership qualities.

After graduating from Navy, he attended Surface Warfare Officer School in Newport, R.I. He was then assigned to the USS W.S. Sims out of Jacksonville, Fla. where he served as First Lieutenant and Engineering Officer for two years.

His high school coach is Wake Forest head coach Skip Prosser.

Born April 12, 1964, Wojcik is married to the former Lael House, a 1990 Naval Academy graduate who earned letters in basketball and track. Their son, Paxson Walter, was born on August 8, 2000.

Bob MacKinnon is in his second season on the North Carolina coaching staff. He is in his third year working with Matt Doherty. MacKinnon was also an assistant under Doherty at Notre Dame in 1999-2000.

The Buffalo, N.Y., native spent 10 years working at the Carolina Basketball Camp under former Tar Heel head coaches Dean Smith and Bill Guthridge.

Last year at Carolina, the Tar Heels won 26 games, earned a No. 1 national ranking late in the regular season, posted a 13-3 league record and won a share of the ACC regular-season championship, advanced to the ACC Tournament finals, and were the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament South Regional.

At Notre Dame, the Irish went 22-15 and earned a spot in the NIT finals.

Prior to the 1999-2000 season, MacKinnon was the head men's basketball coach at the United States Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, N.Y. for two seasons (1997-99). MacKinnon led the Mariners to appearances in the NCAA Division III tournament in both seasons. He had a two-year record of 38-16 (.703) at the school.

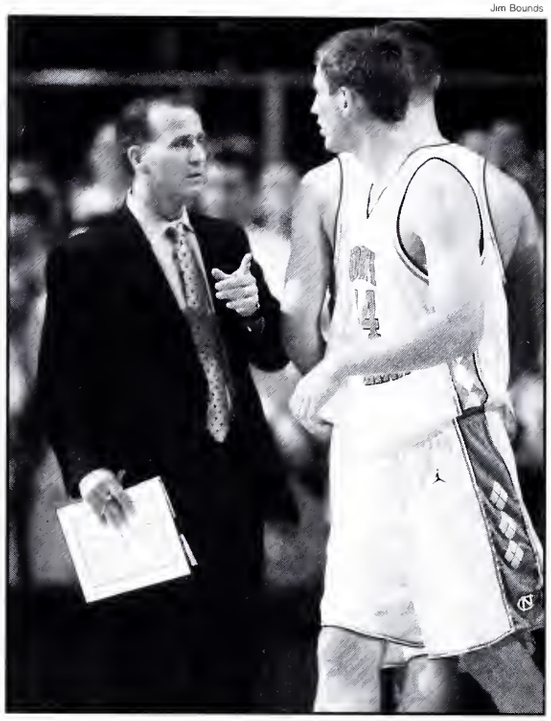
In 1997-98, the Mariners went 16-11 and posted an 11-3 mark in the Skyline Conference, winning both the regular-season championship and the postseason tournament. In 1998-99, the Academy finished with a 22-5 record, won 16 of its final 17 games and had a perfect 14-0 mark in conference play to win the regular season championship and postseason tournament. MacKinnon was named the Skyline Conference Coach of the Year following the 1998-99 season.

MacKinnon came to the Merchant Marine Academy after serving on the staff at Niagara from 1990-97. MacKinnon was an assistant coach for the Purple Eagles for seven years and was the associate head coach in his final three years.

MacKinnon also served as an assistant coach at George Washington (1985-90), Mercyhurst (1982-85) and King's (Pa.) College (1981-82).

He is entering his 21st season coaching college basketball and has been on the sidelines for almost 600 games.

Jim Bounds



He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from King's College in 1982 and his Master's in Education from Niagara in 1997. He was a four-year member of the basketball team at King's.

His father, Bob Sr., was a successful basketball coach, as well. MacKinnon Sr. was the head coach at Canisius College for 15 years and spent more than 20 years in the NBA. His professional basketball career included stints with the Buffalo Braves, St. Louis Spirit (ABA), Boston Celtics and New Jersey Nets.

Born Sept. 24, 1960, MacKinnon and his wife Suzanne have three sons – Bobby, Matthew and Brendan.

2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS DAVID CASON

David Cason is in his second season at the University of North Carolina as the Director of Basketball Operations.

Last year, the Tar Heels won 26 games, earned a No. 1 national ranking late in the regular season, posted a 13-3 league record and won a share of the ACC regular-season championship, advanced to the ACC Tournament finals, and were the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament South Regional.

He came to Chapel Hill in July 2000 after serving one year in a similar position at Notre Dame under Matt Doherty. Prior to joining the Fighting Irish, he served for three seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Illinois University.

In his one season on Doherty's staff at Notre Dame, the Irish posted a 22-15 record and earned a berth in the NIT championship game.

Cason is a 1996 graduate of Illinois State and played for the Redbirds from 1993-95. He led the Missouri Valley Conference in assists in both seasons. In his senior season, Cason served as team captain and helped lead Illinois State to a 20-13 record and a second-round appearance in the NIT. He was named second-team All-Missouri Valley, received the Doug Collins Award, given to the team's Most Valuable Player, and was named the top athlete at Illinois State.

He began his coaching career the following year as a student assistant to head coach Kevin Stallings.

He played his first two years of college basketball (1991-93) at the College of Southern Idaho. Cason led the Scenic West Conference in assists for two seasons and was named second-team all-region.

A native of Baltimore, Md., and a graduate of Southern High School, Cason was born on Aug. 12, 1972. He earned first-team all-city honors on two occasions. He was married to the former Tamara J. Motley in August 2001.

BASKETBALL SUPPORT STAFF

MARC DAVIS
Head Basketball Trainer, Physical Therapist

Marc Davis serves as the head trainer for the University of North Carolina men's basketball team, a position he has held since the 1977-78 season.

Davis received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical therapy from the University of North Carolina in 1974. After graduating from Carolina, he worked as a physical therapist at Danville Memorial Hospital in Danville, Va., from October of 1974 to May of 1975. He began his current tenure on the sports medicine staff at Carolina in July of 1975.

The 50-year-old Davis, a native of Wilmington, N.C., and alumnus of New Hanover High School, is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association and the National Athletic Trainers Association.

He was the recipient of the award for the outstanding physical therapist of the year for 1998 by the North Carolina Physical Therapy Association.

Davis' duties at Carolina consist of providing physical therapy and athletic training services to Carolina athletic teams. In addition to the men's basketball team, he also works closely with the football team and he serves as head trainer for the men's and women's swimming and diving teams. He also provides similar services to members of the general student body who are recommended to him by Student Health Service physicians. Davis also works with the basketball coaching staff to coordinate team travel.

Davis is married to the former Paula Gee. They have a 12-year-old daughter, Irma Consuelo.

THOMAS McKINNEY
Strength & Conditioning, Video Operations Coordinator

Thomas McKinney enters his first season as strength and conditioning coordinator. McKinney comes to Chapel Hill from New York, N.Y., where he spent four and one-half years as the head strength and conditioning coach at Columbia University.

McKinney was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Virginia for one year. An Olympic-style weightlifter, McKinney previously resided at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo. He earned a gold medal in the 1995 U.S. National Weightlifting Championships, silver medals in the 1995 Olympic Festival and the 1992 National Collegiate Championships, and bronze medals in the 1994 Olympic Festival and the American Open Championships. He also won a gold medal in the Virginia State Championships.

At the University of Virginia, McKinney worked directly with the football, men's lacrosse, women's basketball and field hockey teams. He also was a sports psychology instructor.

McKinney competed in track and field for the Cavaliers, earning two All-ACC honors. A native of New York City who grew up in Stamford, Conn., McKinney earned a B.A. in English from Virginia in 1990, and his master's in sport psychology in 1994.

He has completed his course work toward his doctorate in sport psychology.

CHANCELLOR JAMES MOESER

As its ninth chancellor, Dr. James Moeser leads the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's aspiration to enter a new golden age in which future success will be measured by high-quality academic, research and public service that sets the standard of excellence for U.S. public universities.

"We have before us the potential for Carolina to enter a new defining moment of being not only America's first public university, but being first among public universities in our nation," Moeser says. "When people around the world list the great American universities, we want to make sure that Carolina is on the short list. We have set our sights that high."

For Moeser, who started in August 2000, making new history at Carolina began with his efforts to help secure North Carolinians' approval of the $3.1 billion bond referendum for higher education last fall.

The referendum is fueling an unprecedented physical transformation of Carolina. The bonds will bring $500 million for renovations, repairs and new buildings. Also guided by a visionary master plan for future growth, Carolina plans to invest another $500 million from non-state sources for other buildings essential to continued excellence.

UNC is preparing to publicly launch a new private fund-raising campaign on University Day, October 12, 2001, that will be the largest in Carolina's history. "The bond bill was the key that opened the lock to Carolina's future," Moeser says. "My pledge to the people of North Carolina is to take that critical investment and triple it in private support to this university. The momentum from that vote will continue with a massive outpouring of support from our alumni and friends to support our aspiration to lead among the great public universities."

Planning strategically for UNC's future has been the hallmark of Moeser's administration. Under his leadership, Carolina launched an initiative committing at least $245 million over the next decade to the emerging field of genome sciences. The public-private partnership positions Carolina to be a national leader in determining how the genomics revolution will change the way we treat human diseases, design drugs and grow crops.

Such emphasis on science is balanced by an equal commitment to the arts and humanities. "The humanities and social sciences are our historical areas of strength," he says. "In addition, we have an obligation to provide our students and this region with the finest in the arts, and to preserve the incredible architectural archive of the historic campus. I subscribe to Thomas Jefferson's view that we teach with the built environments we create in buildings and landscapes."

Moeser moved quickly to fill key administrative posts, hiring Dr. Robert N. Shelton, a physicist, as the new provost and executive vice chancellor who will lead a campuswide effort to determine future academic priorities. Nancy Suttenfield became vice chancellor for finance and administration. And Tony Waldrop, a Morehead Scholar and UNC track star, is the new vice chancellor for research and graduate studies. Moeser says those appointments complement an outstanding group of vice chancellors and deans that comprise one of American higher education's finest administrative teams.

Other focal points of Moeser's first year have included traveling to meet alumni, friends of the university and other civic and business leaders who can help support Carolina's goals. He led efforts to expand the university's international programs. The chancellor visited and spoke at the Monterrey Institute of Technology Systems' Mexico City campus. The institute is Mexico's top technology university and has close ties to UNC's business and journalism and mass communication schools. Other joint degree programs are under consideration.

On campus, Moeser has strongly supported efforts to strengthen the intellectual climate and enhance undergraduate education; advance the Carolina Computing Initiative, continue a longtime commitment to diversity and advocate with UNC President Molly Broad for increased state budget flexibility to more effectively operate the university and retain and recruit faculty and staff.

Moeser was unanimously elected chancellor in April 2000 by the UNC Board of Governors and arrived after four years as chancellor of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.

A concert organist, Moeser, 62, began his career in 1966 at the University of Kansas. He later was named Althaus Distinguished Professor of Organ, becoming the first academic dean at Kansas ever to hold an endowed chair. In 1986, Moeser joined The Pennsylvania State University as dean of the College of Arts and Architecture and executive director of University Arts Services. Six years later, he became vice president for academic affairs and provost of the University of South Carolina, a post he held until becoming chancellor of Nebraska in 1996.

Moeser serves on the Board of Directors of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges and chairs the association's technology transfer committee. He also is on the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State and Land-Grant Universities and the North Carolina Symphony Society Board of Trustees. As a member of the Board of Governors of the Josephson Institute of Ethics, Moeser helped UNC partner with the institute and the North Carolina High School Athletic Association to bring hundreds of youth coaches from around the state to an ethics seminar in spring 2001.

A native of Colorado City, Texas, who grew up in Lubbock, Moeser received a bachelor's of music degree with honors in 1961 and a master's of music in musicology in 1964 from the University of Texas at Austin. He graduated with a doctorate in musical arts from the University of Michigan in 1967.

Moeser is married to Dr. Susan Dickerson Moeser, a fellow concert organist who joined UNC as a lecturer in music and university organist. He has two children from a prior marriage: a son, Chris, a law student at the University of Arizona, and a daughter, Carter, a doctoral candidate in physical therapy at the Arizona School of Health Sciences.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR DICK BADDOUR

Dick Baddour, a 1966 graduate of The University of North Carolina, was named Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In his four years as director, the Tar Heels have undergone a number of changes, yet remain one of the premier athletic programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and across the nation. Baddour combines an easy-going, friendly and visionary style of management with a love and passion for the University he has served for more than three decades.

Baddour sets a high standard of integrity for the program he leads. High graduation rates, NCAA compliance, sound fiscal management, competitive success and national respect are cornerstones of his blueprint for the department's mission to the University.

This past year, he received a Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association. The awards program noted: "If this sounds like a full plate, remember that he gave the National Guard 31 years, and retired a colonel. He co-chaired the bond drive to build the Chapel Hill Public Library. He was vice president of the Parks and Recreation Commission; chair of the Orange County Heart Association; Cub Scout master and Little League coach. Dick was volunteer of the year in the public school system in 1996, and successfully managed a Chapel Hill mayoral campaign. He is a model of town and gown."

The Goldsboro, N.C., native heads a program that with 28 varsity sports is the largest in the ACC. Carolina won seven ACC championships last year, equalling the top figure in the league for the 14th consecutive year, and 18 sports competed in NCAA postseason play. The women's soccer team won the national championship, field hockey was national runnerup and men's soccer earned a No. 1 national ranking and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals. In addition, women's indoor track and women's swimming posted Top 10 NCAA finishes. The Tar Heels were once again the highest finishing ACC school in the final Sears Cup standings that measure a school's overall NCAA postseason success.

During the past 18 months, Baddour hired a new men's basketball coach and football coach, was a member of the NCAA Championship Cabinet and NCAA Football Issues Committee, oversaw development of the indoor football and track facility and softball complex, and hired managing directors in the Educational Foundation and marketing office.

He tabbed former Tar Heel Matt Doherty to replace Bill Guthridge, who retired after three seasons as head coach. Baddour had hired Guthridge to follow the legendary Dean Smith after Smith stepped down just four months after Baddour became athletic director. Guthridge took two teams to the NCAA Final Four and was the winningest first-, second- and third-year coach in NCAA history. In his first season, Doherty led Carolina to 18 consecutive wins, a No. 1 national ranking and share of the ACC regular-season championship and was named the Associated Press National Coach of the Year. It was Doherty's second year as a college head coach.

Baddour hired former UNC linebacker John Bunting to direct the football program in December 2000. Bunting starred at Carolina in the 1970s, and was a highly respected and successful coach in the NFL.

Baddour has hired new head coaches in six sports, including football, men's basketball, men's golf, women's tennis, baseball and men's lacrosse. Baddour hired Mike Fox, a former Tar Heel who played in the 1978 College World Series, as baseball coach; John Inman, 1984 NCAA men's golf champion and former PGA Tour golfer, as the men's golf coach; Roland Thornqvist, former National Indoor Singles Champion, as the women's tennis coach; and John Haus to rebuild the men's lacrosse program. Haus won NCAA championships in 1981 and 1982 as a Tar Heel defensive star and twice coached Johns Hopkins University to the national semifinals.

In addition to the many personnel and facility changes that Baddour has managed, fiscal responsibility has been a key directive in his tenure as athletic director. He has instituted a number of measures designed to keep UNC among the nation's most competitive athletic programs, while at the same time ensuring a sound financial future.

Early in his tenure, Baddour established a number of task forces to examine specific functions within the department and guide those administrative units as they prepare for the 21st century. Baddour formed committees to examine recruiting, admissions and academic progress of student-athletes; finances; student-athlete development, communications and most recently, a long-term plan for Kenan Stadium.

Baddour continues to direct a vast facilities expansion project that stretches from Kenan Stadium to Finley Golf Course. The McCaskill Soccer Center and the Francis E. Henry Stadium (field hockey and lacrosse) were dedicated in 1998 and Finley Golf Course was totally redesigned to a spectacular championship-level in 1999.

Baddour, who has served on 12 ACC committees and is past chair of the ACC Athletic Directors, will serve as a member of ACC Committees on Football, Basketball and Television and has chaired the ACC Tennis Committee.

He is in his 35th year of continuous service to the University. Prior to his current position, he spent 11 years under John Swofford as the executive associate director of athletics.

After graduating from UNC, Baddour spent one year as a cost accountant for Burlington Industries. He then returned to UNC in 1967 as assistant dean of men. In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. Coordinating freshman admissions took him into every high school in the state. In 1975, he was awarded a Master of Arts degree in education with a major in student personnel administration and a minor in business administration.

Baddour was then named Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement. He was also in charge of minority recruitment.

He became associate athletic director in 1986, was promoted to senior associate director in 1990 and to executive associate in 1995.

A 1962 graduate of Goldsboro High School, Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have two sons and a daughter. Allen graduated from UNC and Carolina law school and practices law in Chapel Hill. He and his wife, Holly, have a two-year-old son, Henry. David is a UNC graduate and Certified Public Accountant. He is in his third year of law school at UNC and lives with his wife, Carey, in Carrboro. Jennifer is a graduate of UNC Greensboro and earned her master's from the UNC School of Social Work. She is employed as a social worker in Texas. Lynda taught kindergarten and first grade for 17 years.

EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

What is the Educational Foundation? The Educational Foundation is the oldest foundation on the UNC campus and holds a status comparable to the Business Foundation, the Medical Foundation and other fund-raising organizations working for the benefit of the University.

What is the purpose of the Educational Foundation? The Educational Foundation was established to offer financial aid to worthy student-athletes seeking an education at the University of North Carolina and to support the University's athletic program by providing services and funds for the construction of facilities or purchase of equipment.

How much support does the Educational Foundation actually provide? Since its founding in 1938, the Educational Foundation has provided scholarships, either partial or full, to over 7,000 student-athletes. Nearly 400 student-athletes will be awarded scholarships during the 2001-02 school year at a cost of more than $6.5 million.

What are the different levels of giving to the Educational Foundation?

Little Ram ($100) — Contributions of any amount are welcome, however, individuals contributing $100 or more have the opportunity to purchase season football tickets, the location of which is subject to the point system; gain access to the Rams Room in Kenan Fieldhouse for home football games; participate in football ticket exchanges; qualify for mini-season basketball ticket packages; purchase group travel packages; receive the RamPage Newsletter, car window decals and invitations to annual Foundation functions which feature Carolina coaches as guest speakers.

Ram ($150) — In addition to that above, a Ram donor has the opportunity to receive football and basketball media guides and to participate in basketball ticket exchanges.

Rameses ($375) — In addition to the benefits received at the Ram level, a Rameses donor has the opportunity to purchase and maintain the assigned location of two season football tickets; additional tickets may be purchased, location subject to the point system.

Big Ram ($750) — In addition to the benefits received at the Ram level, a Big Ram donor has the opportunity to purchase and maintain the assigned location of four season football tickets and to receive an assigned parking space.

Super Ram ($1,500) — In addition to the benefits received at the Ram level, a Super Ram donor has the opportunity to purchase and maintain the assigned location of up to eight season football tickets and to receive an assigned parking space.

Can a donor contribute in ways other than through the annual giving program? Yes. Carolina was one of the first schools in the nation to set up an endowment program for athletics. This program consists of $15,000 and $30,000 life memberships as well as $75,000 and $150,000 endowed scholarships which may be set up through various giving vehicles. Various facility projects are in progress as well to which donors may contribute.

Does the Foundation have chapters at the local level? There are currently 45 local Educational Foundation chapters which meet at least once a year. Many of the coaches attend these gatherings, giving donors an early opportunity to hear about recruiting, prospects for the upcoming season and schedules.

Who provides the leadership for the Educational Foundation? The Foundation's outside officers include a Chairman, three Vice-Chairmen, a Secretary, Treasurer, Counsel and Past Chairman. These officers, together with the at-large members, comprise the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is the decision-making body of the Educational Foundation and reports its actions to the Board of Directors.

The leadership within the Foundation is provided by John R. Montgomery He was appointed to the position in March 2001 upon the retirement of long-time President Moyer Smith. There are also five vice-presidents within the office: John D. Cherry, Executive Vice-President; Neal B. Harrell, V.P. for Major Gifts; Sue Walsh, V.P. for Endowment; Dawn D. McPherson, Administrative V.P.; Russell James, V.P. for Membership Campaigns; and Phil Ford, Associate V.P.

How can one become a contributor to the Educational Foundation? By contacting the Educational Foundation at (919) 945-3064, emailing the Foundation at ef@unc.edu or by writing P.O. Box 2446, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515.

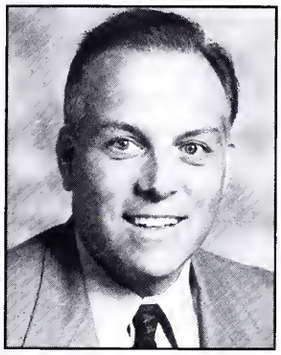
Q & A WITH JOHN MONTGOMERY



John Montgomery
President

John Montgomery is in his first year as President of the Educational Foundation. He began his official duties on March 5, 2001. Montgomery came to North Carolina from SMU where he was the Associate Athletic Director for Development and External Affairs. Montgomery replaced Moyer Smith, who led the Foundation since December 1986.

At SMU, Montgomery was responsible for major gifts and annual fundraising for the athletic department from 1996-2001. He directed the capital campaign that resulted in $57 million of gifts and pledges for the construction of the Gerald J. Ford Stadium and the Paul B. Loyd Jr. All-Sports Center.

The 1981 Radford University graduate previously was Associate Athletic Director for Public Affairs at UNC Greensboro (1990-96) and Director of the Athletic Association at his alma mater (1984-90).

Q: What have you done to prepare yourself for this position?
A: Most recently, I was Associate Athletic Director for Development at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. During my four years at SMU, athletics was involved in a University capital campaign and the money was raised to build a new football stadium and an all-sports center. Overall, I have been working in college athletics for 17 years. I did work one year for the Baltimore Orioles. All of my positions have dealt with fund raising or have been sales focused. I received my master's degree in sport management from Western Illinois.

Q: How do you intend to endow every scholarship at UNC?
A: Over time I do think we have the opportunity to fully endow our scholarship program. Outstanding work has been done over the years to grow the endowment and our focus on that will continue. In fact, the strength of the scholarship endowment is allowing us to focus on establishing operational endowments for all of our sports and this initiative is extremely important as we move into a new era for college athletics.

Q: What are the most pressing needs of the athletic department that the Foundation can help with?
A: Establishing the operational endowments and continuing to enhance our overall facility plan will be top priorities. The endowments will impact each sport in a number of ways but will basically give our coaches greater resources and flexibility as they operate their programs. Our facility plan is superb. It is second to none. Facilities are so important for every aspect of the program and we must continue to be a leader in this area.

Q: What made you decide to leave SMU and join the Foundation?
A: I view the Educational Foundation as the premier athletic fund raising organization, so it was an honor for me to be considered for the position. I was not looking to leave SMU but when this position opened I felt I had to pursue it strictly from a professional standpoint. Personally, it was a wonderful opportunity as my wife's parents live in Virginia Beach and my mother lives in Blacksburg. Needless to say, we are very excited about being here and being part of this great University.

Q: Where do you see the Foundation 10 years from now?
A: I believe the upcoming campaign will position the Foundation well for the future particularly relative to endowments and facilities. Our membership will continue to grow and we will continue to put our programs in a position to compete for national championships. I do think the landscape will be ever-changing in college athletics and we will have our share of challenges and opportunities.

Q: What are the biggest fundraising priorities at this time?
A: Completing the fundraising for the Softball Facility, Finley Golf Course/Team Facility and the Eddie Smith Fieldhouse are top priorities. We are having very good success on these projects but would like to meet the funding goals soon.

Q: How will the Carolina First campaign help the long-term future of Carolina Athletics?
A: To prepare for the campaign we completed a program-wide needs assessment that addressed both current and long-term priorities. We will always have a primary focus on our scholarship endowment program to ensure the viability of the athletics program. That is central to our mission and our endowment currently assists more than 400 student-athletes.

We will also continue to work hard to maintain and improve our facilities. Having this facility plan in place will position our programs to compete for conference and national championships.

The other area of focus is establishing operating endowments for each team. These endowments will provide additional operating monies for each program and, again, this will truly benefit our student-athletes.

Q: How important is it to increase membership and what is the goal?
A: Extremely important. Membership drives our general fund which allows us to fund scholarships and address facility needs. It is important to note that our goal is to increase membership at all levels. Sometimes people think only a "big" gift will help and that is not the case. Our giving levels begin at $100 and that is a good first step -- particularly for our young alumni. That gives someone a chance to grow with the program. In fact, the average gift to the general fund is $520.00. Also, we want to have a minimum of 15,000 members by January2004.

EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION OFFICE MOVED TO EUROPA CENTER

The Educational Foundation is temporarily relocating its offices to the Europa Center in Chapel Hill. The Foundation had been housed in Koury Natatorium since the Dean E. Smith Center opened in 1986. The move is necessary as the Foundation is renovating part of the facility next to the swimming pool into a practice gymnasium for the men's basketball team. The practice facility will enable the program to have more flexibility in its practice schedules and pre-game preparations and will enable the Smith Center staff to schedule more non-basketball events in the Smith Center. The Foundation will also gain working space in the new location.

"The Educational Foundation is excited about the opportunity to assist the athletic department in the construction of this practice facility," says John Montgomery. "The addition of a practice facility will allow Coach (Matt) Doherty to maintain a normal practice routine, yet allows the Smith Center staff to schedule functions in the arena. The Foundation will continue to hold events in the practice gym on game days and the athletic department will be able to hold special events there, as well."

The Educational Foundation offices have moved to the Europa Center, located off Highway 15-501, at 100 Europa Drive, Suite 371.

The Foundation will maintain its current reception area in Koury Natatorium and will be open on football and basketball game days only. If members have any questions regarding the move, please contact the Foundation at (919) 945-2000.

If you are interested in joining the Educational Foundation, please call (919) 945-2000 or visit us online at www.educationalfoundation.com.

2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

HISTORY

• Carolina was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century.

• Authorized by the N.C. Constitution in 1776, the university was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789, the same year George Washington first was inaugurated as president.

• The cornerstone was laid for Old East, the nation's first state university building, Oct. 12, 1793. Hinton James, the first student, arrived from Wilmington, N.C., Feb. 12, 1795.

LOCATION

• The 729-acre central campus includes the two oldest state university buildings, Old East and Person Hall. Old East and Playmakers Theatre, an 1852 Greek-revival building are National Historic Landmarks.

• The American Society of Landscape Architects selected the Carolina campus as one of the most beautifully landscaped spots in the country. That list, released in 1999 timed to the society's centennial, represents just the latest affirmation of the charm of mighty oaks, majestic quadrangles, brick sidewalks and other landscaping synonymous with UNC.

• A campus master plan approved in spring 2000 by Carolina's trustees represents a visionary look forward, offering a striking view of how the campus should exist in the long-term future to meet the needs of students, faculty, staff and the surrounding community. The plan aims to capture the ambience of north campus in the Polk Place and McCorkle Place quadrangles and use it to transform the southern region of campus into an equally wonderful place in which to learn, teach, work and live.

RECENT RANKINGS

• In the U.S. News and World Report magazine's 2000 "Annual Guide to America's Best Colleges," UNC tied for third among the nation's top public universities and tied for 25th overall among both public and private campuses. Among undergraduate business programs, the Kenan-Flagler Business School tied for fifth nationwide in the same issue of the magazine.

• U.S. News also ranked 25 graduate degree programs and specialty areas at UNC among the top 25 nationwide, in March 2001. The magazine rated programs in the schools of business, education, law, medicine, public health, and master's and doctoral programs in the College of Arts and Sciences and other units. Several schools, degree programs and specialty areas were in the top 10.

• The Fiske Guide to Colleges called UNC one of the 19 public universities in the United States and Canada that were the "best college buys" for 2001. Such schools offer "remarkable educational opportunities at a relatively modest cost."

• The January 2001 issue of Black Enterprise magazine placed Carolina 14th in its "Black Enterprise-DayStar Top 50 Colleges and Universities for African Americans" list, up from 19th the previous year and the highest ranking among major public universities. DayStar, a research firm, gathered the data for the list, which is based on responses to questions about which schools were both a good academic and social fit for African-American students.

• Business Week magazine ranked the Kenan-Flagler Business School's master of business administration program 15th in its 2000 rankings of the "Best Business Schools" published in October. Making up the overall ranking were a graduate ranking of 11th and a corporate ranking of 16th. In special mentions, the school ranked fifth for "schools that are best responding to student concerns" and for "greatest rise in MBA satisfaction."

• In October 2000, Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine rated UNC first among a list of the 100 best buys in U.S. public colleges and universities because of its combination of top-quality academics and low cost. Kiplinger's called UNC "a place where high achievers are in good company."

KEY STATISTICS

• Now in its third century, UNC belongs to the select group of 61 campuses forming the Association of American Universities. UNC's academic offerings span more than 100 fields, including 84 bachelor's, 165 master's and 108 doctoral degrees as well as professional degrees in dentistry, medicine, pharmacy and law. Five health schools -- which, with UNC Hospitals, comprise one of the nation's most complete academic medical centers -- are integrated with liberal arts, basic sciences and high-tech academic programs.

• In fall 2000, Carolina enrolled 24,872 students from all 100 North Carolina counties, the other 49 states and nearly 100 other countries. Eighty-two percent of Carolina's 15,608 undergraduates were from North Carolina. Sixty-three percent of Carolina's students were undergraduates, 28 percent graduates and another 9 percent were professional degree-seekers.

• Those students learn from a faculty that totaled 2,782 in fall 2000. Many of those faculty members hold or have held major posts in virtually every national scholarly or professional organization and have earned election to the most prestigious academic groups.

• Carolina's 227,388 alumni live in all 50 states and around the world. Notable alumni include writers Thomas Wolfe, Shelby Foote and Jill McCorkle; athletes Michael Jordan, Vince Carter, Mia Hamm, Marion Jones and Davis Love III; and journalists Roger Mudd, Charles Kuralt, Stuart Scott and Tom Wicker. Others include former White House Chief of Staff Erskine Bowles; former White House Communications Director Don Baer; U.S. Sen. John Edwards; Bill Harrison, chief executive officer of Chase Manhattan Bank; Scott Livengood, Krispy Kreme Doughnut chairman, president and chief executive officer; U.S. President James Polk; geneticist Francis Collins; actors Jack Palance, George Grizzard and Andy Griffith, as well as actresses Louise Fletcher and Sharon Lawrence; editorial cartoonist Jeff MacNelly; corporate banker Hugh McColl; and fashion designer Alexander Julian.

STUDENTS

• Recent freshman classes at Carolina have set new standards of excellence as measured by the rigorous coursework students have taken, as well as their grades and SAT scores. The incoming freshmen of 2001 are continuing that trend. Besides setting a new record for high school preparation, the newest class will become the very best group of first-year students Carolina has ever admitted.

• UNC students have a long tradition of outstanding achievement. Thirty-five have been awarded the Rhodes Scholarship since it was created in 1902, including the first U.S. black woman recipient. Twelve UNC students have won the Rhodes since 1980.

• UNC students regularly win other prestigious merit awards in the United States and abroad. In 2001, for example, UNC produced its 22nd Luce Scholar, economics major Alex Mehfar, through a program funded by the Henry Luce Foundation. Julius Lucks, a chemistry major, earned a Churchill Scholarship, one of only 11 awarded nationwide, to study at the University of Cambridge in England. Lucks also received a prestigious Hertz Fellowship, one of 25 awarded by the Fannie and John Hertz Foundation, to support his graduate work.

Destiny, Carolina's traveling science laboratory, takes the latest technology and teaching tools to North Carolina schools. The 40-foot bus - dubbed "The Best Thing in Science Education to Hit the Road" - is full of state-of-the-art equipment for wet laboratory experiments, Internet exploration and carefully honed curriculum materials.

LEARNING

• This fall's freshman class will be the second wave of Carolina students required to own laptop computers as part of the Carolina Computing Initiative. In 2000, 3,400 Chapel Hill freshmen became the largest class in the United States ever required to own laptops during the first year of the initiative's implementation. Students can access a world of knowledge at their fingertips and communicate with faculty and peers with just a few keystrokes.

• Carolina is making it easier for students and others with laptops to connect to the Internet, e-mail and the campus computer network – whether they are in classrooms, labs, libraries and nearby outdoor sites – thanks to new wireless technology. Wireless access points are being installed at key locations on campus, allowing students whose computers have adapter cards to connect to cyberspace without physically plugging into the campus network.

• On Oct. 12, 2001, Carolina will launch the largest fund-raising campaign in its history and build upon impressive recent progress in seeking the private support that will help determine the university's future excellence. Private gifts create scholarships and professorships, purchase library collections and benefit academic units campuswide.

FACULTY

• Two professors recently were elected to the National Academy of Sciences: Fred P. Brooks Jr., Kenan professor of computer science, and Maurice S. Brookhart, Kenan professor of chemistry. UNC-Chapel Hill now has 10 faculty members in the prestigious academy. Carolina also has five members of the National Academy of Engineering, 20 members of the Institute of Medicine and 23 members of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

• Joe DeSimone, Kenan professor of chemistry, received the 2000 O. Max Gardner Award, the highest honor bestowed by the UNC Board of Governors, for his pioneering research that uses carbon dioxide as a replacement for water and solvents in a variety of synthetic and manufacturing processes. The award recognizes faculty who have "made the greatest contributions to the welfare of the human race."

• Jacquelyn Hall, founder of the Southern Oral History Project, won a 1999 National Humanities Medal for helping preserve access to resources in the humanities.

RESEARCH

• Carolina topped $375 million in contracts and grants for research, teaching and public service in fiscal 2000, a 9 percent hike over the previous year. Much of the increase resulted from a 20 percent jump in National Institutes of Health funding. UNC-Chapel Hill's $207 million from the NIH places the university 13th overall among private and public universities nationwide. Carolina also is the top public university in the South and one of only five Southern universities – public or private –among the NIH's top 20. NIH is the federal government's biomedical research arm.

• Carolina has committed at least $245 million over the next decade to the emerging field of genome sciences. The campuswide initiative, which represents public and private investments, will allow Carolina to be a driving force in determining how the genomics revolution will change the way we treat human diseases, design drugs and grow crops. This collaborative effort includes construction of four new buildings to house genomics research, more than $50 million in recurring funds for 40 new faculty positions and a $25 million anonymous gift to create the Michael Hooker Center for Proteomics to study a specialized area of genetics.

EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL RESOURCES

• UNC has broken ground for the new Sonja Haynes Stone Black Cultural Center building. The 44,500-square-foot, $9 million building – funded entirely by private donations – will house seminar rooms, classrooms, a 10,000-volume special library, a 400-seat theater, art gallery, dance studio, multipurpose room for performances, lectures and meetings, and offices for the Upward Bound program, the Institute of African American Research and the Stone Center. Construction is expected to be completed in 2003. Now based in the Frank Porter Graham Student Union, the center is one of the nation's leading centers for research, teaching, learning and public service related to black history and culture.

• From the Ackland Art Museum to the Morehead Planetarium to the North Carolina Botanical Garden, Carolina offers a vast array of educational and cultural opportunities. The Ackland exhibits from a permanent collection of more than 15,000 works of art, particularly rich in Old Master paintings and sculptures by artists including Degas, Rubens and Pisarro; Indian miniatures; Japanese paintings; and North Carolina folk art. Astronomy enthusiasts and schoolchildren from across North Carolina enjoy the Morehead Planetarium. Besides its displays of native and unusual plants and its nature trails, the Botanical Garden offers art exhibits, nature walks and courses on topics ranging from home gardening to botanical illustration.

PUBLIC SERVICE

• UNC's public service programs reach every region of North Carolina, helping communities protect public health, improve schools and medical services, stimulate business, plan for growth, understand cultural heritage, and enrich the quality of people's daily lives. Launched in 1999, the Carolina Center for Public Service coordinates and catalyzes campus outreach activities around the state. Other mainstays of UNC's public service efforts include the Institute of Government, the nation's largest and most diversified university-based government training and research organization, and the N.C Area Health Education Centers (AHEC) Program, which is based at the School of Medicine and helps meet health-care needs statewide.

• Destiny, Carolina's traveling science laboratory, takes the latest technology and teaching tools to North Carolina schools. The 40-foot bus - dubbed "The Best Thing in Science Education to Hit the Road" - is full of state-of-the-art equipment for wet laboratory experiments, Internet exploration and carefully honed curriculum materials. The project, supported by a grant from GlaxoSmithKline and equipment from IBM, is among the first of its kind nationwide. Destiny's key goal is to increase student access to modern-day science and information-technology learning, especially in underserved and rural areas.

THE DEAN E. SMITH CENTER

Smith Center Undergoing Impressive Facelift in 2001-02

Carolina basketball is competing in the Dean E. Smith Center for the 17th season. The Tar Heels have played 203 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of more than 4 million fans. Carolina has a 176-27 record in the Smith Center, a dominant winning percentage of .867. That includes a 99-22 record against the ACC and a 77-5 record against non-conference foes. Last year, UNC went 12-2 in the Smith Center and averaged 20,836 fans per home contest.

The Smith Center is currently undergoing an extensive facelift that will improve the behind-the-scenes training areas. This past summer, the UNC locker room and weight room were completely renovated. A new media center was built and the Bowles Room and Educational Foundation offices were retrofitted to include a practice gym that will allow added scheduling flexibility. Next year, the memorabilia room will be re-designed.

Prior to moving into the Smith Center, Carolina played its home games at Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels were 169-20 at Carmichael. UNC debuted there on Dec. 4, 1965, against William and Mary, and finished play on Jan. 4, 1986, in a win over NC State.

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years and 2,362 donors later, the premier basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres on the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

The first game featured No. 1 Carolina beating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeatens on Jan. 18, 1986. The first basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith. Since that first game, the Smith Center has been the site of many memorable moments in Tar Heel history.

• On Jan. 27, 1993, Carolina trailed Florida State by 21 points with 11:48 to play in the game, but rallied for an 82-77 win. George Lynch's steal and dunk gave Carolina the lead.

• On Feb. 3, 1994, No. 2 Carolina beat No. 1 Duke, 89-78, in the first-ever matchup between the great rivals in which the teams held the top two spots in the Associated Press poll.

• UNC and Duke repeated their No. 1 vs. No. 2 battle on Feb. 5, 1998, as the second-ranked Tar Heels routed the top-rated Blue Devils, 97-73. Antawn Jamison scored 35 points that evening, one of three occasions he netted at least 35 points in the Smith Center.

• On Feb. 8, 1992, UNC rallied from 22 points down to beat Wake Forest, the largest comeback in school history.

• On Jan. 31, 1996, the Tar Heels trailed Duke by 17 points in the first half, but won, 73-72, on a last-second tip-in by Dante Calabria.

One of the most prominent features in the Smith Center is the series of banners rewarding the accomplishments of Carolina basketball, including NCAA championship banners for 1956-57, 1981-82 and 1992-93, respectively. Also hanging high above the playing floor are 38 replica jerseys honoring Carolina's greatest individual standouts. Seven of the jerseys are retired, including Jack Cobb, #10 Lennie Rosenbluth, #12 Phil Ford, #20 George Glamack, #23 Michael Jordan, #33 Antawn Jamison and #52 James Worthy.

The Smith Center's four video screens provide replays, stats and information, previews of upcoming games and highlights of past games.

In 2000-01, a special standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Educational Foundation funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

As a multi-purpose facility, the Smith Center has played host to a wide range of athletic events and concerts. In 1987, U.S. Olympic Festival basketball attracted a Smith Center record crowd of 23,713 for the gold medal game. In 1988, the venue served as the site of the first and second rounds of the NCAA East Regional. In 1994, the Smith Center hosted the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, attracting a three-day total of over 60,000 fans.

In 1999, the Smith Center and Koury Natatorium served as the basketball and aquatic venues for the 1999 Special Olympics World Summer Games.

Kenny Rogers staged the first concert in the arena on April 12, 1986. Other entertainers to perform here included the Grateful Dead, Bon Jovi, John Denver and Bruce Springsteen.

Adjacent to the Smith Center is the Maurice J. Koury Natatorium. One of the finest and fastest swimming facilities in the country, the natatorium features an eight-lane, 50-meter pool.

The Smith Center and Koury Natatorium also host such community activities as the Chapel Hill High School Commencement, American Cancer Society Swim-for-Life, the School of Social Work gala, the Chancellor's Club gala, the Kenan-Flagler Business School Dedication, University Blood Drive, University Career Fairs, December Commencement Exercises and May Commencement Exercises. Thousands of school children visit the Smith Center annually.

Koury Natatorium is also open to faculty, staff and townspeople for a designated period each weekday for a free swim program, and both facilities have been used annually for the North Carolina High School Athletic Association championships.

2000-01 SEASON REVIEW

TAR HEELS FINISH IN THE TOP 10 — AGAIN

North Carolina (26-7, 13-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) tied for the ACC regular-season championship, reached the finals of the ACC Tournament and finished the year ranked in the Top 10 in both major national polls (sixth in the Associated Press poll and 10th in the ESPN/USA Today coaches poll).

Carolina has finished in the Top 10 of a major wire service poll 26 times in the last 35 years, more than any other school in the nation (Kentucky is second with 23).

CAROLINA MAKES 27TH STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE

In 2000-2001, Carolina made a record 27th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and 35th overall. Only Kentucky (42) has been in the NCAA field more than UNC (UCLA also has been 35 times).

The current streak of 27 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament began in 1975. That is the longest streak in NCAA history, 10 more than Arizona's current 17-year streak.

Carolina has appeared in 116 NCAA Tournament games. Only Kentucky (124) has played in more NCAA Tournament games.

The Tar Heels are 81-35 in NCAA Tournament games. Kentucky is first all-time in NCAA wins with 87, Carolina is second with 81, UCLA is third with 78, Duke is fourth with 73 and Kansas is fifth with 61.

Carolina has advanced to the Regional Semifinal (Sweet 16) an amazing 17 times in the last 21 years. The only years UNC did not reach the Sweet 16 were in 1994 (lost to Boston College in the second round), 1996 (lost to Texas Tech in the second round), 1999 (lost to Weber State in the first round) and 2001 (lost to Penn State in the second round).

The Tar Heels have won at least one game in the NCAA Tournament in 20 of the last 21 years (Carolina lost in the first round of the 1999 NCAA Tournament to Weber State).

UNC has reached an NCAA-record 15 Final Fours, including at least one in each of the last seven decades.

TOP-SEEDED UNC REACHES ACC FINALS

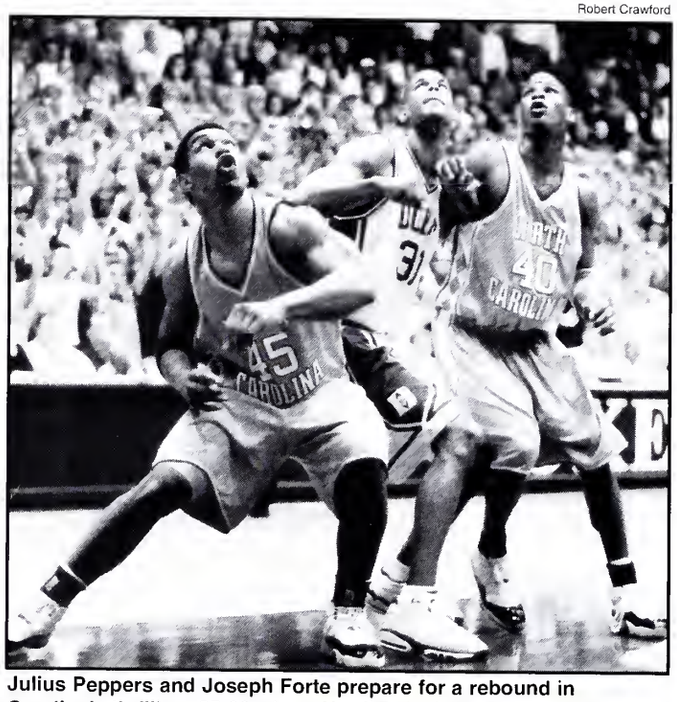
Carolina was the top seed in the 2001 ACC Tournament in Atlanta, the 18th No. 1 seed in school history and first since 1993. The Tar Heels defeated No. 9 seed Clemson in the quarterfinals and No. 5 seed Georgia Tech in the semifinals before losing to No. 2 seed Duke in the finals. UNC played in the ACC Tournament finals for the 27th time in 48 seasons.

FORTE A CONSENSUS 1ST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA

Sophomore guard Joseph Forte was a consensus first-team All-America. Forte was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches first-team. Forte was named first-team All-America by the NABC, The Associated Press, the USBWA, the Sporting News and the National Association of Basketball Coaches, making him a consensus first-team selection. He also earned first-team honors from Sports Illustrated, ESPN.com and Basketball Times.

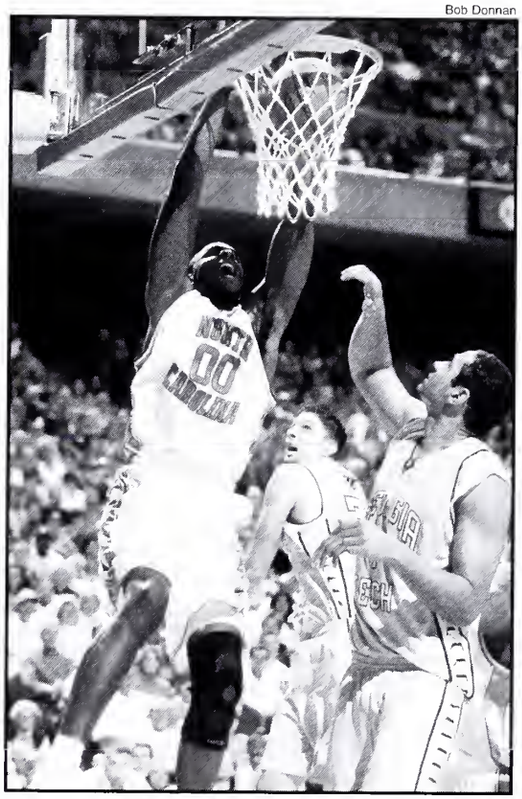
Forte is Carolina's 17th consensus All-America and its first since National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison in 1998. That is fourth all-time in NCAA history behind Kentucky (20), Notre Dame (19 including Troy Murphy) and UCLA (18). Forte is the fourth UNC sophomore to earn such distinction. Michael Jordan, J.R. Reid and Jerry Stackhouse also were consensus All-Americas as sophomores.

Robert Crawford



Julius Peppers and Joseph Forte prepare for a rebound in Carolina's thrilling, 85-83 win at No. 2 Duke in February.

Bob Donnan



Brendan Haywood finished his career as Carolina's alltime leader in field goal percentage and blocked shots.

FORTE NAMED CO-ACC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Joseph Forte and Duke's Shane Battier were named co-Atlantic Coast Conference Players of the Year. It is the first time in ACC history that two players tied for the award. Both Forte and Battier received 32 of the 72 votes cast. Duke's Jason Williams received eight votes.

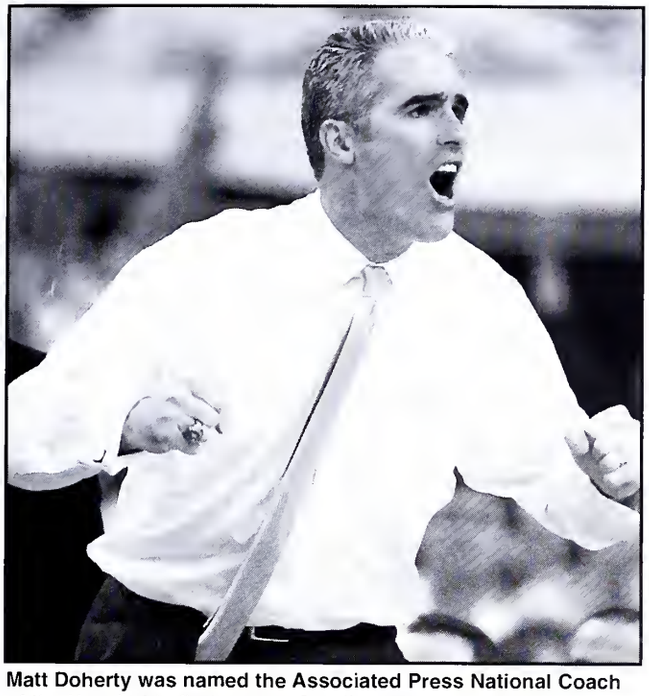
This season marks the 11th time that a Carolina player has been named ACC Player of the Year. UNC and Duke are tied for the most ACC Player of the Year award winners with 11 apiece.

CAROLINA ON THE ALL-ACC TEAMS

Joseph Forte (first team), Brendan Haywood (second team) and Jason Capel (third team) were named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference teams in a vote of the Atlantic Coast Conference Sportswriters Association.

Forte was one of three players (joining Shane Battier and Jason Williams of Duke) to earn unanimous first-team selection. They were named to the first team on all 74 ballots, earning 222 of a possible 222 points.

Dan Sears



Matt Doherty was named the Associated Press National Coach of the Year in his first year at Carolina.

DOHERTY NAMED NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Matt Doherty was named the 2001 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, becoming the first Tar Heel coach to win the award. Doherty received 24 votes in the national media ballotting. He was followed by Larry Eustachy of Iowa State (22), Al Skinner of Boston College (21) and Bill Self of Illinois (20). The last coach prior to Doherty to win the award after his first season at a school was Kelvin Sampson of Oklahoma in 1995. The only other ACC coach to win the award, which was first presented in 1967, was Norm Sloan of NC State in 1974.

Doherty is the first coach in ACC history to win at least a share of the ACC regular-season championship in his first season as an ACC head coach.

He also was a finalist for the USBWA's Henry Iba Award.

HAYWOOD NAMED TO ACC ALL-DEFENSIVE TEAM

Senior center Brendan Haywood was named to the ACC's All-Defensive Team as voted on by the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association. Haywood, who led the league with 120 blocked shots,

He was named a second team All-America by The Sporting News.

TAR HEELS CAPTURE 23RD ACC REGULAR-SEASON TITLE

With Carolina's 76-63 win over NC State on Feb. 28, the Tar Heels clinched the No. 1 seed in the 2001 ACC Tournament. It marked Carolina's first appearance as the top seed in the conference tournament since 1993.

Carolina clinched at least a share of the ACC regular-season championship for the 23rd time. It was the Tar Heels' first shared ACC regular-season crown since 1995. UNC last won an outright ACC regular-season title in 1993.

Carolina leads the ACC with 23 regular-season titles. Duke is second with 16.

TAR HEELS WIN 13 ACC GAMES FOR THE SIXTH TIME

The Tar Heels went 13-3 in ACC action. This is the sixth time Carolina has won at least 13 ACC games in a season and the first time UNC has won at least 13 ACC games since going 13-3 in 1997-98.

CAROLINA'S 18-GAME WINNING STREAK

Carolina won 18 games in a row from December 4 (vs. Miami) to February 10 (vs. Maryland). The streak was snapped with a loss at Clemson on February 18. The 18-game winning streak was UNC's longest since 1985-86, when the Tar Heels started the season 21-0. It also tied as the second-longest in the nation. Hofstra had its 18-game winning streak snapped by UCLA in the NCAA Tournament first round. Stanford had a 20-game streak snapped on February 3 by UCLA.

UNC's 11-game ACC winning streak was its longest since winning 16 consecutive ACC contests over a two-year period in 1987-88 (Carolina went 14-0 in 1986-87 and won its first two ACC games in 1987-88).

HAYWOOD LEAVES AS UNC'S TOP SHOOTER AND SHOT-BLOCKER

Brendan Haywood is the only player in ACC history to lead his school in both career field goal percentage and blocked shots. He ended his career as the all-time ACC leader in field goal percentage at 63.7 percent and had 304 career blocked shots, a UNC record.

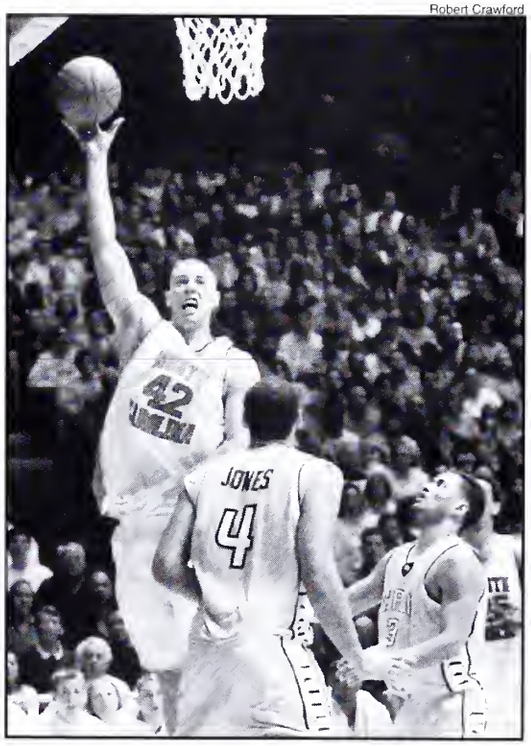
CAROLINA'S DEFENSE DOMINATES

Carolina did not allow a team to shoot 50 percent from the floor in its last 28 games. UNC's opponents made just 39.1 percent of their shots from the floor on the season.

Carolina led the ACC in field goal percentage defense. No other ACC team held its opponents under 40 percent from the floor on the year. This was just the fourth season since 1961 that the Tar Heels have limited their opponents to less than 40 percent shooting.

Dating back to the 1999-2000 season, Carolina has held its opponents to under 50 percent shooting in 49 of the last 50 games (the only exception since was Kentucky on Dec. 2, 2000).

Robert Crawford



Kris Lang scored the 1000th point of his career in the ACC Tournament versus Georgia Tech.

CAPEL AND LANG PASS 1,000 POINTS

Junior forwards Jason Capel and Kris Lang passed the 1,000-point plateau at the 2001 ACC Tournament. Capel finished the year with 1,058 points and Lang had 1,027. Capel passed the 1,000-point plateu in the ACC quarterfinals against Clemson, while Lang accomplished the feat in the semifinals against Georgia Tech.

Carolina had four 1,000-point scorers on the roster in the 2000-2001 season. Brendan Haywood (1,411) and Joseph Forte (1,290) previously joined the 1,000-point club. Carolina has 53 1,000-point scorers in its history.

2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

THE HISTORY OF TAR HEEL BASKETBALL

The University of North Carolina is one of college basketball's all-time greatest programs. With four national championships, almost 1,800 wins, NCAA records for consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and 20-win seasons, the winningest coach in Division I history, and legendary players such as Lennie Rosenbluth, Billy Cunningham, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and Vince Carter, the Tar Heels are one of the most recognizable teams in the world.

Carolina's 91 seasons in the intercollegiate ranks have produced an overall record of 1,781 victories and 630 losses, making the Tar Heel program the second-winningest in NCAA history in total victories and winning percentage. Only Kentucky, North Carolina, Kansas and UNLV have played at least 40 years and won more than 70 percent of their games.

The Tar Heels have won half or more of their games in 82 of the 91 seasons and no Carolina coach has ever left the position with a losing record. Carolina has had only four head coaches in the last 50 years – Frank McGuire for nine years, Dean Smith from 1961-62 to 1996-97, Bill Guthridge from October 1997-98 to 1999-2000 and Matt Doherty beginning in 2000-2001.

THE ROOTS OF A SUCCESSFUL PROGRAM

The first varsity team played at North Carolina during the 1910-11 season. Basketball clubs had originally been a part of physical education classes at the University, but student Marvin Ritch led the drive with school officials to start an organized varsity team. Nat Cartmell, UNC's track and field coach, who was internationally known in his own right as a sprinter, coached that first team in 1911.

By the time the team was organized, Carolina did not schedule its first game until January 27, 1911, when it defeated Virginia Christian, 42-21, in Chapel Hill. The team played its games in Bynum Gymnasium, now the site of the University Cashier's office. Carolina went 7-4 that first season, playing the likes of Tennessee, Virginia, Wake Forest, Davidson, the YMCA teams from Durham and Charlotte and the Woodberry Forest School of Virginia. At the time, a crowd of 50 spectators for a game was considered enormous.

Cartmell ended up coaching the Tar Heels for four seasons. His 1912 squad finished only 4-5, but several thousand fans came to see the Tar Heels play Virginia Tech at the Raleigh Auditorium, a sign that interest in and fan support of the game was growing quickly in the Carolinas.

Charles Doak became the program's head coach in 1915. His 1916 team recorded a 12-6 ledger, the best record for any team during the first decade of the sport on campus. Doak had served as the Tar Heels' baseball coach before being assigned to coach the basketball team as well.

In 1917, Carolina recorded its first victory over then arch-rival Virginia after eight previous losses. That Tar Heel team was led by George Tennent, who captained both the 1917 and 1918 teams. Luther Hodges, who later served as governor of North Carolina from 1957-61 and was the Secretary of Commerce under President John Kennedy, was a substitute player on the 1917 team. Beginning with that 1917 season, Howell Peacock coached the team for three years, compiling a 23-14 mark.

Carolina won its first basketball game on Jan. 27, 1911. The Tar Heels defeated Virginia Christian, 42-21, en route to a 7-4 record in their inaugural season.

In 1920, Fred Boye took over as the head coach at Carolina, staying two years and compiling a 19-17 ledger. The 1922 squad played without an official head coach, but nevertheless compiled a 15-6 record. Carolina went to Atlanta that season and swept the first-ever Southern Conference Tournament championship, winning five games in five days. The Heels captured the title with a 40-26 win over Mercer in the finals. The Southern Conference had been founded the previous summer with an initial membership of 22 schools. The 1922 squad was led by Cartwright Carmichael, who was then a sophomore. He went on to become one of Carolina's all-time great players. He became UNC's first All-America in any sport in both 1923 and 1924 and he was an All-Southern Conference pick from 1922 through 1924.

CELEBRATING CAROLINA'S FIRST NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The five-year period beginning in 1922 was actually a glorious one for Carolina despite the fact that the Tar Heels played with no coach during the 1922 and 1923 seasons and with a different head coach in each of the following three years. But with incredibly talented players on hand, Carolina went 96-17 in that five-year span and won four of five Southern Conference championships as well as the national championship in 1924.

The 1923 team set the stage for that magnificent '24 squad by going 15-1, losing only a 34-32 thriller to Ole Miss in the Southern Conference tournament final.

The '24 team proved to be something very special indeed. Led by Jack Cobb, Carmichael and Bill Dodderer, it rolled to a 26-0 record and was named the national champion by the Helms Foundation. Carolina beat Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and Alabama to capture the Southern Conference championship.

Carolina's nine-man 1924 squad played for the first time in the Indoor Athletic Center, better known around campus as the Tin Can, a structure which existed until the late 1970s. It was razed to clear land for what is now the Robert Allison Fetzer Gymnasium on the UNC campus. Norman Shepard coached the Tar Heels in 1924 in what would be his only season as head coach. He left the following year to pursue business ventures abroad.

After being an All-Southern Conference selection in 1924, Monk McDonald took over as the team's head coach the following season. Led again by the magnificent Cobb, the Tar Heels finished 20-5 in 1925 and won another Southern Conference crown by whipping Tulane 36-28 in the finals. A year later, Carolina had yet another new head coach in Harlan Sanborn as the '26 team compiled a solid 20-5 mark. That team was led by Cobb, who was named the National Player of the Year by the Helms Foundation, and by Dodderer, who was named All-Southern Conference for the third year in a row.

Cobb, who averaged 15 points per game in 1926, a total practically unheard of in that day, was named an All-America for the third successive year. One of the highlights of the year was the crowd of thousands which gathered at Memorial Hall to hear a telegraphic play-by-play of the Southern Conference championship game from Atlanta as UNC downed Mississippi State, 38-23.

James Ashmore began an impressive five-year coaching stint with the Tar Heels in 1927. His teams were led by players like Billy Morris, Puny Harper, Bunn Hackney and Rufus Hackney. Ashmore's teams combined for an 80-37 mark during his tenure, but they never won the Southern Conference championship – in fact they never reached the finals.

THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE REALIGNS

Norman Shepard's brother, George "Bo" Shepard, took over as head coach in 1932. He quickly catapulted Carolina back into national prominence. The "Charlotte Connection" provided many of the best players for UNC at the time because of the strong high school and YMCA programs in that part of the state.

Guard Tom Alexander and forward Virgil Weathers, both All-Southern Conference choices, led the '32 team to a 16-5 mark as Carolina lost, 26-24, in the Southern Conference final to Georgia in Atlanta, the new site of the conference tournament. After the '32 season, the Southern Conference lost 13 schools which went on to form what is now the Southeastern Conference. That turn of events left 10 schools in the Southern Conference.

In 1933, Shepard needed a big man for rebounding purposes and to control the jump ball after each score. He found his man in Jack Glace, who hadn't even made his high school squad. The Heels went 12-5 that season and lost a double overtime thriller to South Carolina, 34-32, in the semifinals of the Southern Conference Tournament.

The 1934 Carolina team finished 18-4, being upset by Duke in the Southern Conference tournament after beating the Blue Devils twice in the regular season. Dave McCachren was the captain of that Carolina squad and was the first of four McCachren brothers to play at UNC from 1931-43. Each brother captained the Tar Heel team his senior year, and each was elected president of the UNC athletic association. After Dave, Jim, a three-time All-Southern Conference selection, captained the '36 team, Bill captained the '39 squad and George, better known as "Toad," captained the '43 unit.

The 1935 team won the conference championship and compiled a marvelous 23-2 mark in Shepard's last year as head coach. After that season, Shepard stepped down because of health reasons and Walter Skidmore became head coach. Skidmore continued the winning ways in Chapel Hill, leading the 1936 team to a 21-4 record and a Southern Conference title. That 1936 unit was led by Pete Mullis and Andy Bershak, who was also a Carolina football All-America.

Carolina had successful years in 1937 and '38, but failed to win the Southern Conference title either time. However, in 1938, Carolina inaugurated a new home base for its basketball operations as the 5,000-seat Woollen Gymnasium opened, and Carolina left the Tin Can to be used for track meets and campus social functions. Then, in 1939, Carolina suffered its first losing campaign in 19 years, and Skidmore stepped down as coach. He was replaced for the 1940 season by Bill Lange, then an assistant football coach under Ray Wolf.

Bones McKinney and Carolina reached the 1946 NCAA title game, the first Final Four in school history.

CAROLINA EARNS ITS FIRST NCAA BID

The 1940 Carolina team proved to be an outstanding one. Led by George Glamack, nicknamed the "Blind Bomber," UNC went 23-3. The 6-6 junior from Johnstown, Pa., could barely see the basket because of impaired vision, but his foul line hook shot was lethal. Glamack became only the third player ever designated as the National Player of the Year by the Helms Foundation on two occasions, winning the honor in both 1940 and '41.

Other stars on the teams of the early 1940s were Paul Severin, who was also a two-time All-America in football, and Bob Rose, an All-Southern Conference player in both 1941 and '42. Glamack averaged 20.6 points per game for the Tar Heels, an amazing statistic given the fact that teams only scored in the 40s and 50s during that era.

As in other sports, the World War II years in college basketball were unsettled in nature. The Carolina team lost many players to service obligations during this time – in fact, only one letterman was available for the 1943 team. In 1944, the Tar Heels played 11 contests against service teams. Lange stepped down as coach after the 1944 season with an impressive five-year record of 85-41. Lange's 1941 team was also the first at UNC to make the NCAA Tournament field.

Ben Carnevale took over as head coach in 1945 and the Tar Heels motored to an outstanding 22-6 ledger and the Southern Conference championship. The star of that team was Jim Jordan, who was named a second-team All-America that season.

The 1956-57 Tar Heels, shown here celebrating the 1956 Dixie Classic championship, later won the '57 NCAA championship after triple-overtime victories over Michigan State and Kansas in the Final Four.

NEARLY ANOTHER NATIONAL TITLE

The 1946 team was a truly outstanding one. Led by first-team All-Americas Jordan and John "Hook" Dillon and 6-6 Horace "Bones" McKinney, Carolina made it all the way to the NCAA championship game before losing to Coach Henry Iba's Oklahoma (A&M) State team, 43-40, at Madison Square Garden. McKinney had attended N.C. State before going into the military in World War II, and he resumed his education at Chapel Hill, helping lead the Heels to their 30-5 mark in 1946. Carnevale left after the season was over to take the coaching job at the U.S. Naval Academy. He was replaced by Tom Scott.

At this time, basketball in the South was enjoying unprecedented popularity. N.C. State was becoming a formidable rival for the Tar Heels, and the Southern Conference Tournament was moved to Duke's Indoor Stadium so more fans could attend the postseason classic.

Scott's first team, in 1947, was led by Jim Hamilton and Bob Paxton. It posted a 19-8 record and lost in the conference finals to N.C. State, then coached by the legendary Everett Case. Unfortunately, that would be the second of 15 consecutive losses Carolina suffered at the hands of the Wolfpack over a six-year period.

Scott produced 20-win seasons in both 1948 and '49, but lost three contests to N.C. State in each of those campaigns, including heartbreakers in the league tournament.

TAR HEELS TURN TO McGUIRE

The next three seasons produced a trio of mediocre records, and Scott resigned after the 1952 season. He was replaced by Frank McGuire, a 38-year-old native of Greenwich Village in New York City. Formerly the coach at St. John's University in Jamaica, N.Y., McGuire was successful at luring many outstanding New York basketball stars, the first of whom was Jerry Vayda, to Chapel Hill through his connections to the area.

McGuire's first team, in 1953, proved to be a scrappy unit. It didn't have great talent, but ended up 17-10 and beat N.C. State in Raleigh, breaking the six-year losing streak to the Pack. During the offseason, Carolina and seven other schools left the Southern Conference to join what has become America's finest intercollegiate athletic league, the Atlantic Coast Conference. The next two years produced average records – 11-10 in 1954 and 10-11 a year later – but McGuire was building a foundation for future greatness.

Lennie Rosenbluth, from New York City, debuted for the Tar Heels in 1955 as a sophomore and averaged 25.5 points per game. In 1956, a great new class joined holdovers Rosenbluth, Vayda, Tony Radovich and Bob Young. The new sophomore class included Pete Brennan, Tommy Kearns, Joe Quigg, Bob Cunningham and Roy Searcy. That '56 team went 18-5, setting the stage for what happened a year later.

UNC GOES TO OVERTIME FOR SECOND NATIONAL TITLE

In 1957, McGuire had a lineup that consisted of the 6-6 Brennan, 6-5 Rosenbluth and 6-9 Quigg on the front line with Cunningham and Kearns in the backcourt. En route to its 32-0 record, Carolina had to avoid a couple of close calls in the regular season – against Duke at home and a double overtime contest with Maryland in College Park. The closest call of all may have come in the ACC Tournament semifinals when the Heels edged Wake Forest, 61-59. Because only the ACC Tournament champion earned an NCAA bid in those days, had the Tar Heels lost to the Deacons, they would not even have been allowed to compete in the national tournament. Once in the NCAAs, however, Carolina swept past three opponents in the East Regional to set up a meeting with Michigan State in the semifinals.

It took three overtimes, but Carolina finally vanquished the Spartans, 74-70. This win set up a showdown with Dick Harp's Kansas Jayhawks, led by the great Wilt Chamberlain. At Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium, UNC needed another three overtimes to subdue Kansas, 54-53, on Quigg's two free throws with six seconds to play in the third extra session. Thousands turned out at the Raleigh-Durham Airport the next day to welcome their conquering heroes home. Rosenbluth concluded his brilliant career by being named an All-America, first-team All-ACC for the third straight year and the Helms National Player of the Year.

In 1958, a Carolina team led by All-America and ACC Player of the Year Brennan finished 19-7. Lee Shaffer and Dick Kepley, soon to be Carolina stars in their own right, joined the squad as sophomores. With the exception of the 1957 national championship team, McGuire's 1959 squad may have been the best amongst the nine he coached during his time at UNC. Doug Moe, York Larese and Lou Brown joined the team and Carolina finished 20-5 and qualified for the school's fourth NCAA Tournament appearance.

A year later, Carolina had another outstanding season under McGuire. The Heels finished 18-6 overall and Shaffer was named a first-team All-America.

The 1961 season yielded an outstanding team and a 19-4 record. It was the senior year for Moe, Larese and Kepley. Moe was an All-America that season and together with Larese, they were called the L&M twins. McGuire chose to accept a head coaching offer from the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association after the season concluded. His nine-season record at Carolina was a brilliant 164-58. Under McGuire, Carolina went to the NCAA Tournament twice, won five ACC regular-season titles, one ACC Tournament title and the national championship.

CHANCELLOR AYCOCK MAKES THE PERSONNEL DECISION OF A LIFETIME

The man who stepped into the coaching void was a native Kansan by the name of Dean Edwards Smith. He had been lured to Carolina in 1958 from the U.S. Air Force Academy to be McGuire's top assistant. Carolina Chancellor William Aycock was charged with the duty of finding the successor for the popular McGuire. He entrusted the post to the 30-year-old Smith, who built a program that still is a model for integrity and success in college athletics.

Affectionately known as "The Kangaroo Kid" for his leaping ability, Billy Cunningham holds the three highest single-season rebounding averages in Carolina history, including a record 16.1 per game as a sophomore in 1962-63.

Coach Smith's first team in 1962 compiled an 8-9 record, his only losing season as a head coach. But his players did give him a victory in his first coaching outing, 80-46 over Virginia on December 2, 1961. It would prove to be a harbinger of things to come. After that victory, Smith said, "I've never been as scared in my life."

Billy Cunningham, affectionately known as "The Kangaroo Kid," joined the varsity team and became an immediate star in 1962. Averaging 22.7 points and 16 rebounds a game, he helped lead the Tar Heels to a 15-6 record, which included road victories against both Kentucky and Notre Dame. A year later, Cunningham was still awesome, but the Tar Heels' record dipped to 12-12. Help for the future arrived, however, in the form of highly-touted freshman Bob Lewis.

Lewis moved up to the varsity team in 1965 and with the All-America Cunningham, the two combined for 46.4 points per game as Carolina went 15-9. Cunningham left Carolina as its all-time leader in rebounds and as one of the most prolific rebounders and scorers in conference history. A two-time All-America and three-time All-ACC selection, he went on to a great professional playing and coaching career, mainly with the Philadelphia 76ers.

For 1966, Cunningham was gone, but Lewis was now joined by soon-to-be superstar Larry Miller. The Tar Heels moved out of Woollen Gymnasium and into the 8,800-seat Carmichael Auditorium, which would evolve into one of the most famous arenas in college basketball history. The '66 squad finished only 16-11, but it was obvious that greatness was just around the corner.

THREE STRAIGHT ACC TITLES, THREE STRAIGHT FINAL FOURS

The 1967 team proved to be Coach Smith's first truly great squad at Carolina. Lewis and Miller were joined on the varsity by sophomores Rusty Clark, Bill Bunting, Dick Grubar and Joe Brown. The season resulted in a 26-6 ledger, and the Tar Heels finished third in the final United Press International poll and fourth in the Associated Press rankings. The '67 campaign marked the beginning of a string of three successive first-place finishes in the ACC regular-season standings, three straight ACC tournament titles and three consecutive NCAA East Regional championships for Smith and his troops. That's a feat unmatched in ACC history. The '67 squad was characterized by an enthusiastic, gambling defense that would become a trademark of Smith-coached teams.

Charles Scott, the first black scholarship athlete in any sport at Carolina, guided the Tar Heels to Final Fours in 1968 and '69.

Lewis graduated after the '67 season, but the great Charles Scott arrived to take his place in the Carolina lineup as the Heels prepared for the 1968 season. Scott was the first black player on the Carolina varsity, and he started from the beginning of his sophomore year. The '68 team was an outstanding one and made it all the way to the NCAA finals before losing to UCLA and Lew Alcindor. The Heels' final record that year was 28-4, the best yet under Smith's tutelage. Miller was both an All-America and the ACC Player of the Year for the second straight year.

Heading into 1969, Miller was gone but the remaining core of those great teams returned. Carolina went 27-5, won the ACC championship for the third straight year and was again in the Final Four, the school's fifth such visit since the NCAA Tournament began in 1939. Scott, Bunting, Clark and Grubar led that team as well as junior guard Eddie Fogler.

The 1970 squad entered that season decimated by graduation. The tremendous seniors of the previous year – Bunting, Clark and Grubar – had graduated. Carolina finished 18-9, buoyed by the addition of sophomores Dennis Wuycik, Bill Chamberlain and Steve Previs, all solid players. Scott was named All-ACC for the third successive year and was a first-team All-America for the second time. Carolina accepted the first of its four NIT bids in history and the 18-9 record remarkably resulted in the last time Carolina failed to win 20 games in a season.

From 1967-69, Carolina won three straight ACC regular season titles, three straight ACC Tournament titles and three straight NCAA East Regional championships. No team has accomplished the feat since.

The 1971 team was not expected to do much according to the pre-season ratings, but it rolled up a 26-6 record and won the ACC regular-season title and the National Invitation Tournament championship. Sophomore George Karl moved up to the varsity and formed a great backcourt with Previs. Wuycik was a first-team All-ACC choice and Chamberlain the Most Valuable Player of the NIT as Carolina downed Georgia Tech 84-66 in the finals at Madison Square Garden.

Carolina returned to the NCAA Final Four in 1972 with a 26-5 record. Robert McAdoo, a junior college transfer from Vincennes University, was outstanding for the Heels along with returnees Wuycik, Chamberlain, Karl and Previs. Sixth man Bobby Jones, a 6-8 sophomore, showed great promise for the future. Carolina won five different tournament championships during the course of the season, including the ACC Tournament and NCAA East Regional championships. The Tar Heels were eliminated in the NCAA Final Four by Florida State in the semifinals, 79-75. After the season, McAdoo became the first player under Smith to declare himself eligible for the NBA draft prior to the completion of his eligibility. A year later, he was the NBA Rookie of the Year with the Buffalo Braves.

Carolina returned to the NIT in 1973 and reached the semifinals after losing in the first round of the ACC Tournament. The 25-8 squad was led by the play of Karl and, in the first year freshmen were again eligible to play under NCAA rules, Mitch Kupchak showed signs of greatness inside.

A REMARKABLE COMEBACK VERSUS DUKE

The 1974 team was led by All-America and All-ACC player Jones. It compiled a 22-6 record but was relegated to a return trip to the NIT even though it was ranked eighth in the final UPI poll. That team featured a freshman class of Walter Davis, Tommy LaGarde and John Kuester — a group which would lead Carolina back to the Final Four in 1977. The 1974 season will also be remembered for the astounding comeback the Tar Heels made against Duke at Carmichael Auditorium in the final game of the regular season. Trailing by eight points with 17 seconds to play, the Heels rallied to tie the contest on a 28-foot shot by Davis as time expired. UNC went on to win in overtime, 96-92. The 1974 season also marked the last time Carolina failed to make the NCAA Tournament field, a streak now numbering an NCAA record 22 years.

In 1975, the wonderous Phil Ford arrived on campus as a freshman and had an immediate impact on Carolina basketball fortunes. He became the first freshman under Smith to start the first game of his career, a feat later matched only by Mike O'Koren. James Worthy, Michael Jordan, Kenny Smith, J.R. Reid, Pete Chilcutt, Rick Fox, Vince Carter and Antawn Jamison. As a frosh, Ford won the Everett Case Award as Most Valuable Player of the ACC Tournament as Carolina beat defending national champion N.C. State in the finals, 70-66, knocking the Wolfpack out the NCAA Tournament in the process. The Tar Heels had to survive overtime games with Wake Forest and Clemson in the first two rounds of the tournament just to get into the final game. Overall, that Carolina team finished 23-8 and was eliminated in the NCAA East Regional semifinals by Syracuse, which went on to the Final Four.

A year later, in Kupchak's senior season, the Tar Heels had one of their best teams ever under Smith, but it was undone by injuries and bad luck at season's end. First-team All-Americas Kupchak and Ford led the team to a 25-4 mark and a 13-1 ACC slate. But Carolina was upset in the ACC finals by Virginia, giving the Cavaliers their only ACC championship in history, and then UNC lost to Alabama in the first round of the NCAAs with Ford sidelined with a badly sprained ankle. Following the season, Carmichael Auditorium underwent a renovation which increased seating capacity from 8,800 to 10,000. Individual seats were torn out and bleacher seats installed throughout the facility.

The 1977 campaign marked a return to the Final Four for the first time in five years as UNC posted a 28-5 mark. Mid-season knee surgery on LaGarde ended his college career prematurely and then Davis broke his thumb in the ACC Tournament semifinals against N.C. State. Led by Kuester, the Tar Heels persevered and beat Virginia in the tournament finals, 75-69. Carolina used its up-tempo style to perfection in conjunction with the famed four corners offense in scoring NCAA wins over Purdue, Notre Dame, Kentucky and UNLV. All were of the comeback variety save the win over the Wildcats. Ford suffered a hyperextended elbow in the waning moments of the Notre Dame game and played the remainder of the tourney at less than 100 percent. After freshman O'Koren helped the Heels into the finals with 31 points against Vegas, the Tar Heels fell to Marquette, 67-59, in the title game.

The 1978 team had to play minus LaGarde, Davis and Kuester, which was no easy task. It was Ford's senior year and the Rocky Mount, N.C., native was tapped for National Player of the Year honors by four organizations as UNC finished 23-8. In an emotional Carmichael Auditorium farewell, Ford scored a career-high 34 points as UNC beat Duke 87-83 in one of the most memorable games played in the building, clinching the ACC regular-season championship for the Heels in the process. Ford finished his career as a three-time first-team All-America and as Carolina's all-time leading scorer and assist man. He still holds the scoring record to this day with 2,290 points.

preseason, but won Smith ACC and National Coach of the Year honors after finishing 23-6. O'Koren, senior defensive wizard Dudley Bradley and sophomore sharpshooter Al Wood led that team. During the regular season, UNC upset eventual national champion Michigan State 70-69 at Carmichael and scored an infamous 70-69 win at N.C. State on Bradley's last-second steal and dunk. Carolina tied for the ACC regular-season championship with Duke and then beat the Blue Devils 71-63 in the ACC Tournament finals as Bradley captured tournament MVP honors. Carolina was upset in the NCAA second round by Penn, which went on to play in the NCAA Final Four.

The 1980 squad was led by a senior class which featured O'Koren, a first-team All-America in 1979 and 1980. The Tar Heels finished 21-8. Other graduating seniors were guards Dave Colescott and John Virgil and centers Rich Yonakor and Jeff Wolf. One of the season's highlights was a 61-57 win at Indiana in the homecoming game for Colescott, a Marion, Ind., native and former Mr. Basketball in the Hoosier State.

The 1981 team would initiate a string of 13 straight Carolina squads which advanced to the Final 16 of the NCAA Tournament. Led by Al Wood and sophomore power forward James Worthy, UNC finished 29-8 and won the ACC Tournament title with one-point wins over Wake Forest and Maryland in the semifinal and final, respectively. After winning the NCAA West Regional crown, UNC returned to the Final Four in Philadelphia where it avenged two regular-season losses to conference foe Virginia in the semifinals behind Wood's astounding 39-point performance, an NCAA Tournament semifinal game scoring record to this day. Two days later, on the day President Ronald Reagan survived an assassination attempt, UNC was beaten by Indiana in the national championship game.

WORTHY'S MVP PERFORMANCE KEYS CAROLINA'S THIRD NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1981 team proved to be only a prelude to the greatness of the 1982 squad which won the national championship. Preseason rated No. 1, the Tar Heels finished the regular season that way and went on to win the NCAA championship. The squad's 32-2 record equaled the school record for victories in a season as the Tar Heels swept through the ACC Tournament and the NCAA East Regional. There were many heroes on the '82 team. Worthy was named the co-National Player of the Year and he scored a career-high 28 points in UNC's pulsating 63-62 win over Georgetown in the championship game. Center Sam Perkins was a first-team All-America, and he was joined in the lineup by point guard Jimmy Black, small forward Matt Doherty and a freshman guard by the name of Michael Jordan. Jordan hit a 16-foot jump shot with 15 seconds left, providing the winning points in the title game, and Worthy sealed the victory with a steal of a Fred Brown pass with five seconds left.

Worthy opted to make himself available for the NBA draft after his junior year, and he was chosen as the first pick by the Los Angeles Lakers. Even without Worthy, the Tar Heels returned a strong cast in 1983 with a nucleus featuring Jordan and Perkins. Both players earned first-team All-America honors that year and Jordan was named National Player of the Year by The Sporting News. The Tar Heels finished 28-8 after starting 0-2, the worst-ever start for a Smith-coached team at Carolina. After splitting its first six games of the season, Carolina recovered from the slow start to be the nation's No. 1-ranked team for several weeks in January and February. After tying for the ACC regular-season championship, the Heels made it to the finals of the NCAA East Regional before being upset by Georgia. The highlight of the year was an improbable 64-63 victory over Virginia on February 10, 1983 as No. 1-ranked Carolina rallied from 16 points down with 8:43 to play to beat second-ranked Virginia at Carmichael Auditorium.

In 1984, Smith had one of his best teams ever before it fell victim to a late-season injury bug. At 28-3 overall, the Tar Heels became only the sixth team in ACC history to go through the conference regular-season round-robin undefeated at 14-0. Jordan was named the consensus National Player of the Year and Perkins was named both first-team All-ACC and first-team All-America for the third straight year. Starting point guard Kenny Smith suffered a broken wrist in the LSU game on January 29 and never fully recovered that season. Center Brad Daugherty also suffered a hand injury during the ACC Tournament that hampered his play the rest of the way. That Tar Heel team finished No. 1 nationally in both final polls.

The 1985 team was another of Smith's over-achieving teams. Ignored in the pre-season Top 20 polls for the first time in recent memory, UNC went 27-9 that year after losing Perkins and Jordan from the lineup. Carolina tied for the ACC regular-season championship as Daugherty and Kenny Smith had superb years for the Tar Heels. Carolina was eliminated in the finals of the NCAA Southeast Regional by eventual national champion Villanova.

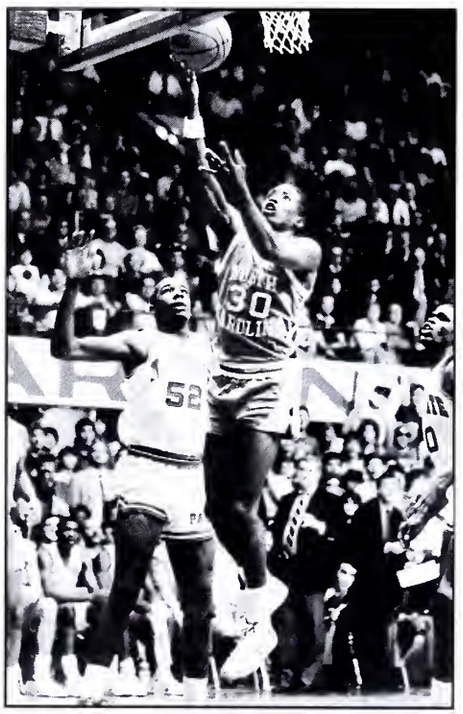
THE OPENING OF THE DEAN E. SMITH CENTER

The 1986 unit, led by first-team All-America Daugherty, won its first 21 games en route to a 28-6 mark. The Tar Heels were devastated at season's end by injuries to starters Steve Hale and Joe Wolf and backup center Warren Martin. For the second straight year, UNC was eliminated from the NCAA Tournament by the eventual national champion, Louisville. The season was also highlighted by the opening of the Dean E. Smith Center on the Carolina campus on January 18, 1986. The No. 1-ranked Tar Heels celebrated the move into their new 21,572-seat arena by beating No. 3 Duke that day, 95-92.

FORTE IS LATEST CAROLINA FRESHMAN TO MAKE A SPLASH

- In 1975, point guard Phil Ford averaged 16.4 points per game and earned ACC Tournament MVP honors, leading Carolina to the league title.
- In 1977, forward Mike O'Koren scored 31 points to lead Carolina past UNLV in the national semifinals.
- In 1980, forward James Worthy was shooting 58.7 percent from the floor in his first 14 games before suffering a season-ending injury.
- In 1981, Sam Perkins led UNC in blocked shots and was second on the squad in scoring and rebounding. Perkins was ACC Rookie of the Year, ACC Tournament MVP and was named to the NCAA All-West Regional Team. Perkins holds the ACC record for field goal percentage by a freshman at .626.
- In 1982, Michael Jordan hit the game-winning jump shot against Georgetown in the NCAA championship game. Jordan averaged 13.5 points per game as a freshman on that national title winning team, but even more impressively, made 53.4 percent of his shot attempts from the floor.
- In 1987, J.R. Reid averaged 14.7 points, shot 58.4 percent from the floor and led Carolina in rebounding with 7.4 per game. Reid was a freshman standout on a Tar Heel team that went 14-0 in the ACC regular season.
- In 1996, forward Antawn Jamison became only the fifth player in ACC history to earn first-team All-ACC honors as a freshman. He averaged 15.1 points and 9.7 rebounds and became the first rookie to lead the ACC in field goal percentage, shooting 62.4 percent from the floor.
- In 1994, Rasheed Wallace joined a veteran squad coming off a national championship and averaged 9.5 points and 6.6 rebounds and shot 60.4 percent from the floor. That same year, Jerry Stackhouse averaged 12.2 points a game. The Tar Heels finished No. 1 in the country in the final A.P. poll that season.
- In 1997, Ed Cota led the ACC in assists with 6.9 per game and led the Tar Heels to an ACC Tournament title and NCAA Final Four appearance.
- In 2000, Joseph Forte averaged 16.7 points per game, leading the Tar Heels in scoring, three-point field goals, and steals. Forte was the ACC Rookie of the Year, earned second-team All-ACC honors, Freshman All-America honors, and was the MVP of the Maui Classic and the NCAA South Regional.

- Forte is the fifth Tar Heel to earn ACC Rookie of the Year honors. He joins Sam Perkins (1981), Michael Jordan (1982), J.R. Reid (1987) and Ed Cota (1997).
- Three Tar Heel freshmen – Phil Ford (1975), Sam Perkins (1981), and Jerry Stackhouse (1994) – were named ACC Tournament Most Valuable Players. Ford averaged 16.4 points, led the team with 161 assists and shot 51.6 percent from the floor as a freshman.



1987 National Player of the Year Kenny Smith was the point guard on two UNC teams that went undefeated in ACC play — the 1984 and '87 squads.

George Lynch addresses the boisterous Smith Center crowd that welcomed home the Tar Heels after they won the 1993 NCAA title.

The 1987 squad proved to be another of Coach Smith's best teams. Led by a strong senior nucleus which featured All-ACC players Kenny Smith and Wolf, UNC tied the school record for victories in a season with 32 while completing a 32-4 ledger and a No. 2 ranking in the final AP poll. For the second time in four years, UNC finished the ACC regular-season a perfect 14-0. UNC advanced to the NCAA East Regional finals before falling to eventual NCAA finalist Syracuse. Smith capped a brilliant Tar Heel career by surpassing Ford as the school's all-time assist leader and being named Basketball Times' National Player of the Year.

Going into the 1988 campaign, many experts viewed the Tar Heels as an inexperienced bunch that might struggle more than some of Carolina's previous great squads. Smith again confounded the experts as he took a team with only one senior and molded it into a 27-7 unit that won the ACC regular-season championship outright. The season was highlighted by the play of first-team All-America forward J.R. Reid. Among the 27 wins was a thrilling 96-93 overtime win over pre-season No. 1-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic at Springfield, Mass.

While the 1988 team was inexperienced, the 1989 team was a veteran unit, led by a tremendous starting backcourt of seniors Jeff Lebo and Steve Bucknall. Carolina won its first ACC Tournament championship in seven years as it beat arch-rival Duke 77-74 in the championship game at Atlanta. The Tar Heels went on to the Final 16 of the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual NCAA champion Michigan. UNC's 29-8 record marked the ninth successive season in which Carolina had won as many as 27 games. The Tar Heels finished the season ranked fourth in the final United Press International poll.

After the 1989 campaign, Reid opted to forgo his final year of eligibility to enter the NBA draft and was chosen as the fifth selection of the draft by the Charlotte Hornets. With Reid, Lebo and Bucknall gone, Smith's 1990 unit was his youngest in recent memory. In an "off" year by Carolina standards, UNC still finished a solid 21-13. The 13 losses were the most by a Carolina team since the 1952 squad finished 12-15. Despite the double-digit losses, Carolina tied for third in the ACC standings, won at least 20 games again and was invited to the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels made the most of their opportunity there. Carolina pulled off a stunning upset of top-ranked Oklahoma, 79-77, in the second round of the NCAA Midwest Regional at Austin, Texas. Carolina was seeded eighth in the region, while the Sooners were the entire tournament's top seed. Rick Fox hit an off-balance bank shot in the lane as time expired to provide Carolina with the winning points.

A 10TH FINAL FOUR FOR CAROLINA BASKETBALL

Carolina returned to the highest level again in 1991 as Smith led his team to its eighth NCAA Final Four during his tenure and the school's 10th trip overall. Carolina was ranked fourth nationally in the final AP and UPI polls as UNC finished 29-6. The Tar Heels won the 12th ACC Tournament championship in school history, a league record, by embarrassing arch-rival Duke 96-74 in the championship game at the Charlotte Coliseum. It was Smith's 11th tournament title in his 30th season at the helm of the Tar Heels.

A strong senior nucleus of All-ACC forward Rick Fox, center Pete Chilcutt and point guard King Rice led Carolina to its 21st straight 20-win season and its 17th successive bid to the NCAA Tournament. During the course of the season, UNC passed Kentucky as college basketball's all-time winningest team. In NCAA play, Carolina beat Northeastern, Villanova, Eastern Michigan and Temple to win the NCAA East Regional before being edged by Smith's alma mater, Kansas, coached by UNC alumnus Roy Williams, in the NCAA semifinals at the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis.

In 1991-92, the Tar Heels, led by senior guard Hubert Davis, finished 23-10 overall and reached the Final 16 of the NCAA Tournament for a 12th successive season. UNC also finished third in the ACC standings, the 28th successive season in which Carolina had finished at least third in the conference regular-season wars.

WILLIAMS' THREE-POINTERS HELP BRING HOME SMITH'S SECOND NCAA TITLE

The 1993 Tar Heels added yet another trophy to the mantle of one of the sport's greatest coaches when the squad captured Coach Smith's second NCAA title by defeating Michigan 77-71 in the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans. The team's 34-4 record broke the school record for victories in a season.

lar-season title with a 14-2 mark that included a spectacular, come-from-behind victory over Florida State on January 27, 1993 in the Smith Center – a game in which UNC rallied from a 21-point second-half deficit. The Heels entered the NCAA Tournament as the top seed in the East Regional, cruised to their 13th straight appearance in the Sweet 16 and survived frenetic battles against Arkansas and Cincinnati to earn Smith's ninth Final Four trip.

Battling Kansas in the NCAA semifinals for the second time in three years, Carolina advanced to the finals behind the outside shooting of sophomore guard Donald Williams. Other invaluable contributors to the NCAA title included the inside power of senior forward George Lynch and second-team All-America junior center Eric Montross and the quieter, yet equally important, contributions of point guard Derrick Phelps and small forward Brian Reese. In the finals against Michigan, Williams once again provided the spark, pouring in 25 points and making five-of-seven three pointers for the second straight game. As Williams was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four, the celebration erupted simultaneously on Bourbon Street and Franklin Street with Carolina fans relishing the pinnacle of college basketball success once again.

The 1993-94 Carolina squad battled incredible expectations throughout the season and finished the year atop the Associated Press poll with a 28-7 record. A team with an interesting mixture of experience and youth, Carolina won Coach Smith's 12th ACC Tournament title with a 73-66 victory over Virginia in the finals. Seniors Eric Montross, Derrick Phelps, Brian Reese and Kevin Salvadori provided the leadership, while highly-touted freshmen Jeff McInnis, Jerry Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace showed glimpses of the future of Carolina basketball. The season ended with a disappointing loss to Boston College in the second round of the NCAA East Regional, but the early tournament exit could not overshadow the contributions of a senior class that won 114 games, two ACC Tournament titles, a national championship, and advanced to two Final Fours.

MORE FINAL FOURS AND A WIN TO REMEMBER

The 1994-95 campaign began as one of uncertainty and ended as a further testament to the genius of Coach Smith and the skill of his players. With the loss of four senior starters from the previous year, the 1994-95 Tar Heels were one of Smith's most inexperienced teams in recent years. Nonetheless, sophomores Jeff McInnis, Jerry Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace stepped into their new starting roles beside senior guard Donald Williams and junior swingman Dante Calabria and led UNC to a 28-6 record, a tie for the ACC regular-season championship and the 12th NCAA Final Four in school history. Early in the season, Carolina became the first college basketball program in NCAA Division I history to amass 1,600 wins.

Stackhouse, a consensus first-team All-America, became the eighth Tar Heel to be named National Player of the Year when Sports Illustrated honored him as such. Wallace was a second-team All-America choice who finished the year as the ACC's leader in career field goal percentage (63.5 percent), while Williams completed his career as UNC's career leader in three-pointers made (221) and attempted (572).

The 1995-96 Tar Heels were as inexperienced a team as Coach Smith has placed on the court in his tenure. Stackhouse and Wallace both opted for the 1996 NBA Draft after their sophomore seasons and went as the third and fourth picks in the first round, respectively. Three freshmen – Antawn Jamison, Vince

Carter and Ademola Okulaja – were among the top seven players on the team which finished 21-11 overall and third in the ACC with a 10-6 mark. Jamison became the first Tar Heel and just the fifth player in league history to be named first-team All-ACC as a freshman. The season was highlighted by an overtime win at Maryland, a 20-rebound performance at Virginia by Jamison and remarkable comeback victories at home over Wake Forest and Duke. Carolina also won at Duke's Cameron Indoor Stadium for the third consecutive year, behind 26 points by Shammond Williams and 25 by Jeff McInnis.

The 1996-97 season was uniquely special. Carolina opened ACC regular-season play with an unprecedented three straight losses, but regrouped to finish 11-5 in conference play and finish in a tie for second place with preseason favorite, Wake Forest. UNC won all eight of its games in February and earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament after winning the ACC Tournament title.

Jamison earned All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as he led the squad with 19.1 points and 9.4 rebounds per game. Freshman point guard Ed Cota was named the ACC's Rookie of the Year as he led the ACC and was eighth in the country in assists with 6.9 per game.

The Tar Heels went into the ACC Tournament as the No. 3 seed, but knocked off Virginia, Wake Forest and N.C. State to claim the school's 14th title. Shammond Williams averaged 20.0 points and 5.0 assists and was named the Tournament MVP. The Tar Heels swept through the NCAA East Regional, beating Louisville by 23 points in the regional final at Syracuse. Williams earned MVP honors after he scored a game-high 22 points against the Cardinals. He hit eight three-pointers in the two games in the Carrier Dome.

Smith became the winningest coach in Division I college basketball history with his 877th win. That came in the second round of the 1997 NCAA Tournament, a 73-56 triumph over Colorado. It was fitting that Smith's final season would include a trip to the Final Four, the 11th of his career.

GUTHRIDGE STEPS UP

Just prior to the start of the 1997-98 season, Smith stunned the basketball world when he announced his resignation as head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith, who said at the press conference "I am the luckiest guy in the world - to be in Chapel Hill, to at the University of North Carolina with this faculty, this student body," turned the program over to longtime assistant Bill Guthridge.

Guthridge picked up right where his mentor left off. The 60-year-old Kansas State alumnus became the winningest first-year head coach in NCAA history as he directed the Tar Heels to a 34-4 record, ACC Tournament title, NCAA Regional crown, Final Four berth and No. 1 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. Guthridge was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, CBS, The Sporting News and the Atlanta Tipoff Club (Naismith Award).

Carolina was led by consensus National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison, who led the ACC in scoring with 22.2 points per game and in rebounds with 10.5 per game. Jamison became the third player in ACC history – with UNC's Lennie Rosenbluth in 1957 and Duke's Christian Laettner in 1992 – to be named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Tournament MVP, NCAA Regional MVP and National Player of the Year in the same season. Jamison finished his career fourth all-time at UNC in rebounds with 1,027 and seventh in scoring with 1,974 points. The Charlotte, N.C., native set a single-season record as a junior with 316 field goals and 389 rebounds and scored 822 points, second only to Rosenbluth's 895 in 1957. Jamison became the first player in ACC history to be named first-team All-ACC in his freshman, sophomore and junior seasons.

vious mark of 235. Shammond Williams became the all-time three-point shooter in UNC history with 233 and set the all-time ACC single-season free throw percentage record as he made 133 of 146 for a percentage of .911.

The Tar Heels twice defeated No. 1 ranked Duke. Those wins give Carolina nine all-time wins over No. 1 ranked teams, matching Notre Dame for the most wins over the nation's top-ranked programs. The first UNC win over Duke was a 97-73 decision on Feb. 5, 1998, and was only the second meeting between the two schools in which the teams were ranked 1-2 in the nation. The second win over the Blue Devils came in the ACC Tournament final. Jamison had 35 points and 11 rebounds in the regular-season contest and 22 points, 18 rebounds in the ACC championship game.

After the season, Jamison and fellow first-team All-ACC selection Vince Carter declared for the NBA Draft after their junior seasons. Jamison was the fourth player selected in the first round and Carter was taken with the very next pick. The two players were then traded for each other with Jamison ending up with the Golden State Warriors and Carter with the Toronto Raptors. Carter went on to win the NBA Rookie of the Year Award, becoming the fifth Tar Heel to win the honor.

In 1998-99, the Tar Heels overcame the early NBA departures of Carter and Jamison, but still finished 24-10. Carolina won 10 ACC regular-season games for the seventh straight year and advanced to the championship game of the ACC Tournament with a stunning 86-79 victory over fifth-ranked Maryland. Senior Ademola Okulaja earned first-team All-ACC honors after leading the Tar Heels in scoring, rebounding, steals and three-point baskets.

In 1999-2000, Guthridge led Carolina to the NCAA Final Four for the second time in his three years as head coach. The Tar Heels reached the national semifinals despite 13 regular-season losses, tying the record for most losses by a Final Four team. UNC, a No. 8 seed entering the NCAA Tournament, reached its sixth Final Four in 10 years and 15th overall, setting an NCAA record.

Ed Cota in 1999-2000 became UNC's all-time assist leader with 1,030 and became just the third player in NCAA history to top the 1,000-assist plateau. Cota ended his career as the only player in NCAA history to score 1,000 points, dish out 1,000 assists and grab 500 rebounds.

Also in 1999-2000, freshman guard Joseph Forte became Carolina's fifth ACC Rookie of the Year honoree after leading the Tar Heels and all conference freshman in scoring. Forte is the first freshman in school history to lead UNC in scoring and scored more points as a freshman than any other player in school annals.

Carolina upset No. 3-ranked and top-seeded Stanford, 60-53, in the NCAA Second Round. In the regional final, Forte scored 28 points and Carolina beat Tulsa, 59-55.

DOHERTY RETURNS HOME

Following the 1999-2000 season, head coach Bill Guthridge retired with a record of 80-28 in three years as a head coach, which tied the record for most wins by a three-year head coach in NCAA history.

Matt Doherty, the head coach at Notre Dame, was named head coach on July 11, 2000. Doherty started at small forward on Carolina's 1982 NCAA championship team and tri-captained the 1984 squad that went unbeaten in ACC regular-season play.

Under Doherty, the 2001 Tar Heels reeled off 18 consecutive wins, including 11 in a row to start ACC play, and moved into the No. 1 national ranking in February. The 18-game winning streak included wins at NCAA qualifiers UCLA, Georgia Tech, Maryland, Duke and Wake Forest. The Tar Heels knocked off Duke, 85-83, at Cameron Indoor Stadium behind Joseph Forte's 24 points and 16 rebounds and Brendan Haywood's two free throws with three seconds to play.

Carolina finished the ACC 13-3 and shared regular-season title honors with eventual national champion Duke. Forte earned first-team All-America honors and was named co-ACC Player of the Year as he averaged 20.4 points per game. Haywood set the single-season school record with 120 blocked shots. Doherty was named the Associated Press National Coach of the Year.

Dan Sears

Joseph Forte was named co-ACC Player of the Year and a consensus first-team All-America in 2000-01.

When ESPN's award-winning Sports Century program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came to no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of alltime. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other college coach in history.

However, that's only the beginning of what his UNC teams achieved.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons. In fact, no other coach has even won 20 games for 27 years.

• A 28-7 finish in his final year also gave Smith an NCAA-record 22nd season with at least 25 wins. Fresno State's Jerry Tarkanian ranks second in 25-win seasons with 14 and former UCLA Coach John Wooden is third with 11.

• From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year. That nine-year run is the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• In an era of tremendous competitiveness in the college game, the Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Kentucky was second on the list with 23 appearances in the final Top 15. Carolina teams coached by Smith finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• In 36 years of ACC competition, Smith's teams finished in the conference's upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when UNC was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.

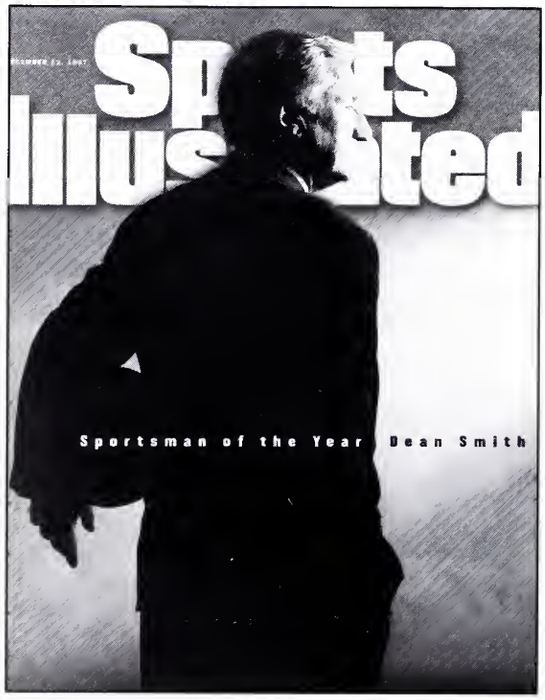
• Carolina's sweep of the 1997 ACC Tournament was its 13th under Smith. Mike Krzyzewski of Duke ranks second in ACC Tournament titles with six.

• When Carolina advanced to the NCAA Final Four in 1997, it marked the 11th trip for one of Smith's teams to the national semi-finals. Only Wooden, with 12, has been there more often.

• Smith's teams made a record 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Arizona's Lute Olson has the second-longest streak in history at 17.

• In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times.

• From 1981 through 1993 Carolina reached the Final 16 of NCAA play every season. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.



Dean Smith was named the 1997 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year.

Those numbers just begin to tell the story of what Dean Smith accomplished in his Carolina career. He has done more for his sport than perhaps any coach in history. Respected by fellow coaches, admired by his current and former players and acknowledged as one of the greatest minds in the game, Smith has accomplished nearly everything imaginable in his sport.

The awards and accolades continue to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Honorary Coach of the Year by the United States Olympic Committee, received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the annual ESPY Awards, and was honored with special awards for contributions to basketball by the Atlanta Tipoff Club and New York Athletic Club.

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

As in any vocation, it's one's peers who truly know the daily rigors of a job best and can most appreciate what it takes to excel in the competitive world of collegiate coaching. The accolades Smith has received over the years are an indication of the respect they have for him.

Those have been common throughout his career, but mushroomed in March 1997 as he surpassed Adolph Rupp as the coach whose teams have won the most games in college history.

Here are a few examples of what some coaches said when that milestone was reached:

Former UCLA Coach John Wooden: "It's a tremendous accomplishment to break Coach Rupp's record. More than anything, it shows excellence over a long period of time. But what's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Indiana's Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way.

"He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Duke's Mike Krzyzewski: "It's singularly such a tremendous accomplishment. People might say 'Yeah, you're at North Carolina and you've been there a number of years." You be there a number of years. You be competitive. And you be as consistent with excellence as he has been.

"So whatever is written about him in a positive sense he justly deserves. I know he'll give credit, as we all would, to the players who have played for us, but in this situation the praise for him should rise well above that for the players who played for him."

Roy Williams of Kansas: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Dave Odom of Wake Forest: "What boggles the mind about him, at least to me, are the numbers of nights he's gone into the arena and been ready to compete on every single possession. I've not done it anywhere close to half as often and there are nights when it seems the season will never end. And yet, he's there, ready to go, always figuring out a way to beat you. Whenever I think about it, I shake my head in wonder."

Former Virginia Coach Terry Holland: "He has been a target for all of us who coached in the ACC to shoot for. It is not always the most pleasant position to be in. The Carolina program was the measuring stick to everybody who came into the league. He has been willing to be the measuring stick. He helped create national exposure not only for North Carolina, but also for the other ACC teams as well and made us all improve our programs."

Consistency.

Carolina has certainly had its share of sensational players. But, it was Smith who molded them into great teams by stressing unselfish play on offense and emphasizing hard-nosed defense on the other end of the court.

That's why he received praise for years and not just because of his all-time record.

In the December 1993 issue of College Sports magazine, Smith was hailed by his fellow NCAA Division I coaches as the coaching colleague they respected the most. In a survey of 46 Division I basketball coaches, Smith topped the most respected category and was second in the most feared category behind Indiana's Knight. The latter was based on the question, "Who would you least like to face in a big game?"

The results of a 1986 Dallas Morning News poll of college head coaches also revealed resounding admiration for Smith. In a survey of head coaches at that season's NCAA Final Four, Smith received 49 votes as the nation's top basketball coach.

At the 1995 NCAA Final Four, the Seattle Post-Intelligencer conducted a poll of all attending coaches. The paper asked, "If you could spend one hour talking with one living person about college basketball, who would it be?" The top three answers were UCLA's Wooden, Indiana's Knight and Smith.

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans had finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the Gold Medal against a group of improving international teams.

He promptly named his long-time Carolina assistant, Bill Guthridge, and Georgetown's John Thompson, to be his assistants on the Olympic Team staff. Smith's teaching skills were put to one of their toughest tests. In the international game, it's not about building character and preparing young men for life, it's about winning under extreme pressure.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," according to Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

The Miami Heat's Pat Riley, who coached former Tar Heel standout James Worthy to three world titles with the Los Angeles Lakers, is another believer in Smith's program.

"We always look for players from North Carolina," said Riley a few years ago. "If we could draft players every year from North Carolina, we'd do it. You know they know how to play. The players are so full of character like James and Michael Jordan. I have a lot of respect for Coach Smith. I'm the beneficiary of a man who has taught all these guys how to play the game. When they come to the pros, they're refined. They're ready to step right in."

While statistics can sometimes be misleading, in Smith's case the figures are just too overwhelming to ignore.

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, Carolina was among the most dominant teams in the history of the game. The Tar Heels had a record of 813-207 in that span, winning 79.7 percent of their games. That's an average record of 26-7 per year.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the regular-season or tournament title or both. That level of consistency would be an amazing feat for any college basketball program, but it is particularly significant in a league as competitive as the ACC.

Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it's become a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751 victories. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

Smith's teams earned 27 or more wins in 14 of his last 17 seasons.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right. The Tar Heels' astounding consistency on the court was due in large part to Smith's efforts to teach his players the fundamentals and the intricacies of the sport.

That dedication, along with a graduation rate among his lettermen of 97.3 percent, have been instrumental in Carolina's success.

Without compromising a commitment to academic excellence, Smith's teams have won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and a sweep of the National Invitation Tournament in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to that troika of an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell of California and Indiana's Knight.

Smith's coaching skills and dedication to playing with class are the reasons he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

Former Marquette Coach Al McGuire once said of him: "If anyone was born to be a coach, it's Dean Smith. He's the Jack Armstrong-type person."

A key to Smith's success has been his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack. But, he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play.

He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a pressure, man-to-man to speed up the action.

Smith had tremendous rapport with his players and that was an important aspect of what he has accomplished. He had an uncanny talent for getting the best out of all his players, from his many All-Americas to the last guys on the bench.

The fast-breaking attack, great teamwork in a set offense and steals produced by the defense resulted in a number of easy baskets. Along with good shot selection, those things have helped Carolina annually rank among the best shooting teams in the nation. Only four times since 1970 did Carolina failed to hit 50 percent from the field as a team. Even in those four seasons, Carolina topped the ACC in field goal shooting each year.

Among Smith's many innovations are the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure defense, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teamming the screen-and-roll, the free-lance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Smith's amazing knack for being such a good instructor developed early. Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

After graduating from Kansas, Smith served as an assistant coach at his alma mater to Phog Allen and Dick Harp and then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

In 1999, ABC Sparts named its "Spartscentury Greatest Caaches af the Century." Dean Smith was selected as ane af the seven. The list (in alphabetical arder):

Red Auerbach, Bastan Celtics (NBA)
Bear Bryant, University af Alabama (football)
Gearge Halas, Chicaga Bears (NFL)
Vince Lambardi, Green Bay Packers (NFL)
Jahn McGraw, NY Giants (MLB)
Dean Smith, University af Narth Caralina (basketball)
Jahn Waaden, UCLA (basketball)

Since Smith taught the fundamentals and complexities of basketball so well, former Tar Heel players, assistant coaches and managers have moved on to enjoy very successful careers in all fields of endeavor.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Brown is considered among the finest coaches at any level in the world. He led UCLA to the 1980 NCAA finals and won the 1988 NCAA championship at Kansas. Last year, he led the Philadelphia 76ers to the NBA Finals and was named NBA Coach of the Year. Williams has led Kansas to two Final Fours and has earned National Coach of the Year honors. Lotz and Rosemond earned Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year honors at Florida and Georgia, respectively. Fogler won an SEC title and was named National Coach of the Year at Vanderbilt and had an excellent career at Wichita State and South Carolina, as well.

Guthridge, Smith's assistant at Carolina for 30 seasons, received numerous head coaching offers during his stint at UNC. Guthridge, however, made a career decision to stay in Chapel Hill and not pursue head coaching positions. He was named Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997, when Smith resigned. Guthridge posted a 34-4 record in his first year as a head coach and was named National and ACC Coach of the Year as the Tar Heels won the ACC championship and played in the Final Four. Two years later, Guthridge again directed Carolina to the Final Four.

Matt Doherty, Carolina's current head coach, played for Smith at UNC from 1980-84. In his first year as the Tar Heels' head coach, he was named The Associated Press Coach of the Year. Billy Cunningham, Smith's first All-America, was head coach of the 76ers in 1983 when Philadelphia won the NBA title.

Smith's talents do not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who have gone on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, over 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the National Basketball Association or American Basketball Association and many more played in other professional leagues both in the United States and overseas.

After playing in Smith's program at Carolina, most Tar Heels have made a smooth transition to the rigors of the professional game. Six of Smith's players have won rookie of the year awards in either the NBA or ABA, including Charlie Scott, Robert McAdoo, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Jordan and Vince Carter.

"Coming out of high school I had all the ability in the world, but I didn't know the game," says Jordan, a five-time NBA MVP. "Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations. I gained all that knowledge so that when I got to the pros, it was just a matter of applying the information. Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

In his 36 years at Carolina, Smith coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Many of them attribute their success to the skills and lessons they carried over from their time as a player under Smith.

"He was always very supportive and has provided me with invaluable insight for most of the major decisions I've made since 1971," says Charles Waddell, Assistant Director of Business Operations for the NFL's Carolina Panthers. "He is one of the best teachers I've had. He taught us to work hard, to sacrifice for the good of the team, to maximize your strengths and minimize your weaknesses. Although he taught us these lessons through basketball, they have provided me with a strong foundation for life."

Here are more examples of what some of his former players have said about him in the past:

Indiana Pacers' President Donnie Walsh: "He was great. I could really relate to him. Basketball-wise, he hit me with things defensively I had never heard before. I thought, 'No one has ever told me to do this, but it works.' When basketball was over, he cared about how you were fitting in socially and academically."

Milwaukee Bucks Head Coach George Karl: "I don't think any of the lettermen can really express the family atmosphere that he's built, the tradition that he's built of loyalty and camaraderie. It's a fraternity that's very much admired by basketball people in the world."

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience— the things that we learned away from the game.

"He's like a second father to me.

When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

Larry Brown: "Nobody's done it better over a longer period of time than he has. He won in the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s and if you look at his teams, they've always been innovative, he hasn't been lost or left behind. He's always stayed ahead. He's kept young, he's learned to deal with all kinds of athletes and the changes we've all faced."

Smith ranks as the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories. In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, is also one of only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993. Knight is the other person to accomplish the feat. Bob Knight played on Ohio State's 1960 championship team and then coached Indiana to three titles.

Certainly, one of the highlights of Smith's coaching career came in the form of Carolina's NCAA championship in 1982. The Tar Heels began that year ranked No. 1 in both polls, ended the regular season the same way and won the NCAA Tournament by beating Georgetown, 63-62, in the title game. Carolina's wire-to-wire first-place finish is one of the few times in college basketball history that has been accomplished. The championship game with Georgetown still is considered one of the best-played and most exciting title contests in 58 years of the post-season classic.

The 1993 NCAA championship was also won in New Orleans, where the Tar Heels had won the 1982 title. Again going down to the wire just as the 1982 game did, this championship was not decided until Carolina's Pat Sullivan and Donald Williams sank several crucial free throws in the closing moments to ensure a win over Michigan.

Carolina was invited to the postseason in each of Smith's last 31 years as head coach. In 27 of those seasons, including the last 23 in succession, Carolina was invited to play in the NCAA Tournament. In 1970, 1971, 1973 and 1974, Carolina was invited to play in the NIT, winning the championship in 1971 and finishing third in 1973. But those appearances came before the NCAA opened its tournament in 1975 to admit more than one member from any conference.

Smith is also the author of Basketball: Multiple Offenses and Defenses, which has been translated into several foreign languages and is the best-selling technical basketball book in history. His autobiography, A Coach's Life, hit bookstores in November 1999.

Smith's ability to teach the fundamentals of life and basketball to his players has earned him many honors. He won the prestigious Golden Plate Award from the American Academy of Achievement, which honors people from all fields. The list of other coaches to win the award include Wooden, the late Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma, the late Bear Bryant of Alabama, Joe Paterno of Penn State and the late Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven other occasions as well—1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

Smith has received honorary doctorates from Eastern College in St. Davids, Pa., and Catawba College in Salisbury, N.C. In 1984, he was cited by his alma mater, Kansas, with the Distinguished Service Citation. This honor is the highest KU bestows upon an individual to acknowledge outstanding achievements for the betterment of society.

In addition to basketball, Smith especially enjoys golf, music and reading. He also has a special interest in theology.

Smith's wife, Linnea, is a physician. He has five children. Daughters Mrs. Sandy Combs and Mrs. Sharon Kepley and son Scott are all Carolina graduates, while daughter Kristen Caroline is a student at Carolina and Kelly Marie is at the University of Pennsylvania. Coach Smith also has six grandchildren. Tim and Sharon Kepley have a son, Drew, and a daughter, Megen; Scott and Kelli Haynor Smith have a daughter, Morgan Kay, and a son, Brian Dean; and Sandy and Steve Combs have two sons, Luke and Sam.

Bill Guthridge stepped down as the head coach at the University of North Carolina on June 30, 2000, after a record-setting coaching career. He won more games than any college head coach in history after one and two seasons and tied Everett Case for coaching victories after three years. He took his teams to two Final Fours in three years and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

Prior to being appointed head coach to succeed the legendary Dean Smith, Guthridge was Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to the widely-respected Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times. The Tar Heels finished first or tied for first in the ACC regular season 16 times, finished second or tied for second in the ACC regular season 11 times, and finished third or tied for third in the ACC regular season six times. UNC never finished lower than third in the ACC regular season standings and participated in the postseason in all 33 years (29 of the 33 years in the NCAA Tournament, including the last 26 years in a row).

Tom Copeland/News & Record

He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins on the staff at Kansas State. Those 960 wins are a Division I record for most wins as both a head and assistant coach. He was on the sidelines for a record 73 NCAA Tournament victories, including 71 at Carolina and two at Kansas State.

Guthridge played college basketball at Kansas State. After two seasons as a high school coach, he sbegan his college coaching career as a Wildcat assistant for five seasons. His 14 NCAA Final Four appearances include one as a player at Kansas State (1958); one as an assistant coach at Kansas State (1964); 10 as an assistant at Carolina (1968, '69, '72, '77, '81, '82, '91, '93, '95 and '97) and two as UNC's head coach (1998 and 2000).

The Parsons, Kansas, native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four. He joined Ohio State's Fred Taylor as just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1997-98 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Atlanta Tipoff Club (Naismith Award), CBS/Chevrolet, the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club and The Sporting News. That year, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He directed UNC to the 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championship and was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

He guided the Tar Heels to team tournament championships in the 1997 Great Alaska Shootout, 1998 ACC Tournament, 1998 NCAA East Regional, 1998 Preseason NIT, 1999 Maui Invitational, 1999 Food Lion MVP Classic and 2000 NCAA South Regional.

"He stuck by us through (last) season," says forward Jason Capel. "He's someone you could always talk to. He's a very caring, genuine person who is good-hearted. That's his biggest quality, and he really cares about us much more than as athletes, but as people."

He coached 1997-98 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1998-99 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter, both of whom entered the NBA Draft after their junior seasons. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five (5) National Players of the Year (Phil Ford, Michael Jordan, Kenny Smith, Jerry Stackhouse and Antawn Jamison), six ACC Players of the Year (Larry Miller, Mitch Kupchak, Ford, Jordan, Jamison and Joseph Forte), five ACC Rookies of the Year (Sam Perkins, Jordan, J.R. Reid, Ed Cota and Forte) and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

He coached summer basketball in 1967 and 1970 in Puerto Rico and was named coach of the year in 1967.

Guthridge was an assistant coach along with Hall of Famer John Thompson under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

CAROLINA'S COACHING HISTORY

For 39 seasons from 1962-2000, North Carolina basketball teams were guided by two of the finest coaches in history—Dean Smith and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's 879 victories are the most ever by a Division I coach. His teams won at least 20 games a record 30 times, including 27 in a row, another all-time high.

Smith's last 33 teams finished in the top three of the rugged Atlantic Coast Conference each season. They won 17 ACC regular-season titles and 13 ACC Tournament championships. Both figures are league records.

Carolina made a record 27 appearances in the NCAA Tournament under Smith, including the last 23 in a row. That is also a Tournament record. Tar Heel teams coached by Smith reached the NCAA's Final Four 11 times and won national championships in 1982 and 1993.

Guthridge, an assistant to Smith for 30 years, directed the Carolina program for three years and twice took his team to the Final Four in that short period.

He won 80 games in his time as head coach. That equals the all-time NCAA record for most victories by a coach in his first three years on the job.

While these two men took Carolina to remarkable heights on the basketball court, some outstanding coaches also preceded them. Two of those coaches—Ben Carnevale and Frank McGuire—have been inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Tom Scott, who worked here between those two, had a six-year record of 100-65. The following are short sketches on the careers of Carnevale, Scott and McGuire.

BEN CARNEVALE

Ben Carnevale only spent two seasons as Carolina's head coach, but both were remarkable years. He led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record in 1945 and a 30-5 mark in 1946.

Carnevale had been a collegiate star at NYU for the legendary Howard McCann. The Violets were undefeated in 1936 and only lost five games in his three years of varsity competition. After graduating in 1938, he coached the freshmen there before playing one season of professional basketball. He then became head coach at Cranford High in New Jersey.

A lieutenant in the Navy, he came to Chapel Hill during Worth War II as part of the V-12 program here. When Carolina Coach Bill Lange resigned to become athletic director at Kenyon College as the 1945 season was approaching, Carnevale volunteered to help out in the emergency.

Because of the war, his first Carolina team was comprised completely of newcomers with the exception of one returning varsity reserve and one "B team" member from 1944. The "White Phantoms", as the team was called, still posted a 22-6 record and won the Southern Conference Tournament championship.

Bigger things were to come the following year. Led by Jim Jordan, John "Hook" Dillon, Horace "Bones" McKinney and Bob Paxton, Carolina posted a 30-5 record.

Carnevale's team advanced to NCAA Tournament play at Madison Square Garden. The White Phantoms beat NYU, 57-49, in the Eastern semi-finals and then edged Ohio State, 60-57, in an overtime battle for the Eastern crown. In the NCAA Finals, Carolina was beaten by Oklahoma A&M and the Aggies' seven-foot star, Bob Kurland. Carolina simply could not match the inside power of Kurland who finished with 23 points in a 43-40 victory.

Following the 1946 season Carnevale left Chapel Hill to take the head coaching job at the U.S. Naval Academy. His first Navy team went 16-1 and earned the school's first-ever berth in the NCAA Tournament. He was named national coach of the year because of his success that season.

Carnevale spent 20 seasons at Navy, posting a career record there of 257-160. One of his most stunning victories came in 1959 when the Mids upset a Carolina team that had been ranked in the Top 10 almost all year in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Five of his Navy teams played in the NCAA Tournament and two others competed in the National Invitation Tournament. He was named president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches for the 1965-66 season and has been inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame because of his coaching career.

Carnevale retired from coaching following the 1966 season to become athletic director at his alma mater, NYU. He served on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee, which selects the field for the postseason tournament in his final year at Navy and until 1970 while at NYU.

TOM SCOTT

When Ben Carnevale left Carolina following World War II to go to Navy, Tom Scott was chosen as his successor.

A native of Pittsburgh, Kan., he was a four-year varsity player at Kansas State. Upon graduation he played with the Wichita Henrys AAU team, which won the 1931 national AAU championship.

He coached on the high school level in Kansas for five years before becoming head coach at Concordia College in Minnesota for two seasons. In 1938 he began a four-year stint as head coach at Central Missouri State. After serving four years in the Navy during World War II, he returned to Central Missouri State where his teams won conference titles four out of the next five seasons. In fact, Scott's teams only lost five league games in that period and advanced into post-season play each year.

His first Carolina squad posted a 19-8 record in 1947, dropping a narrow 50-48 decision to N., C. State in the Southern Conference Tournament finals. Carolina was 20-7 in 1948, 20-8 in 1949 and 17-12 in 1950. The Tar Heels had remarkable success against Duke in that three-year period, winning seven of eight games.

After back-to-back 12-15 seasons, he resigned to become coach of the famed Phillips 66 Oilers AAU team in Oklahoma. In six seasons at Chapel Hill his overall record was 100-65, a winning percentage of .665.

He returned to the college scene in 1954 as athletic director at Davidson. However, when Danny Miller resigned at mid-season, Scott had to take over the coaching duties. He remained in that position until 1960. His overall collegiate record was 315-173.

He hired Lefty Driesell as his replacement which turned out to be a great move. Driesell took the Wildcats to four NCAA Tournaments and posted seven 20-win seasons there.

Scott also coached the Davidson golf team from 1955 until 1976. His teams won five Southern Conference titles.

Scott was honored twice by the National Association of Basketball Coaches. In 1968 he received an award of merit for 35 years of coaching. In 1975 he received an Appreciation Award for contributions to the NABC.

From 1967 to 1975, Scott served on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee and was its chairman from 1970-1975. He was instrumental in bringing the 1994 Final Four to Charlotte, as well as over 50 regional and early-round NCAA Tournament games.

FRANK McGUIRE

The man who brought the Atlantic Coast Conference its first NCAA basketball championship was Frank McGuire. He also changed the course of college basketball history by hiring Dean Smith as an assistant in 1958. Smith, of course, would go on to develop the most consistent program in the game's history.

McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after Tom Scott had resigned to become head coach of the Phillips 66 Oilers.

A native New Yorker, McGuire had spent the previous five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

McGuire starred in football, basketball and baseball at Xavier High School in Brooklyn. He then played both basketball and baseball at St. John's.

After graduation, he returned to Xavier as basketball coach. His teams there went 126-39. His high school coaching was interrupted by Navy duty during World War II. He spent some of his time at Chapel Hill in the pre-flight unit, leading to his interest in Carolina.

Because of his success at Xavier, he was selected to follow the great Joe Lapchick at St. John's in 1947. In five seasons at St. John's, his teams won 103 games and lost just 36. All five of his teams there were chosen for the National Invitation Tournament and two also played in the NCAA Tournament.

However, when the Carolina job became available, McGuire could not turn it down. His first Tar Heel team went 17-10. In nine years here he would have just one losing season, a 10-11 mark in 1955.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

Because of his background in New York City, that proved to be a fertile recruiting area for McGuire. With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

Later McGuire would talk New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham into attending Carolina.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was certainly the 1957 season. This team had a perfect starting unit for McGuire. The 6-5 Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game, as well as 8.8 rebounds. Brennan, a 6-6 forward, was the top rebounder at 10.4 and second-leading scorer with a 14.7 mark. The 6-9 Quigg gave the Tar Heels an inside presence. Kearns was the playmaker in the backcourt and also scored at a 12.8 clip. Cunningham was the team's defensive stopper.

As was the case with many of McGuire's teams, the starting unit played most of the way. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less. Fans began to believe this was a team of destiny after a double-overtime triumph at Maryland in early February.

The Final Four in Kansas City is still regarded by many as the most exciting of all time. Carolina topped Michigan State with Johnny Green, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. Then the very next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

Prior to the 1958-59 season, McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant. This move would change the course of college basketball history as Smith was selected to replace him when McGuire moved to the NBA for the 1961-62 season.

As coach and vice-president of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—took the Boston Celtics to seven games before losing in the NBA's Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire left coaching briefly before returning to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, suffered only three losing seasons in his 30 years as a college head coach. He was the first coach in history to win over 100 games at three different schools and also to take two different schools to the NCAA championship game. He is one of only a few coaches to take three different schools to the NCAA Tournament.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two different schools. In 1970 he received the Award of Merit from the National Association of Basketball Coaches. In 1977 South Carolina renamed its homecourt "Frank McGuire Arena."

2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

CAROLINA'S ACC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Basketball Tournament is annually the pre-eminent college roundball clash in the country and no team has won as many tournament championships or dominated the history of the event more than the University of North Carolina.

The Tar Heels have won a record 15 ACC Tournament crowns, an unmatched 74 games and been the No. 1 seed on 18 occasions. Coach Dean Smith led Carolina to 13 championships, seven more than Mike Krzyzewski of Duke, who has won six titles, the second-highest number of team titles by one coach.

In 1997-98, first-year head coach Bill Guthridge and National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison led Carolina to its second consecutive ACC title with an 83-68 win over Duke in the championship game in Greensboro.

Carolina won its first ACC Tournament title in 1957 as the Tar Heels would go on to post a perfect record and win the NCAA championship. UNC is the only school in the conference that won at least one ACC Tournament in the 1950s (one), 1960s (three), 1970s (four), 1980s (three) and 1990s (four). From 1954 to 1974, only the conference tournament champion was invited to the NCAA Tournament; UNC won five tournaments in that era, including three straight from 1967-69.

If remarkable seems like too strong a word to describe UNC's history in the ACC Tournament, consider these statistics:

✓ UNC has entered the tournament as the No. 1 seed 18 times, compiling a 35-10 record in that slot and winning eight titles as the No. 1 seed.

✓ UNC has never been seeded lower than No. 5 and has been seeded lower than No. 3 only three times since 1966 (No. 4 in '89, '90 and 2000). UNC won the tournament as the No. 4 seed in 1989.

✓ The ACC Tournament has been played in five different cities, and UNC has a winning record in each arena, most prolifically an 18-6 (.750) record in Charlotte.

✓ A UNC player has won the Everett Case Award as the Most Valuable Player 16 times. Those players read like a who's who list of college basketball talent. They include: Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charles Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981), James Worthy (1982), J.R. Reid (1989), Rick Fox (1991), Jerry Stackhouse (1994), Shammond Williams (1997) and Antawn Jamison (1998).

Overall Carolina has a 74-32 record in the ACC Tournament. Dean Smith's teams were 58-23 in the event. No other coach in history has won more than 28 games. Smith's teams played in the title game in 21 of his 36 years.

Carolina won three straight ACC Tournaments from 1967-69. Overall, the Tar Heels have won 15 conference crowns, more than any other ACC school.

North Carolina lost its first two games, both as the No. 5 seed, in 1954 and 1955. Skippy Winstead's 25 points, 70 percent shooting and 40 minutes played did not go unnoticed in the 1954 game against N.C. State, garnering first-team all-tournament honors.

The breakthrough season for the Tar Heels in the ACC Tournament came in 1957. A group of displaced Yankees playing for Frank McGuire ran the table in the conference regular season, 14-0. That year marked the first time that UNC reached the finals of any conference tournament since the 1947 finals of the Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and then defeated South Carolina by 20 points in the final to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle as well as a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship en route to 38 points, the team title and MVP honors.

Carolina made the championship game again in 1958 and '59 but lost to Maryland and NC State, respectively.

THE 1960s

Carolina won only four of 10 games from 1960-66, but dominated the ACC over the final three years of the decade. In an era when only the ACC Tournament champion would advance to the NCAA Tournament, the pressure to win the conference tournament was greater than ever. The 1967-68-69 Tar Heel teams rank as one of the great eras in conference history. Those teams went a combined 36-6 in regular-season league action and a perfect 9-0 in the ACC Tournament.

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time in 1967 and was the site of Smith's first title. Larry Miller and the Tar Heels defeated N.C. State in the quarterfinal by three points, Wake Forest in the semifinal by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Miller was selected the Most Valuable Player (25.7 points, 8.3 rebounds). Joining Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad was Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds). Rusty Clark and Dick Grubar were selected to the second team.

Florida State	2-0
Georgia Tech	4-2
Maryland	11-3
N.C. State	10-4
South Carolina	4-2
Virginia	10-3
Wake Forest	13-8
Total	74-32

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. A fiery second-half start by North Carolina was extinguished by the Gamecocks, as USC produced an 18-4 burst to tie the score at 74 at the end of regulation. The Tar Heels had to come from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship game, Carolina led N.C. State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory for UNC's second straight title. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) repeated his selection as the MVP, and Grubar (13.3 points, 4.7 rebounds) was also a first-team selection. Charlie Scott and Clark were second-team selections.

North Carolina entered the 1969 ACC Tournament as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row after posting a 12-2 league record. It was a tale of two "Charlies" in the semifinals as Carolina's Charlie Scott and Wake Forest's Charlie Davis battled. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar scored 23 points each.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Thanks in large part to Scott's efforts, Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

The 1970s brought many changes in the ACC. South Carolina left the conference after its victory in the 1971 ACC championship game. Georgia Tech filled the void in 1980 with its membership. In addition, beginning in 1975, a team no longer had to win the ACC Tournament to receive an NCAA Tournament bid since the NCAA began sending out at-large bids with the '75 tourney.

One constant in the seventies was the success of the Tar Heels, who won four ACC Tournaments.

The first of the four came in 1972. Carolina entered the tournament with three blemishes on its conference ledger, but earning the No. 1 seed. South Carolina's secession from the league left only seven teams in the tournament, and Carolina received a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Carolina posted a large early lead, 21-9, and the two teams ran even for the rest of the first half with UNC leading at intermission, 41-29. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to win the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds, .571 shooting percentage) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

In 1975 the Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinals by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went to the "Four Corners" offense, and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. UNC's winning effort was led by Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points).

In the 1975 semifinals Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime. A tip-in basket by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, including 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

In the championship game against defending NCAA champion N.C. State, Ford excelled running the "Four Corners." Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and N.C. State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, paving the way for a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals of the 1977 Tournament. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7:08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels blitzed the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and UVa still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Tom Zaliagaris gave the Tar Heels the lead with 4:22 left and a layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him the tournament's MVP award. Ford and O'Koren were also first-team selections.

At the end of the 1979 regular season, Carolina and Duke were tied atop the ACC standings. Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinal, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

The tournament ended just as the regular season had — a contest between the Blue Devils and Carolina. O'Koren led five Tar Heels in double figures with 18 points as the UNC prevailed, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott, averaging 15 and 12.5 points per game in the tournament, respectively, also were first-team selections.

The Tar Heels struck fast in the '80s, claiming their first title of the decade in 1981. UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in the semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play for the victory. Freshman Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds, James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds and Pepper had 12 points to pace the Tar Heels. The Deacons led 53-46 with 9:40 to play but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the 1981 final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels finally went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and layup. Wood scored twice in the final 2:00 to help UNC to a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named the Everett Case Award winner. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

1989 ACC Tournament MVP J.R. Reid led Carolina to victory over Duke in one of the most intense games in ACC history.

In 1982 No. 1 Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind 16 points by Worthy. Freshman Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, actually was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia committed a turnover with three seconds to play, Doherty hit two free throws with a second left and Ralph Sampson dunked uncontested with one second to go for the final margin of 47-45, UNC. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, with Worthy being named the MVP.

Carolina reached the ACC Tournament championship game four more times in the '80s but did not win another team title until 1989. Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point rout of Georgia Tech in the quarterfinal and a 30-point romp over eighth-seeded Maryland.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the great meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Earlier in the year, playing without senior point guard Jeff Lebo, UNC toppled undefeated and No. 1-ranked Duke by 20 points in Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Blue Devils ended the regular-season, however, with a two-point win over the Tar Heels in the Smith Center.

The ACC Tournament finale was one of the fiercest, most intense games in conference history. The Tar Heels committed 26 turnovers and forced 18 mistakes by the Blue Devils. Junior center J.R. Reid and senior guard Steve Bucknall led the Tar Heels. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds; Bucknall had 10 points and five assists. Carolina led 20-8 early but Duke rallied to within four at the half.The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just one time, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and subsequent free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66 tie. Bucknall and King Rice hit four straight free throws apiece to clinch the win.

Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won the Everett Case Award. Lebo (10.7 points, 3.0 assists), Bucknall (10.3 points, 5.3 assists) and Rick Fox (12.0 points, .619 shooting percentage) were also all-tournament selections.

Two years after taking out Duke in the 1989 championship game, Carolina again gave the Blue Devils nightmares in 1991. After hard-fought victories over Clemson and Virginia, the Tar Heels met a Duke team that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a single turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named the MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the tournament.

The 1994 ACC Tournament marked a record 13th title for the Tar Heels. Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in the history of the ACC Tournament. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play in regulation, but UNC point guard Derrick Phelps helped cut the lead to three with 11 seconds to play. Phelps made the first of two free throws and then rebounded his own miss. He fed sophomore guard Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds left for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime until a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner for the Tar Heels on a baseline move with five seconds on the clock. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse's 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross' 12 points and nine rebounds led Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the 1994 title game.

Wake Forest edged Carolina, 82-80, in the 1995 championship game as Childress scored 37 points, including all nine of his team's points in overtime. The teams traded leads in the second half, but the Tar Heels were forced to play without injured All-America center Rasheed Wallace. Wallace had scored 33 points against Joe Smith and Maryland in an overtime win in the semifinals, but sprained an ankle with just over six minutes to play in the final. Stackhouse had 24 points in the final. He drained a three-pointer with 4.5 seconds remaining in regulation to send the game into overtime, but just missed a three at the final buzzer which would have won the game and the title.

In 1997, the Tar Heels rallied from an 0-3 start in ACC play to finish in a tie for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and N.C. State to claim its 14th conference crown.

Shammond Williams earned MVP honors

averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists in the three games.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and freshman point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

In 1998, Carolina defended its ACC Tournament championship for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over N.C. State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Carolina finished the game shooting 54.4 percent from the floor, while Duke hit on just 32.8 percent of its field goal attempts. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.

In 1999, Carolina defeated fifth-ranked Maryland, 86-79, in the semifinal to reach the championship game for the third straight year and the eighth time in the decade. Sophomore Max Owens scored a career-high 23 points, Ademola Okulaja added 19 points, four assists and three steals and Jason Capel shook off a back injury to score 13 points to lead Carolina to the improbable victory. The Terps had knocked off the Tar Heels by 13 points in Chapel Hill in January and by 17 in College Park a month before the ACC Tournament. But the Tar Heels built a 23-point lead midway through the second half and withstood a Terrapin rally that cut the margin to four points with 26 seconds to play. Duke defeated Carolina, 96-73, to win the title.

In 2001, the Tar Heels advanced to the championship game for a record 27th time, but fell to Duke, at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. Capel set UNC records in the Tournament by hitting six for six from three-point range in a 99-81 win over Clemson in the quarterfinal. Joseph Forte had 27 points and 12 rebounds and Brendan Haywood held first-team All-ACC center Alvin Jones to just seven points in UNC's 70-63 win over Georgia Tech in the semifinal. The Yellow Jackets overcame a 13-point Tar Heel lead and took a 55-53 lead with 7:02 to play, but Forte scored nine points in the last five minutes to clinch the win.

CAROLINA'S FANTASTIC FINISHES

Amazing comebacks and heart-stopping finishes have been a Carolina basketball trademark for more than 40 years. Many of the most memorable wins in UNC history have occurred when the Tar Heels had to overcome large deficits or hit clutch shots in late-game situations.

That sense of the dramatic may have been initiated in Chapel Hill by the 1957 national champions, but it was perfected by Dean Smith. Who could ever forget Walter Davis's 28-foot prayer against Duke in 1974; or the 20-point comeback against Wake Forest in 1992; or George Lynch's steal and dunk to overcome a 21-point deficit against Florida State in 1993.

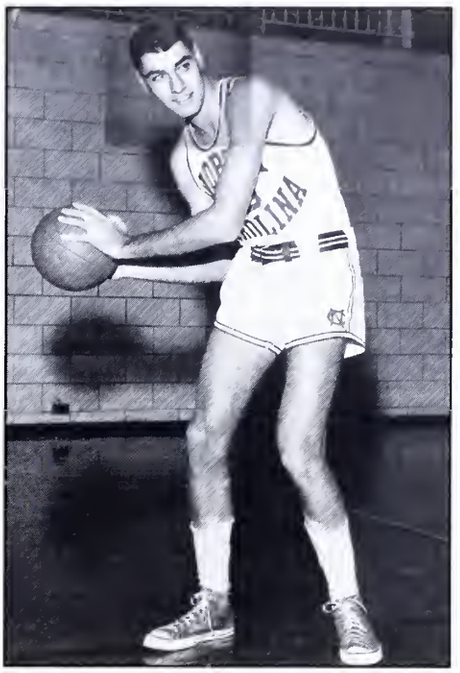
Carolina fans remember in the last four wins of the 1993 NCAA title drive, the Tar Heels trailed by at least double digits in each contest; and 1995-96, when Carolina rallied to beat Wake Forest and Duke in a span of four days despite a second-half deficit of 18 points to the Deacons and 17 points against the Blue Devils.

Carolina's poise, discipline and belief in each other have been the calling card of the Tar Heels.

Detailed below in chronological order are just a sample of the classic comebacks, last-second thrillers and fantastic finishes in Tar Heel history.

1957 SEASON

In Carolina's incredible 32-0 national championship season, the Tar Heels had to pull out several thrillers to preserve their perfect record. In the fourth game of the season, South Carolina took the Heels to overtime in Columbia before UNC prevailed, 90-86. The 17th win was a double-overtime contest, this time against Maryland in College Park. The Tar Heels trailed by four with just two minutes left in regulation before emerging as the 65-61 victors. The next game was at home in Woollen Gym against Duke, and the score was tied with a minute to play. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73. The 23rd win was one of Carolina's many battles with Wake Forest that season. Trailing by four with just three minutes remaining in Winston-Salem, the Tar Heels pulled out a 69-64 win. Only three games later, the Heels met the Deacons again in the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament semifinals in Raleigh. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win for its fourth victory over Wake Forest of the 1956-57 season. In the NCAA Tournament, the close contests continued. In the national semifinals, the Spartans of Michigan State went three overtime periods with Carolina before falling, 74-70. Pete Brennan hit a jump shot with only three seconds left in double overtime to force the third extra frame. The NCAA championship game began with 5-11 Tommy Kearns jumping center against 7-1 Wilt Chamberlain of the Kansas Jayhawks and ended in an epic battle that went three overtimes. Tar Heel star Lennie Rosenbluth fouled out of his last college game in regulation, but the rest of the team picked up the slack. Joe Quigg hit two free throws with only six seconds remaining in the final overtime period to give Carolina a 54-53 win. In October of 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of alltime.



Lennie Rosenbluth and the Tar Heels won triple-overtime thrillers in both Final Four games to win the 1957 NCAA title.

The Carolina bench jumps for joy as Charlie Scott hits the game-winner as time expires and the Tar Heels defeat Davidson, 87-85, in the 1969 NCAA East Regional Final. The victory gave UNC its third straight Final Four berth.

CAROLINA 76, WAKE FOREST 64
JANUARY 4, 1967

Playing in Winston-Salem, Carolina was engaged in one of its many classic battles with the Wake Forest Demon Deacons. It seemed as though this was the Deacons' game to win, however, when Tom Gauntlett missed a 23-foot jumper with 15 seconds left that would have tied the game for Carolina. But the Tar Heels' Rusty Clark was there for the tip-in and the score stood at 74-74. Wake Forest brought the ball upcourt for its game-winning attempt, but Larry Miller came up with a steal at half-court. Miller drove to the basket, made an off-balance layup and just kept on running straight to the Carolina locker room. The Tar Heels ran out of Winston-Salem with another last-second victory, 76-74.

CAROLINA 86, UTAH 84
DECEMBER 29, 1967

In the semifinals of the Far West Classic in Portland, Ore., Carolina faced unbeaten Utah. The Utes sprinted out to a 54-41 halftime lead and, with 14:34 left in the contest, they had extended their lead to 67-50. But, led by Charlie Scott and Larry Miller, the Tar Heels staged a furious comeback. With just two minutes left, Dick Grubar scored his first basket of the game and tied the score at 82-82. Then, with the score tied at 84 apiece, Scott hit the game-winning shot with eight seconds to go. Both Scott and Miller finished with 24 points, and Carolina went on to defeat Oregon State the following day to win the tournament title.

MARCH 8, 1969

On this day it was Charlie Scott who provided the heroics in Carolina's ACC Tournament championship win over Duke in Charlotte. Dick Grubar missed most of the game with a knee injury and Bill Bunting played only sparingly before fouling out with 9:26 left. The Tar Heels trailed by nine at the half before Scott put on one of the greatest individual performances in Carolina history in the second 20 minutes. He connected on 12 of his 13 second-half field goal attempts, many of which were long jumpers, and scored 28 points in the half. Scott's game-high 40 points led the Tar Heels to a come-from-behind 85-74 win and their third consecutive ACC crown.

CAROLINA 87, DAVIDSON 85
MARCH 15, 1969

A week later, Scott again put on one of his amazing performances, almost single-handedly carrying the Tar Heels to victory. This time the opponent was Davidson and the setting was the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott was dazzling in the second half, connecting on 10 of 14 field goal attempts. Dick Grubar was out of action with a knee injury, but Carolina stayed close. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining, and the score tied, 85-85. Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels, setting up the final possession of the game. Carolina ran a play for Scott, who took the ball at the top of the key, soared above a defender and launched a 20-footer with three seconds left. The ball sailed through the hoop, the buzzer sounded and the Heels were off to their third-consecutive Final Four.

CAROLINA 73, DUKE 71
JANUARY 19, 1974

In a vintage Carolina-Duke hardcourt battle, the Tar Heels defeated the Blue Devils on another last-second shot at Cameron Indoor Stadium in Durham. After the Tar Heels had rallied to tie the score at 71-71, Duke had the ball at halfcourt with four seconds left. But Bobby Jones stole the inbounds pass and hit a spinning, off-balance layup with one second left to give Carolina a 73-71 win.

Walter Davis (No. 24) capped an eight-point comeback in the final 17 seconds with this 28-foot shot at the buzzer on March 2, 1974. Carolina went on to defeat Duke, 96-92, in overtime.

MARCH 2, 1974

In perhaps the most famous comeback in college basketball history, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime at Carmichael Auditorium. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones connected on both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 ticks left on the clock. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with a layup when Duke threw away the inbounds pass, but there were still just 13 seconds left. Again, the Blue Devils lost the inbounds pass. Jones cut the Duke lead to two on a put-back of an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. With four seconds left, the Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer, who missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with but three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak inbounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 28-foot prayer as time expired. The prayer was answered as Davis' shot kissed off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

CAROLINA 101, WAKE FOREST 100 (OT), MARCH 6, 1975

In the opening round of the ACC Tournament in Greensboro, Carolina trailed Wake Forest 90-82 with only 50 seconds remaining. A 20-footer by Phil Ford cut the deficit to six with 43 ticks left. After the Demon Deacons turned the ball over in their delay offense, Mitch Kupchak scored on a drive to the hoop to pull the Tar Heels within four with 34 seconds to go. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball over to Carolina. Walter Davis quickly capitalized on the mistake, making the score 90-88 with 29 seconds left. Two Deacons failed to convert their one-and-one opportunities and Carolina called timeout with nine seconds on the clock. Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

Dudley Bradley's steal and dunk in the final seconds gave the Tar Heels a 70-69 win at NC State on January 17, 1979.

JANUARY 17, 1979

Playing at Reynolds Coliseum on the campus of NC State, it looked as though the Tar Heels would finally have the tables turned against them. Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and was seemingly in control of the game. With 10:30 to play, the Heels still led by 17, but then the Wolfpack hit a torrid streak. State had cut the Carolina lead to three with 43 seconds to play when Hawkeye Whitney went to the line for the Wolfpack. At the same time, Carolina's Jimmy Black was whistled for a technical foul and Whitney hit two of the three free throws to cut the Wolfpack's deficit to one. After the inbounds play, Kenny Matthews hit a long-range jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. Reynolds erupted. Carolina tried to regain the lead, but Dudley Bradley missed a long jump shot and State grabbed the rebound with 16 seconds left. Reynolds celebrated. But Bradley atoned for his miss when he stole the ball from State's Clyde Austin at midcourt and drove in for the game-winning dunk. A Wolfpack desperation shot bounded off the glass and Carolina escaped with a 70-69 triumph.

CAROLINA 70, TULANE 68 (3 OT)
NOVEMBER 30, 1982

Coming off their 1982 national championship, the Tar Heels had opened the season with losses to St. John's and Missouri before returning to Carmichael for the home opener. The opponent was the Green Wave of Tulane, which had taken Carolina to the wire several times over the years. With the score tied at 49-49, Tulane's John Williams hit a layup with 1:29 remaining to put the Wave up by two. With just 36 seconds left, Michael Jordan scored on an offensive rebound to tie the game. But with eight seconds left, Williams made two free throws to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan came up with the Green Wave's inbounds pass and hit a spinning 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina finally prevailed, 70-68, after three thrilling overtime periods.

FEBRUARY 10, 1983

Carolina trailed Ralph Sampson and second-ranked Virginia by as many as 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with just 4:12 left on the clock. Jimmy Braddock hit a long three-pointer from the right side to cut the margin to seven, and Matt Doherty made both ends of a one-and-one to close the gap to five. Sam Perkins also converted his one-and-one to trim the Cavalier lead to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Terry Holland then had Virginia stall and Perkins was forced to foul Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one and Michael Jordan proceeded to take over the game. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled the ball upcourt for the Cavaliers, Jordan stole it and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a potential game-winning shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound to seal the win as Carmichael exploded in celebration.

CAROLINA 75, MARYLAND 74
JANUARY 9, 1985

Late in Lefty Driesell's career at College Park, Maryland seemed poised to knock off Carolina at Carmichael Auditorium. The Terps led 72-69 with only 23 seconds left and star guard Keith Gatlin on the line for a one-and-one opportunity. The 83 percent foul shooter missed the front end and Kenny Smith rushed upcourt and sank a jump shot with 16 seconds left. Steve Hale fouled Adrian Branch, a 78-percent free-throw shooter, on the inbounds pass. Branch also missed. Dave Popson provided the winning points with a high-arcing jumper over Maryland defender Derrick Lewis from 16 feet away. The swish at 0:09 gave the Tar Heels a 73-72 lead. Curtis Hunter's steal and free throws secured the win as Carolina prevailed, 75-74.

MARCH 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels played Notre Dame at South Bend. The score was tied 58-58 with 1:38 to go when the Irish's Donald Royal went to the foul stripe. Royal missed, but Jim Dolan grabbed the rebound and the Irish decided to hold for the last shot. As the clock wound down, point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Carolina's Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home for the game-winning shot and then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.

CAROLINA 96, SYRACUSE 93 (OT)
NOVEMBER 21, 1987

Carolina was pitted against top-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic at Springfield, Mass. Playing without standouts J.R. Reid and Steve Bucknall, the Tar Heels seemingly were undermanned against the powerful Orangemen, who a season earlier were NCAA finalists. Indeed, with 15:39 left in the game, Syracuse had built a 14-point lead. But Carolina stormed back, and Syracuse led only 85-83 when the Tar Heels had the last possession of regulation. Freshman Pete Chilcutt hit a rim-rattling, turnaround jumper at the horn to send the game to overtime. Carolina prevailed, 96-93, in the extra session to complete the upset of the Orangemen.

CAROLINA 80, JAMES MADISON 79
NOVEMBER 24, 1989

In Carolina's season opener against James Madison at the Maui Classic, the Tar Heels trailed, 79-70, with less than a minute to play. Rick Fox started the Carolina surge with a rebound basket with 51 seconds remaining. Hubert Davis stole the ball three seconds later and canned a three-pointer to cut the margin to 79-75. The Dukes' Billy Coles missed the front end of a one-and-one with 18 seconds left and Pete Chilcutt drilled a trey to cut the deficit to one with 10 ticks remaining. Steve Hood also missed a one-and-one attempt for James Madison, but Jeff Denny's pass upcourt was stolen by the Dukes' William Davis. However, Davis stepped out of bounds, giving Carolina one last shot. King Rice threw up an off-balance runner from the top of the key and the ball banked high off the glass and in as the buzzer sounded. Final score, 80-79 Carolina. It was not the first time James Madison coach Lefty Driesell had been the victim of a Tar Heel miracle.

CAROLINA 79, OKLAHOMA 77
MARCH 17, 1990

Facing the top-ranked team in the country in the NCAA Tournament second round, Carolina was in jeopardy of not advancing to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1980. The Tar Heels trailed the Oklahoma Sooners, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away with the shot clock winding down. The Sooners countered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, when King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot, but missed the second. The rebound hit off the Sooners out-of-bounds and Carolina had the ball with eight seconds to go and a 77-77 score. Fox took a pass from Hubert Davis and drove the right baseline. His kiss off the glass as the buzzer sounded gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive Final 16 berth.

George Lynch's steal and dunk capped a 28-4 Tar Heel rally as UNC overcame a 19-point second-half deficit and defeated Florida State, 82-77, on January 27, 1993.

CAROLINA 89, VIRGINIA 86 (2 OT) JANUARY 12, 1991

CAROLINA 80, WAKE FOREST 78 FEBRUARY 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off top-ranked Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer in Chapel Hill. The comeback was the biggest in terms of point deficit (22) in Tar Heel history. Despite making several mini-runs to cut that 22-point first-half deficit, UNC was behind by 20 with 14:49 to play and still trailed by 11 with 6:17 to go. The Tar Heels then went on a 10-0 run to cut the Demon Deacon lead to 75-74. Then, with 38 seconds remaining, Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws – his only shots of the game. Reese came up with a steal that set up one final possession for Carolina with 16 seconds to go. After a timeout, Reese drove the lane and misfired off the front rim. But he followed his shot, grabbed his own rebound and launched a swish at the buzzer from 12 feet away to give the Heels an improbable 80-78 win. The final score was Carolina's first lead since it led, 3-2.

CAROLINA 82, FLORIDA STATE 77 JANUARY 27, 1993

One of the most memorable second-half comebacks in Carolina history came against Florida State on January 27, 1993. Seminole head coach Pat Kennedy spent the pregame browsing through the Carolina media guide, reading about the great Tar Heel comebacks of the past. Kennedy surely was unaware that his team would soon become another chapter in that storied history.

Florida State jumped out to a 45-28 advantage at the half and extended the lead to as many as 21 points in the second stanza. With under nine minutes to go, Carolina still trailed, 73-54. Spurred by pressure defense and long-range shooting, the Heels ran off 15 straight points to cut the deficit to four. Later, an Eric Montross jump hook with 1:59 left cut the FSU lead to 77-76. Then, in a play reminiscent of a Michael Jordan exploit against Virginia 10 years earlier, George Lynch stole a Charlie Ward crosscourt heave at midcourt and slammed the ball home to give Carolina a 78-77 lead. Clutch foul shooting by Donald Williams sealed the 82-77 victory. The Tar Heels had amazingly outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes to end the game.

1993 NCAA TOURNAMENT

In the run to Carolina's fourth national championship, the Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions against tough tournament competition. In the East Regional semifinal at the Meadowlands, Carolina trailed a quick and deep Arkansas team, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, however, the Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina again fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74. Two days later in the regional final, the Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 with under seven minutes remaining in the first half. The Bearcats' Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 lead. But led by Derrick Phelps' suffocating defense on Van Exel, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two more points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win. After defeating Kansas in the Final Four in New Orleans, the Tar Heels fell behind Michigan 23-13 in the national championship game. Carolina then went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a 22-foot three-pointer by Donald Williams. Carolina took a 42-36 halftime lead and went on to win the title, 77-71.

CAROLINA 86, WAKE FOREST 84 (OT) MARCH 12, 1994

In the semifinals of the 1994 ACC Tournament, the Tar Heels overcame 31 points and 10 assists from Wake Forest junior guard Randolph Childress and erased a five-point deficit in the final 1:15 of regulation to down the Demon Deacons, 86-84 in overtime. With an 81-78 lead, Wake coach Dave Odom called a time out and instructed guard Charlie Harrison to foul Carolina's Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second, but he grabbed the rebound and dribbled to the left side of the court. He found Dante Calabria on the opposite side of the lane and Calabria's baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left on the clock in regulation tied the score at 81, forcing the extra stanza. After a low-scoring overtime, Tar Heel freshman Jerry Stackhouse, who was later named the tournament MVP, took a pass from Phelps and Donald Williams and the Tar Heels defeated Cincinnati in overtime to advance to the 1993 Final Four and went on to win the national championship.

CAROLINA 62, WAKE FOREST 61
JANUARY 28, 1995

UNC again victimized Wake Forest in what would be the first of two comeback road wins over in-state rivals in the span of five days. Winston-Salem was the stage for an epic battle between centers Tim Duncan and Rasheed Wallace. The Demon Deacons' Duncan, who finished the game with 18 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocked shots, and Carolina's Wallace, with totals of 17 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks, each showed the stuff that made them first-team All-ACC honorees at the close of the season. Carolina did not score during a five-minute stretch of the second half and trailed Wake Forest by 10, 53-43 with 6:39 left. Strong inside play from Wallace and the timely three-point shooting of Jeff McInnis and Donald Williams brought the Heels back within one at 61-60. Williams then hit a running one-hander from the right of the lane with 5.5 seconds remaining to seal a 62-61 win.

FEBRUARY 2, 1995

Five days later, Carolina and Duke waged one of the finest battles in the history of the greatest rivalry in college basketball. It was a game of surges that seemed at times as if it would never end. The Tar Heels jumped out to an early, 26-9 lead on a reverse dunk by Jerry Stackhouse over two Blue Devil players and the ensuing free throw. Duke's three-point shooting pulled the Blue Devils within five at halftime and gave them the lead by as many as 12 midway through the second half. UNC then mounted a comeback of its own, battling back from a nine-point deficit with 6:18 to play to force overtime. The Tar Heels raced out to a nine-point lead in the first extra stanza, but four Duke three-pointers, including a running 30-footer from Blue Devil sophomore Jeff Capel at the buzzer, knotted the score at 95 and forced a second overtime. The clutch shooting of Donald Williams and a steal and basket by Jeff McInnis with under a minute to play sealed Carolina's 102-100, double-overtime win. The 202 points between the two teams were the most points ever scored in a UNC-Duke game.

UNC actually had more turnovers than field goals in the first half and trailed Wake Forest by 14 at halftime, 42-28. The Deacons stretched the lead to 18 (41-23) with 17:23 left in the game before freshman Antawn Jamison ignited the UNC comeback. Jamison had a three-point play at 16:17 to cut the lead to 13, at 15:41 to cut it to 11 and then he followed an Ademola Okulaja three-pointer with another put-back at 12:00 to get the deficit to single digits at 43-35.

Ricky Peral and Tim Duncan scored successive baskets to build the Wake lead back to 12 with 10:56 to play, but from that point on the Tar Heels outscored the Deacons, 30-12. Jeff McInnis scored in the lane, Dante Calabria banked one high off the glass and a layup by Jamison made it six. Wake led by seven with 7:09 to play after a dunk by Duncan, but Carolina then went on a 12-3 tear to take the lead. Okulaja pulled down an offensive board to keep a possession alive which ended with a three from the right corner by Calabria to close within four points. Vince Carter hit a baseline jumper to cut it to one and with 2:24 to play Okulaja buried a three from the left wing for a 56-54 UNC lead.

Tony Rutland hit a three late in the shot clock with 1:49 to play for the Deacons' final lead of the game at 57-56. McInnis stole the ball after a UNC miss and hit a runner in the lane over Duncan to give Carolina the lead for good at 58-57 with 1:09 to play. McInnis and Shammond Williams each made a pair of free throws, with 38 and 15 seconds left, respectively, and Carter capped the scoring with a reverse, alley-oop dunk from McInnis.

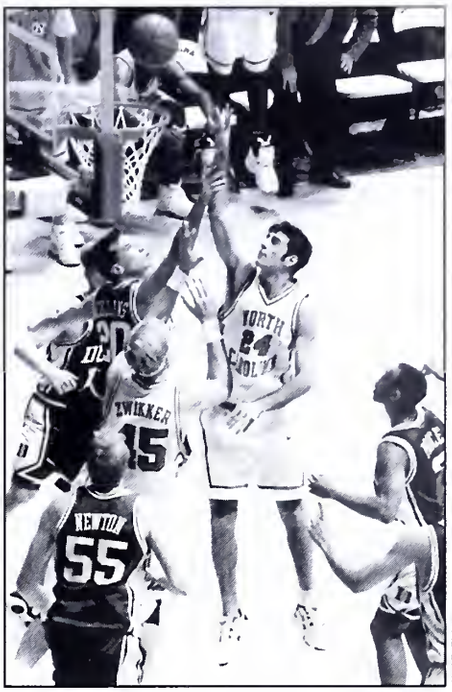
JANUARY 31, 1996

Duke led UNC, 37-20, with 4:32 to play in the opening half and by 12, 42-30, at the half. Carolina pulled within two at 44-42 with 14:14 to play, but the Blue Devils extended the lead to 11 points at 63-52 with 8:44 remaining. A jumper in the lane by Vince Carter, a tip-in by Antawn Jamison and a three-pointer by Shammond Williams trimmed Duke's lead to 63-59 and free throws by Ademola Okulaja and Jeff McInnis narrowed the gap to one. Ricky Price, who scored 20 for Duke, hit a three-pointer with 4:54 to play for a 67-63 advantage.



Karl DeBaker

Dante Calabria's tip-in gave the Tar Heels a 73-72 win over Duke on January 31, 1996. Carolina trailed by 17 points in the first half and by four with 1:13 to play.

The Blue Devils' lead was three when Okulaja grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to make it 69-68 Duke with 1:55 to go. Steve Wojciechowski hit a three-pointer at the top of the circle for a 72-68 Duke lead with 1:13 to play, but Williams countered with a three of his own with 58 seconds left. Duke turned the ball over right in front of the Blue Devil bench, and the Tar Heels nearly returned the favor but a hustling Williams forced a jump ball after a wild scramble near midcourt. Possession favored the Tar Heels, who had one last chance.

McInnis drove into the lane and fed Zwikker

This running jumper with 4.5 seconds left by freshman Ed Cota lifted Carolina to a 45-44 win at NC State on February 12, 1997.

on the low block. Zwikker's shot was deflected by Greg Newton, but Calabria tipped the ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Price's baseline jumper at the buzzer hit the front of the rim and bounced away.

CAROLINA 59, NC STATE 56
JANUARY 15, 1997

The Tar Heels began ACC play with three straight losses for the first time in history and a fourth consecutive loss seemed imminent. Carolina led 36-28 at halftime, but did not score a field goal in the second half until the 8:09 mark and had just two baskets in the first 18 minutes of the second stanza. The Wolfpack led 56-47 with 2:00 to play, but that's when the Tar Heels went on a 12-0 run to finish the game. Antawn Jamison began the rally by forcing a steal in the backcourt and Shammond Williams hit a layup to pull within seven. Williams hit a three-pointer and Jamison added a layup to pull within two points with 50 seconds to play. Trailing by one with 28 seconds left, Carolina fouled and the strategy worked as State missed the front end of a one-and-one. The Tar Heels went ahead for good with 12 seconds to play as Ademola Okulaja fed Jamison on the low block for a layup. Vince Carter stole the inbounds pass after the go-ahead score to secure the win.

FEBRUARY 12, 1997

This 45-44 UNC win is the lowest scoring victory in Dean Smith's 36 years as head coach. The Tar Heels trailed 28-19 at the half and fell behind by 11 moments after halftime. Carolina chipped away at the Pack's lead and pulled within 42-41 with 7:25 to play on a dunk by Antawn Jamison. Neither team scored for the next 5:22 until a Damon Thornton basket gave State a 44-41 advantage. Serge Zwikker scored for UNC to make it 44-43 and, with just two team fouls, Carolina began to foul to send the Pack to the line. With 12.3 seconds to play, however, Jamison forced a turnover right in front of the bench and Carolina got the ball back for one last play. Freshman point guard Ed Cota drove to the left baseline and lofted a soft lob shot which found the net with 4.5 seconds remaining. State's last-gasp shot, a three-pointer from the right wing by Danny Strong, was blocked by Vince Carter.

CAROLINA 72, GEORGIA TECH 68
FEBRUARY 15, 1997

Georgia Tech led 37-30 at the half and built its lead to 59-44 with 7:42 to play in front of a boisterous crowd in Atlanta. Carolina had to play the entire second half without senior center Serge Zwikker, who suffered a concussion in the first half. Shammond Williams and Ademola Okulaja hit three-pointers and UNC pulled within nine points with 6:37 to play. More than three minutes later, the Yellow Jackets lead remained at nine points, 67-58. From that point on, however, the Tar Heels outscored Tech, 14-1. Antawn Jamison hit three free throws, Ed Cota set up Vince Carter and Jamison for layups and the Yellow Jackets lead was down to 67-65. Cota then set up Williams for a go-ahead three from the left corner with 1:12 to play. Tech sank one free throw to tie the game, but Cota calmy sank two free throws with 33 seconds left for the win.

CAROLINA 82, GEORGIA 80 (OT)
DECEMBER 27, 1997

Carolina trailed Georgia, 73-66, in Athens, Ga., but outscored the Bulldogs 7-0 over the final 2:00 in regulation. Vince Carter's jumper and a tip-in by Ademola Okulaja cut the lead to three with 1:44 left. Okulaja hit three straight free throws to tie the game, the final two with just 25.3 seconds remaining. Okulaja then forced a jump ball on Georgia's last-second possession and the game went to overtime. Okulaja hit a three-pointer early in the overtime and Carolina led by five points in the extra period, but the Dawgs tied the game at 80-80 with 31.9 seconds to play. With 3.2 seconds to play, point guard Ed Cota fed Carter for the game-winning basket.

CAROLINA 107, GEORGIA TECH 100 (2OT)
FEBRUARY 8, 1998

The Tar Heels let a seven-point lead slip away in the final minute of regulation, but Shammond Williams put on an awesome three-point shooting display as Carolina prevailed, 107-100, in double-overtime in Atlanta. Williams sent the game to a second overtime with a pair of free throws with six seconds left in the first extra period. In the second OT, Williams scored 12 of his career-high 42 points, including two three-pointers

CAROLINA 74, TENNESSEE 69

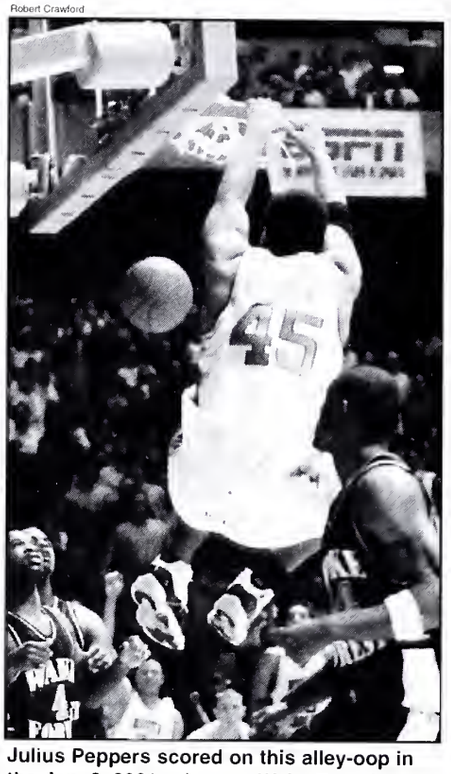
Carolina was unranked for the first time in 10 years and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 8 seed in the South. The inspired Tar Heels faced Tennessee, which came into the game at 26-6 and ranked No. 10 in the nation.

Tennessee led, 39-36, at halftime. The Tar Heels then scored just six points in the first 8:00 of the second half as the Vols extended the lead to 51-42. UT still led by a basket when UNC center Brendan Haywood fouled out with 8:03 left and led, 64-57, with 4:48 left. Freshmen Joseph Forte and Julius Peppers and senior point guard Ed Cota sparked UNC's comeback.

Forte hit a three-pointer and Capel made a steal and layup to make it 64-62 with 3:41 left. Cota drove through the UT defense for a layup to tie the game and followed with a jumper in the lane to give UNC the lead with 1:59 left. Peppers, a starting defensive end on the football team and a walkon basketball player, had four points and five rebounds after Haywood's exit. Forte, Peppers and Cota each hit two free throws in the final 0:34 to cap a 15-3 Tar Heel run and a 74-69 win. Carolina beat Tulsa two days later to send Bill Guthridge to his second Final Four in three years as head coach.

Robert Crawford



Julius Peppers scored on this alley-oop in the Jan. 6, 2001, win over Wake Forest.

CAROLINA 70, WAKE FOREST 69
JANUARY 6, 2001

Brendan Haywood grabbed a loose ball in the lane and scored with 3.3 seconds to play to give the Tar Heels the win over No. 4-ranked and previously undefeated Wake Forest in the Smith Center. Haywood finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds. His basket marked the fourth lead change in the final 1:22 and gave UNC the win.

CAROLINA 85, DUKE 83
FEBRUARY 1, 2001

Matt Doherty's first game against Duke as Carolina's head coach was a classic. Joseph Forte was spectacular with 24 points, 16 rebounds (a UNC record for guards), six assists and three steals. Tthe Tar Heels blistered the Cameron Indoor Stadium nets by shooting 51.5 percent from the floor. Carolina led by as many as 13 in the first half, but Duke took the lead midway through the second half. Ronald Curry scored six straight points in 48 seconds to give the Tar Heels a 63-59 lead. UNC later built a seven-point lead, but the Blue Devils rallied to tie with three seconds to play. On the ensuing inbounds play, Shane Battier fouled Brendan Haywood and the UNC seven-footer hit both free throws with one second left for the win.

- Star for the 1946 Final Four Carolina team

Jim Jordan was a star player who came to Carolina during World War II • He played at Mount St. Mary's College for one year and was the team's captain and leading scorer • The Navy transferred him to the ROTC unit at UNC and he became an immediate star for the Tar Heels, lifting Carolina to a 22-6 record. Jordan was the only unanimous selection to the All-Southern Conference team in 1945 • A good shooter, Jordan also was a solid rebounder, ball-handler and the team's steadiest leader • When Coach Ben Carnevale would put in his second-stringers, he often would leave Jordan in the game to help calm them down • He was a star for the 1946 team that posted a 30-5 record and reached the NCAA finals before losing to Oklahoma A&M • The 1946 season marked Carolina's first NCAA Final Four appearance • Jordan was a second-team All-America choice in 1945.

Had a great career as a Tar Heel, averaging 16.4 points and 10.5 rebounds per game for his career as a forward • Best remembered for a single play, a play that saved an NCAA title • The undefeated 1957 Carolina team was trailing Michigan State, 64-62, in the NCAA semifinals with only 11 seconds remaining in the first overtime period • The Spartans' Johnny Green missed a free throw and Brennan snared the rebound • Instead of making the outlet pass out to a guard as he ordinarily would have done, Brennan raced down court with the ball • Two Michigan State defenders got back to defend, so Brennan pulled up for a jump shot from the foul line • The jumper floated through the net with four seconds remaining, forcing another overtime period • UNC survived, downing the Spartans in triple overtime before subsequently defeating Kansas in triple overtime the next day in the title game of one of the most storied Final Fours in NCAA history • Still ranks 11th in the Tar Heel record books in career rebounds • As a senior in 1958, he led the squad in scoring at a 21.3 clip, earning first-team All-America and ACC Player of the Year honors • Earned All-ACC honors and All-ACC Tournament honors as a senior.

- Two-time All-ACC choice

A playmaking star of the 1957 NCAA champion Tar Heels, Kearns was a clutch performer who had a habit of making the big play • Ranked third on the '57 team in scoring, but was most valuable simply running the team • A great dribbler and driver, his presence made it impossible for opponents to press the Tar Heels • His ability to deliver under pressure was soon apparent in that 32-0 season • In the fourth game of the year, he scored 29 points as the Tar Heels edged South Carolina, 90-86, in double overtime • In a game at Maryland that year, he tied the game with a jumper, forcing overtime, and hit a crucial shot in the second OT to seal the win • Hit two late free throws with 11 seconds left in a 75-73 win over Duke • Had 15 second-half points in a come-from-behind win at Virginia • In a psychological ploy, head coach Frank McGuire let Kearns jump center against Wilt Chamberlin in the 1957 national championship game versus Kansas • A two-time All-ACC selection who went on to be a successful stockbroker on Wall Street • Played a high school basketball coach in the Sean Connery movie Finding Forrester in 2000.

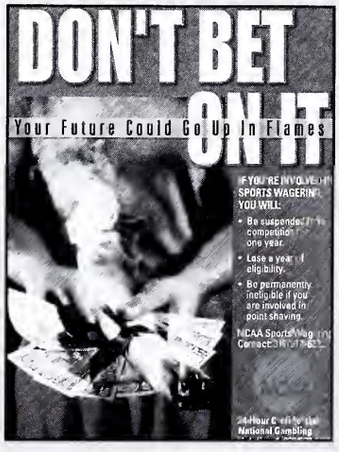
UNC ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

The Department of Athletics has offered high quality athletic programs for many years. Through a dedicated commitment to educational interests, competitive athletic programs, and integrity in all areas, the student-athletes, coaches and staff strive to bring credit and recognition to the University.

The mission of the Department is to sponsor a broad-based athletic program that provides educational and athletic opportunities for young men and women to grow and develop, and to serve the interests of the University by complementing and enhancing its diversity and quality of life. Coaches, as educators, are foundational to this process. In keeping with the University's efforts to offer programs of regional and national acclaim, the Department's athletic programs strive for competitive excellence within the Atlantic Coast Conference or other similar institutions. Through its athletic programs, the University seeks to unite students, faculty, staff and alumni in a common and shared experience. The Department seeks to contribute to the diversity of the University by offering opportunities for enhanced racial/ethnic, cultural and geographic representation.

To fulfill this mission, the Department, with the approval of the Board of Trust, has developed principles of operation to provide guidance and direction to its personnel. This Mission Statement and accompanying principles require strong dedication and commitment from all who participate in, coach in and support the Department of Athletics.



UNC ATHLETICS STATEMENT ON GAMBLING

The mission of the Department of Athletics is to sponsor a broad-based athletic program that provides educational and athletic opportunities for young men and women to grow and develop. In keeping with the Department's mission and the University's commitment to educational interests, competitive athletic programs, and integrity in all areas, the Department of Athletics strongly condemns the influence of gambling on intercollegiate athletics.

Student gambling is a significant issue on college campuses. Student-athlete involvement in gambling has produced many tragic situations, both for student-athletes and the universities they represent. Student-athletes often compete in contests that generate interest from those involved in gambling and, possibly, organized crime. If given the opportunity, those interests will not hesitate to exploit the position student-athletes hold on college campuses. As such, the University of North Carolina is firmly opposed to all forms of gambling and bribery related to intercollegiate athletics.

To fulfill its educational obligation, the Department provides a gambling education program to all its student-athletes and departmental staff members. This statement and the educational program are reflections of the Department's commitment to keeping intercollegiate athletics free from the influences of gambling and its related activities.

The Department requires its staff members and student-athletes to adhere to NCAA, state and federal laws regarding gambling. In the interest of fair competition and the growth and development of student-athletes, the Department strongly urges its friends and supporters to refrain from gambling/betting on contests involving collegiate competition and to abide by state and federal laws.

#35 DOUG MOE

Forward

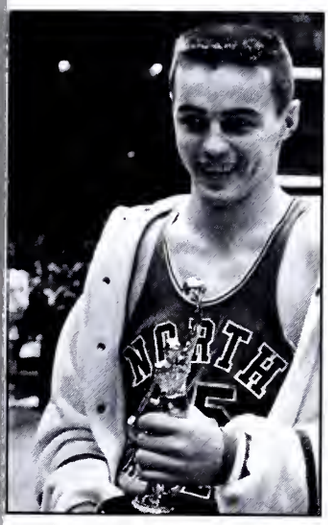
Brooklyn, N.Y.
(Erasmus Hall)

Career rebounding average of 10.6 per contest • Only Billy Cunningham has a better career rebounding average at UNC • In reference to Moe, former NC State coach Everett Case said, "He's the best ... at anything ... that's all there is to it."

Moe Notes
- First-team All-America in 1960-61
- The 1988 NBA Coach of the Year



SENIOR SEASON (1960-61)

Doug Moe averaged 20.4 points and 14.0 rebounds in his final season • Cunningham is also the only Tar Heel to have a better season rebounding average • First-team All-ACC selection and a first-team All-America choice by the Basketball Writers • Selected second-team All-America by Sporting News and Associated Press • In the Dixie Classic his senior year, Duke's Art Heyman exploded for 11 points in the first seven minutes of action • Moe was shifted to guard him and the Blue Devil star had just one basket and two free throws in the remainder of the game • Moe was named tourney MVP as Carolina won, 76-71 • Scored 22 points and snared 18 rebounds in the semifinal versus Villanova.

JUNIOR SEASON (1959-60)

Averaged 16.8 points per game and 11.3 rebounds per game • Helped lead Carolina to a 18-6 overall record and 12-2 in the ACC and an ACC regular season title.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1958-59)

Named Sporting News second-team All-America • First-team All-ACC • Second-team All-ACC Tournament.

AFTER CAROLINA

Moe played in Italy for two years and twice was European Player of the Year • Also a three-time all-star in the ABA and a member of the 1968-69 ABA champion Oakland Oaks • A head coach in the professional ranks for 15 seasons with the San Antonio Spurs, Denver Nuggets and Philadelphia 76ers • Named NBA Coach of the Year with the Nuggets in 1988.

#11 LARRY BROWN

Guard
5-11, 160

Long Beach, N.Y.
(Long Beach)

Larry Brown, an outstanding guard in the early 1960s, was the first Carolina player to compete in the Olympic Games • A fine passer and ball-handler that could score when needed.

Brown Notes
- Member of the 1964 U.S. Olympic team
- Carolina assistant coach from 1965-67
- One of the best coaches in NBA history

SENIOR SEASON (1962-63)

Willingly sacrificed his own scoring numbers to distribute the ball to the future Hall of Famer Billy Cunningham • Brown's scoring average fell slightly, but he was named All-ACC nonetheless • Averaged 14.2 points per game and shot 77.9 percent from the free throw line • Scored a career-high 27 points against Duke • Co-captain of the 1963 UNC squad and led the team to a 15-6 overall record • Vice-President of his class.

JUNIOR SEASON (1961-62)

In Dean Smith's first year as Carolina head coach, Brown led the squad in scoring with a 16.5 average • Made 101 of 127 free-throw attempts for a 79.5 percent average.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1960-61)

Averaged 4.5 points per game and 1.6 rebounds per contest • Shot 51.9 percent from the field and 73.5 percent from the free-throw line • Scored 15 points in 15 minutes against Duke at the Dixie Classic.

AFTER CAROLINA

He was a member of the 1964 U.S. team that won the gold medal in Tokyo, Japan • Came off the bench in the gold medal game versus the Soviet Union and helped to spark a comeback win • Later served as an assistant coach under Dean Smith before becoming a player and three-time all-star in the ABA • Won an NCAA title in 1988 as the head coach at Kansas and is now a successful head coach in the NBA with the Philadelphia 76ers • Assistant coach on the 2000 U.S. Olympic Team • Led the Sixers to the NBA Championship Finals against the Los Angeles Lakers in 2001.

His exceptional leaping ability not only earned him the nickname "The Kangaroo Kid," it also enabled Billy Cunningham to win three ACC rebounding titles in a row • Cunningham remains the third-leading rebounder in Tar Heel history • His career averages at UNC were 24.8 points per game, 15.4 rebounds per game and 47.3 percent shooting from the field • His career scoring average is second-best alltime at UNC, behind only Lennie Rosenbluth's 26.9 career scoring average • Cunningham's 15.4 rebound average is the best all-time at Carolina by almost five rebounds • The second-leading average is Doug Moe's 10.6 • His career 61 games rebounding in double figures is also a Carolina record • Cunningham did not have a single-figure rebounding performance until the 42nd game of his career.

He was on the U.S. Basketball Writers Association All-America team and on the Helms Foundation team his senior year • Named ACC Player of the Year in 1965 and tabbed as Carolina's Most Valuable Player • He was an All-Academic ACC pick • In 1965, the College Sports Information Directors of America also named him to their Academic All-America team • Averaged 25.4 points per game on 49.1 percent shooting from the field • Pulled down 14.3 boards per game • That is the third highest average in a season by a Carolina player • Cunningham scored an amazing 48 points against Tulane, which at the time was the most a UNC player had ever scored, and today still stands as the second-most ever scored in a game by a Tar Heel • His 21 field goals made in that game is the most ever made in one game by a Tar Heel • Also pulled down 25 rebounds in that incredible performance.

JUNIOR SEASON (1963-64)

Named first-team All-ACC Tournament despite the fact the Tar Heels didn't reach the finals • Led the ACC in scoring with 26.0 points per game • That scoring average is the fifth-best season scoring average in Carolina history • Averaged 15.8 rebounds per game, second-highest average all-time at UNC, behind only his sophomore season average • Had one of the great performances in Carolina basketball history against Maryland, when he scored 40 points and pulled down 28 boards • His 28 rebounds versus Maryland were the second most rebounds in a game ever at Carolina • A Look All-America selection by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association • Unanimous All-ACC selection • Selected by the team as Carolina's Most Valuable Player • Rebounded in double figures in 22 out of 24 games played • Had 38 points and 17 rebounds versus Virginia.

Averaged 22.7 points per game and 16.1 rebounds per game • That rebounding average is the highest ever in a single-season at UNC • Had 27 rebounds versus Clemson, the third-most rebounds ever in a game by a Tar Heel • An All-District 3-D selection by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association • He showed off his rebounding prowess in the first game of his career against Georgia as he pulled down 15 boards • Followed that game up with a 18-rebound, 10-point performance versus Clemson • Scored a season-high 33 points to go along with 13 rebounds versus Maryland • Scored 27 points and grabbed 23 rebounds in a win over Virginia • Had 31 points and 16 rebounds at Duke in the final regular season game of the year.

The sharpshooting Bob Lewis played a number of roles during his Tar Heel career and played them all well • As a sophomore and junior, he was called upon to be a major scorer, and despite his 6-3 frame, to play in the frontcourt • Lewis' total of 1,836 points ranks 10th in UNC history • Averaged 22.1 points per game and 6.1 rebounds per game for his Carolina career • Also had a career 77.6 percent free-throw shooting mark.

SENIOR SEASON (1966-67)

As a senior, Lewis moved to his natural guard position • His scoring fell off, but he was surrounded by better talent and the team had a stellar season • Lewis was joined by players such as Dick Grubar, Rusty Clark, Bill Bunting and the high-scoring Larry Miller • Lewis and Miller teamed to be called the "L&M" boys • Lewis' senior year was the beginning of a golden era of Carolina basketball • The Tar Heels made the first of three consecutive NCAA Final Four trips and the first of three straight appearances in the top five of the final national polls that year • Lewis was the MVP of the 1967 East Regional after scoring 31 points against Boston College in the regional championship game • UNC finished the season with a 26-6 overall record and a 12-2 ACC mark • Lewis was an All-America selection by the Helms Foundation • Made the All-ACC Tournament team • First-team All-ACC selection • The Co-Most Valuable Player of the Tampa Invitational after Carolina blew out both Columbia and Florida State.

JUNIOR SEASON (1965-66)

With Billy Cunningham gone to graduation, Lewis was the go-to guy for UNC's scoring in 1966 • The 27.4 points per game he scored as junior marks the second-highest single-season scoring average in Tar Heel history behind only the legendary Lennie Rosenbluth in the 1957 national championship season • Led the ACC in scoring • Lewis scored 49 points versus Florida State on Dec. 16, 1965, the most points ever scored by a UNC player in a single game • Averaged 5.3 rebounds per game and shot 81.0 percent from the line • Selected as a Helms Foundation All-America and an Associated Press second-team All-America • Named first-team All-ACC.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1964-65)

Averaged 21.0 points per game and 8.0 rebounds per game • Formed a dynamic scoring duo with Billy Cunningham, and helped lead Carolina to a 15-9 overall record and a tie for second in the ACC regular season • Played mainly in the frontcourt despite his small stature.

AFTER CAROLINA

Played three seasons with San Francisco and one season with Cleveland in the NBA • Averaged 5.8 points per game for his career • Lewis has worked for the John F. Kennedy Center for Culture in Washington D.C.

Chamberlain Notes
- Second-team All-America in 1971-72
- MVP of the 1971 NIT
- Helped lead UNC to the 1972 Final Four

One of a string of players from the New York City area to play basketball at UNC and the second black scholarship player in Carolina history, following Charles Scott • Known for his quickness and all-around game, Chamberlain finished his career among the Tar Heel leaders in career field goal percentage at 54.0 percent.

SENIOR SEASON (1971-72)

Helped lead Carolina to a 26-5 record and an appearance in the NCAA Final Four • Second-team All-America.

JUNIOR SEASON (1970-71)

Chamberlain was the Tar Heel hero as a junior when Carolina won the 1971 NIT title • When Dennis Wuycik went down with a knee injury in the tournament opener against Massachusetts, he picked up the slack • Hit 10 of 15 shots and scored 24 points versus the Minutemen, while holding the great Julius Erving to just 13 points • Chamberlain had 19 points in the next game against Providence, 10 versus Duke in the semi-final and a career-high 34 in the title game as Carolina routed Georgia Tech, 84-66 • Hit 13 of 18 shots from the field in the championship game while also grabbing 10 rebounds and the tournament MVP award.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1969-70)

Averaged 11.5 points per game on 53.9 percent field goal shooting • Averaged 5.6 rebounds and had 24 assists for the year.

AFTER CAROLINA

Robert McAdoo was the only junior college transfer ever awarded a scholarship by Dean Smith • A Greensboro, N.C. native, he came to Carolina from Vincennes Junior College and immediately stepped into the starting lineup at center • He only played at Carolina one season, but he was a key performer on one of the best teams in school history.

JUNIOR SEASON (1971-72)

Selected as Helms All-America as well as District III All-America • Named NBA Coaches All-America and AP All-America • Helped Carolina to a 26-5 record in 1971-72 • The Tar Heels won the ACC regular-season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Final Four • McAdoo was the leading scorer (19.5 points per game) and rebounder (10.1 boards per contest) on a well-balanced squad that featured five players who scored in double figures • An All-ACC selection and an all-tournament choice at the ACC Tournament • McAdoo was also the MVP of the ACC Tournament • All-Tournament selection at the NCAA East Regional and the Final Four • An excellent shooter for a big man, and his long-range scoring ability cleared out the lane for forwards Dennis Wuycik, Bill Chamberlain and Bobby Jones • Dished out 72 assists and shot 51.6 percent from the field on the year • Played in all 31 games UNC played • In his first game as a Tar Heel, McAdoo hit eight of 10 field goals for 17 points against Rice • In his very next game McAdoo exploded for 27 points and nine rebounds against Pittsburgh • Made the all-tournament teams at the Big Four Tournament and the Sugar Bowl Classic • In a loss to Princeton, he had 20 points and a career-high 18 rebounds • McAdoo set his career-high in points with an explosive performance against N.C. State • Poured in 31 points on 14 of 20 shooting, leading Carolina to a 101-78 win • Other great performances by McAdoo include a 28 point, 17 rebound performance at Clemson and a 28 point, 14 rebound game against Harvard • He saved his best for last though as he shined in the NCAA Tournament • in the Final Four, he collected 24 points and 15 rebounds versus Florida State and then came back to score 30 points and grab 19 rebounds in a win over Louisville • McAdoo had such a tremendous season that Smith suggested he become the first UNC player to enter the draft with college eligibility remaining.

AFTER CAROLINA

McAdoo was the NBA Rookie of the Year for the Buffalo Braves in 1973 and the league's MVP in 1975 • A five-time all-star as a pro, he was a member of the Los Angeles Lakers during the world championship seasons of 1982 and 1985 • Averaged 22.1 points per game and 9.4 rebounds per game during his regular-season NBA career • Averaged 18.3 points and 7.6 rebounds per game in 94 career playoff appearances • Is currently an assistant coach with the Miami Heat • In 2000, he was elected to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

SENIOR SEASON (1973-74)

As a senior in 1974, Jones provided two of the most famous moments in Tar Heel history • In a game at Duke, he stole a Blue Devil inbound pass and dribbled the length of the floor for a layup at the buzzer to give Carolina a 73-71 victory • In the rematch at Carmichael Auditorium, Jones scored four points and had a huge steal in an amazing Tar Heel rally from eight points down with 17 seconds left in regulation • He scored 24 points in the game and UNC won in overtime, 96-92 • Earned All-America honors • Averaged 16.1 points and 9.8 rebounds per game • Also had 80 assists and shot 58.0 percent from the field • Had a huge game against Miami (Ohio), as he collected 29 points, seven rebounds, two assists and shot 14 of 18 from the field • Collected 25 points and 14 rebounds against Clemson, and against Kentucky he had 21 points and 12 rebounds.

JUNIOR SEASON (1972-73)

Jones posted one of the best all-around seasons in Carolina history as a junior, averaging 15.0 points, 10.5 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game • He led the ACC in field goal percentage at a 60.1 percent clip • Had 21 rebounds at home against Duke, to go along with 14 points and three assists • Scored 25 points and had 12 rebounds against Pittsburgh • Collected 18 points and 17 rebounds against Nebraska • Named to the All-Tournament team at the Big Four Tournament and the Rainbow Classic • Jones had a fabulous NIT performance as he was named to the All-NIT Tournament team • At that tournament he had 19 points and 15 rebounds against Oral Roberts and collected 22 points and 10 rebounds versus Notre Dame.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1971-72)

As a sophomore, he rotated in and out of the lineup with Dennis Wuycik and Bill Chamberlain, averaging 10.2 points per game and hitting 66.8 of his field goals, then the ACC single-season record • Also averaged 6.3 rebounds per game and dished out 75 assists • In his first game as a Tar Heel on the varsity squad, Jones recorded a double-double against Rice, scoring 16 points and getting 11 rebounds • had a big game versus Wake Forest, collecting 20 points and 12 rebounds • best game of the season, may have come against Harvard, when he scored 16 points and brought down 14 rebounds • Jones earned a position on the 1972 Olympic Team right after his sophomore season.

AFTER CAROLINA

Named to the NBA All-Defensive First Team eight consecutive years, won the NBA Sixth Man Award in 1983 and was a member of the world champion Philadelphia 76ers in 1983 • Career NBA averages were 11.5 points and 5.5 rebounds • Also had 982 blocks and 1,050 steals • In the ABA Jones averaged 14.9 points and 8.9 rebounds per game • Finalist for induction to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 2000.

He is fifth in UNC history in career rebounds with 1,006 • Kupchak played the game as hard as anyone • He dove for loose balls with abandon despite persistent back pain • Is also eighth in career field goal percentage at 58.6 percent.

SENIOR SEASON (1975-76)

ACC Player of the Year after averaging 17.6 points per game and 11.3 rebounds per game • Led UNC to a 25-4 record • All-America selection • Selected as the team's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Senior • Named both All-ACC and All-ACC Tournament team • Selected Converse All-America, Basketball Coaches All-America, AP All-America second-team and United Press All-America second-team • Shot 57.6 percent from the field and 74.7 percent from the free-throw line • Starting center on the 1976 U.S. Olympic Team, joining fellow Tar Heels Walter Davis, Phil Ford and Tommy LaGarde on the squad coached by UNC head coach Dean Smith and assistant Bill Guthridge • The team won the Gold Medal at Montreal • Gained recognition on UPI's All-Olympic Team as one of the five best players in the entire Games.

JUNIOR SEASON (1974-75)

Kupchak averaged double figures in both points and rebounds in 1975 • Averaged 18.5 points per game and 10.8 rebounds per game • No Tar Heel player had posted a double-figure rebounding average after Kupchak until Antawn Jamison did in 1997-98 • Averaged a team-high 60.2 percent from the field • That percentage was good enough for eighth in the nation • Selected to the Helms All-America team and All-Eastern Regional team • Fourth in the ACC in scoring and third in rebounding • Scored a career-high 36 points against Boston College in the last game of the season • Had 31 points and 10 rebounds in win over Houston • Made 12 of 13 field goals and scored 27 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead UNC to a win over Virginia • He underwent surgery between his junior and senior seasons, forcing him to miss the 1975 Pan Am Games • Dean's List student.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1973-74)

Kupchak was an alternate starter this season • Averaged 10.7 points per game and 7.1 rebounds per game • Shot 56.2 percent from the field • Scored 20 points in win at Virginia • Helped lead Carolina to a 22-6 overall record • Made the Dean's List as well that year • Played on the World University team in the summer of 1973.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1972-73)

Kupchak was the first freshman to play basketball at Carolina after the freshman eligibility rule went into effect prior to the 1972-73 season • He was a top reserve that year, averaging 7.7 points per game and 5.0 rebounds per game • Shot 60.4 percent from the floor • Scored 24 points against Wake Forest • Came off the bench against Louisville in the Rainbow Classic to score 16 points and spark UNC to victory • Scored in double figures on nine occasions • Pulled down 165 rebounds and dished out 34 assists • Made Dean's List.

AFTER CAROLINA

Kupchak went on to a successful professional career, playing on three NBA championship teams with the Washington Bullets and Los Angeles Lakers • Career NBA averages were 10.2 points per game and 5.4 rebounds per game, along with a 52.3 percent field goal percentage • He has worked in the Lakers' front office since the 1986-87 season, helping to put together Laker teams that won world titles in 1987, 1988, 2000 and 2001 • In August 2000, he was took over leadership of the Laker front office after Jerry West retired.

He is 10th in Carolina history in career field goal percentage at 58.3 percent • Is one of 50 Carolina players to score over 1,000 points in his career • Averaged 9.9 points per game and 5.3 rebounds per game in his UNC career • An excellent student, LaGarde was a two-time Academic All-America, Dean's List student and Rhodes Scholar candidate.

SENIOR SEASON (1976-77)

One of the biggest "what ifs" in Carolina basketball history surrounds Tommy LaGarde. The Tar Heels were perhaps the hottest team in the nation midway through the 1976-77 season when LaGarde tore ligaments in his knee against Maryland and missed the remainder of the season • Carolina still reached the NCAA finals, but without LaGarde and with Phil Ford and Walter Davis hampered by injuries, the Tar Heels could not defeat Marquette in the championship game • Despite missing over a third of the season, LaGarde was still named second-team All-ACC and Sporting News second-team All-America after averaging 15.1 points and 7.4 rebounds and hitting 59.3 percent of his field goals before the injury. • He also used his quickness and 6-10 size to form an imposing presence in the Tar Heel defense • Averaged 78.2 percent shooting from the free-throw line • Had an outstanding performance in the Big Four tournament, making the All-Tournament team • Made the All-Tournament team at the Far West Classic.

JUNIOR SEASON (1975-76)

La Garde led the ACC in field goal percentage at 61.2 percent and was second in free throw percentage with an 80.9 mark • Averaged 14.4 points per game and 7.6 rebounds per game • LaGarde joined fellow Tar Heels Walter Davis, Phil Ford and Mitch Kupchak on the gold-medal-winning 1976 U.S. Olympic team coached by UNC head coach Dean Smith and Carolina assistant Bill Guthridge. Started every game of the season • Helped lead Carolina to a 25-4 record overall and a 12-2 record in ACC play • Collected 221 rebounds, 24 assists, 15 blocks and 26 steals • Scored in double figures 23 times • Opened up the season with a 20-point, nine-rebound performance in a win over Howard • Scored 24 points in a narrow victory over South Florida • In that game he hit all eight of his free throws and went 10 for 12 from the field along with 15 rebounds • Scored 22 points and grabbed 11 rebounds against Alabama in the final game of the season.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1974-75)

Starter for most of the season • averaged 7.7 points per game and 4.6 rebounds per game • Played on the U.S. Continental Cup Team in the summer of 1975 as well as the U.S. Pan-Am Team • Hit 52.9 percent of his shots from the field • Scored 18 points against Howard University • had 16 points and four assists in Carolina's win at Maryland • Scored 17 points in a losing cause at N.C. State and hit 13 of 18 field goals in the two games against the Wolfpack • Collected 16 points and 11 rebounds versus East Tennessee State • Had 12 points and 10 rebounds against Kentucky • Had 12 points and seven rebounds in the second round of the NCAA Tournament versus Syracuse.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1973-74)

Appeared in 22 of 28 games as he got limited playing time in a crowded frontcourt • Had 34 rebounds, an impressive statistic, considering the lack of playing time • Hit 55.6 percent of his shots from the field • Had season-high 12 points to go along with seven rebounds against Florida State • Appeared in two games with the junior varsity as well • Made the Dean's List.

LaGarde Notes
- Second-team All-America in 1976-77
- A two-time NBA All-Star
- Two-time Academic All-America
- Member of the 1976 gold medal-winning U.S. Olympic Team

AFTER CAROLINA

He played six seasons in the NBA and was a member of the 1978-79 world champion Seattle SuperSonics • Averaged 7.6 points per game and 5.1 rebounds per game in his NBA career • Also blocked 131 shots • Played for four different teams – Denver, Seattle, Dallas and New Jersey.

A tremendous all-around player, Walter Davis, or "Sweet D" as Tar Heel fans called him, had a superb career at Carolina • One of college basketball's most underrated players, Davis shared the spotlight with Bobby Jones, Mitch Kupchak, Tommy LaGarde, Phil Ford and Mike O'Koren • Ranks ninth in career scoring at Carolina with 1,863 points, 20th in rebounds with 670 and 12th in assists with 409 • Holds a career field goal average of 53.1 percent and hit 77.3 percent of his free throws • Played on Tar Heel teams that posted a 98-23 record • Hit one of the most famous shots in Carolina history, a 35-foot jumper at the buzzer which capped an incredible eight-point rally in the final seconds against Duke in 1974 • Was a member of the 1976 U.S. Olympic basketball team.

SENIOR SEASON (1976-77)

Scored in double figures in 27 games and reached 20 or more points seven times • Named to the All-ACC first team • Named to the second team All-ACC Tournament team • Averaged 15.5 points and 5.7 rebounds per game • Suffered a broken finger on his shooting hand during the 1977 ACC Tournament but still starred in the NCAA Tournament with 21 points against Kentucky, 19 against UNLV in the national semifinals and 20 versus Marquette in the national title game • Scored a season-high 27 points against Georgia Tech, going nine for 12 from the field and nine of 12 from the foul line • Scored 25 or more points in three consecutive contests, 27 against Georgia Tech, 25 versus Furman and 25 against Maryland • Had five double-doubles.

JUNIOR SEASON (1975-76)

Named second-team All-ACC and second-team All-ACC Tournament • Averaged 16.6 points per game • Had a team-high 71 steals • Scored in double figures 28 of 29 times • Had a season-high 26 points in win at Tulane.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1974-75)

Averaged 16.1 points per game, good for third on the squad • Was second on the team in rebounds with 195 and second in assists with 137 • Matched his career high with 31 points against Wake Forest in the opening round of the ACC Tournament • Hit 11 of 15 field goal attempts against the Deacons, grabbed 12 rebounds and handed out six assists • Hit 22 of 33 attempts from the floor in the ACC Tournament • Held National Player of the Year David Thompson to seven for 21 shooting in the ACC final • scored in double figures 29 of 31 games.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1973-74)

Became a starter midway through the season and averaged 14.3 points per game and shot 50 percent from the field • Ensured his spot in the annals of the greatest plays in Tar Heel history when he banked in a 35-foot shot at the buzzer against Duke in Carmichael Auditorium, tying the score and helping Carolina rally from an eight-point deficit in the game's final 17 seconds • Led by Davis' 31 points, UNC went on to win the game in overtime in one of the most famous installments in college basketball's best rivalry.

AFTER CAROLINA

Was the fifth selection in the 1977 NBA draft by the Phoenix Suns • Spent 11 seasons with the Suns and still ranks as the team's all-time leading scorer with 15,666 points • Played four more seasons with Denver and Portland and finished his career with 19,521 points • Retired as the 17th-leading scorer in NBA history and still ranks as the 26th-best scorer of all-time • Michael Jordan is the only former ACC player with more points • Won 1978 Rookie of the Year honors in a landslide and was the only rookie to be selected to the NBA All-Star Game • Made 51.1 percent of his field goal attempts and 85.1 percent of his free throw attempts during his 15-year career • Was a second-team All-NBA selection in 1978 and 1979 • Helped his teams reach the NBA playoffs 10 times • Had an 18.6 scoring average in playoff competition, shooting 49.6 percent from the field • Had statistically the best shooting night in NBA history during the 1982-83 season when he went 15-for-15 from the floor and six-for-six from the line in a win over Seattle.

O'Koren Notes
- Three-time first-team All-America
- Assistant coach with the New Jersey Nets of the NBA
- Four-year starter from 1977-80

SENIOR SEASON (1979-80)

Averaged 14.7 points per game and 7.4 rebounds on the way to his third straight All-America season • Also led Carolina in assists from his forward position for the second straight year • Helped the Tar Heels to their sixth straight NCAA Tournament berth.

JUNIOR SEASON (1978-79)

O'Koren had one of his greatest games in a home court win over Duke as a junior, notching a career-high 20 rebounds, 17 points, seven assists and four steals while holding Duke star Gene Banks scoreless in the second half of a 74-68 UNC victory • An All-ACC Tournament selection, he poured in 18 points and 8 rebounds in an ACC Championship victory over Duke • Finished the season with averages of 14.8 points and 7.2 rebounds • O'Koren was only named second team all conference despite making first team All-America • Went on to co-captain the 1979 U.S. Pan American Games team that captured the gold medal in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1977-78)

Won All-America honors for the first time while posting a career-best 17.3 points per game scoring average • Helped lead the Tar Heels to a third straight first-place finish in the ACC regular season • Named first team All ACC • Equaled his career scoring high with 31 points against Virginia Tech.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1976-77)

Had a sensational freshman year, with averages of 13.9 points per game on 57.7 percent shooting and 6.6 rebounds • Had 15 points and made 4 steals in his first game • Scored 21 points in the ACC Tournament final against Virginia to lead the Tar Heels to a 75-69 victory • Poured in a career-high 31 points against UNLV in the NCAA Final Four, hitting 14 of 19 shots from the field, as Carolina edged the Running Rebels by a single point • Was an all-tournament selection at both the ACC Tournament and NCAA Final Four • Helped the injury-decimated Tar Heels make an improbable run to the national championship game, where they lost to Marquette.

AFTER CAROLINA

O'Koren played eight seasons in the NBA with the New Jersey Nets and Washington Bullets • He is now an assistant coach with the Nets.

Worthy Notes
- National Player of the Year led Carolina to the national title in 1981-82
- A seven-time NBA All-Star
- Named one of the NBA's best 50 players of all-time in 1997
- MVP of the 1982 ACC Tournament, the NCAA East Regional and the NCAA Final Four

A starter from the beginning of his freshman year, he averaged 14.5 points per game and 7.4 rebounds per contest in an 84-game Tar Heel career • Led Carolina to two national championship appearances, winning in 1982 behind his 28-point effort • Worthy is one of just seven UNC players to have his jersey number retired.

JUNIOR SEASON (1981-82)

As Carolina defeated Georgetown to win the national championship in 1982, James Worthy led the way, scoring 28 points on 13 for 17 shooting in the 63-62 victory over the Hoyas • He was named MVP of the ACC Tournament, the NCAA East Regional and the NCAA Final Four • First-team All-America choice by a unanimous vote • Named co-National Player of the Year by the Helms Foundation • Won the McKevlin Award as the ACC Athlete of the Year • Selected first-team All-ACC • Started the season off on a great note, scoring 23 points and grabbing nine rebounds against Kansas • Scored a season-high 26 points against Kentucky and scored 24 points on 12 for 14 shooting at Georgia Tech • Had a sensational ACC Tournament as he had 15 points and 10 rebounds in the semifinal against NC State and in the final he scored 16 points in a win over Virginia.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1980-81)

Helped lead UNC to the national championship game against Indiana • Averaged 14.2 points per game, 8.2 rebounds per game and had a 50.0 percent field goal percentage • Was third in the ACC in rebounding and second on the team in assists with 100, and steals with 48 • Second-team All-ACC and all-district • Named to the all-tournament team at the Great Alaska Shootout • Scored 17 points and had 13 rebounds against Georgetown in that tourney • Scored 26 points against Duke in the opening round of the Big Four Tournament, as he was named to the all-tournament team • Named to All-ACC Tournament team after scoring 19 points and pulling down eight rebounds in the championship game against Maryland • Made the all-tournament team in the NCAA West Regional after notching 15 points, 10 rebounds and six assists against Utah.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1979-80)

Worthy missed the second half of his freshman year with a broken ankle and ended up playing only 14 games • Averaged 12.5 points and 7.4 rebounds per game and started all 14 games he played in • Shot 58.7 percent from the field • Had his best game against Detroit, collecting 24 points, 16 rebounds and six assists • Followed that performance up with an 18-point, nine rebound effort the next game at Indiana.

AFTER CAROLINA

Worthy passed up his final year of eligibility to become the first player selected in the 1982 NBA draft, chosen by the Los Angeles Lakers • He went on to become a seven-time All-Star in the NBA, playing on world championship teams with the Lakers in 1985, 1987 and 1988 • Named the Most Valuable Player of the 1988 NBA Finals against Detroit after registering a triple-double in game seven, collecting 36 points, 16 rebounds and ten assists • Earned the nickname "Big Game James" for his great performances in the playoffs • Averaged 21.1 points per game in his playoff career • Seven-time all-star and was named one of the 50 greatest players in the history of the NBA in 1996 • Retired from the NBA in the fall of 1994 • Finalist for induction to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 2000 • Worthy is a basketball analyst for CBS Sports.

JUNIOR SEASON (1983-84)

In 1984, Jordan led the ACC in scoring with 19.4 points per game and was subsequently named ACC Player and Athlete of the Year • Unanimous selection for National Player of the Year and first-team All-America • Named the team's Most Outstanding Defensive Player and was UNC's Co-MVP along with Sam Perkins • Averaged 5.3 rebounds per outing and shot 77.9 percent form the free throw line, and 55.1 percent shooting from the field • Averaged 22.7 points over the last 12 games • Also had 64 assists and 50 steals on the season • Was a USBWA District All-American as well as being selected to the NABC District All-America Team • First-team All-ACC and second Team All-ACC Tournament • Led UNC to a 28-3 record overall and 14-0 in the ACC • Carolina started off the season 21-0 • Scored 28 points in the second game of the season versus UT Chattanooga • Recorded 18 points and 12 rebounds at NC State • Scored a season-high 32 points at home in the second game against the Wolfpack • Jordan's best game of the season may have come against LSU, where he poured in 29 points on 12 for 18 shooting from the field and hauled down 11 boards • Scored 21 points and 12 rebounds at Maryland • Against Duke in his final home game, he scored 25 points and had four rebounds and three assists • Led the U.S. Olympic team to a Gold Medal in the summer of 1984, as he was the team's leading scorer.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1982-83)

Jordan was famous at Carolina for providing late-game heroics that engineered Tar Heel victories • Besides the NCAA title game heroics, he led a momentous comeback against Virginia in 1983, clinching the game with a last-minute steal and dunk • Virginia was up by 10 with four minutes left to play, and Jordan led Carolina to the comeback win as UNC scored the last 11 points of the game • Jordan hit a basket to put Carolina within one, with one minute left, and then got the steal and dunk to win the game • As a sophomore, he also sent a game versus Tulane into overtime with a steal and a long jumper at the end of regulation as UNC went on to win in triple overtime • Named National Player of the Year by the Sporting News • Selected first-team All-ACC • Averaged 20.0 points per game and 5.5 rebounds per game • Shot 53.5 percent from the field • dished out 56 assists and had 78 steals on the season • His 721 points is the fifth most ever scored in one season at Carolina • Selected to the USBWA All-America team as well as the NABC District All-America team • Made the All-Tournament team at the Rainbow Classic after collecting 22 points and eight rebounds against Oklahoma and then following that up with a 19-point performance versus Missouri • Scored a career-high 39 points on 11 for 16 shooting from the field against Georgia Tech • Beat Duke at Carmichael Auditorium, scoring 32 points on 13 for 19 shooting in the 103-82 Carolina win • The next game against Duke, Jordan equaled his 32-point output, and led UNC to another blowout win over Duke, this time at Cameron Indoor Stadium • Named by the team as Carolina's Co-MVP for the season • Led Carolina to a 28-8 overall record • Was the leading scorer on the 1983 U.S. Pan American Games team, which won the gold medal in the summer.

SENIOR SEASON (1983-84)

A consensus All-America and National Player of the Year finalist, Perkins averaged 17.6 points and 9.6 rebounds while shooting 58.9 percent from the floor and 85.6 percent from the charity stripe • Named first-team All-ACC for the third consecutive season • Named MVP of the Stanford Invitational and the ECAC Holiday Festival, while helping lead the Tar Heels to an undefeated ACC regular season, a 28-3 record, and the No. 1 final ranking in the AP and UPI polls • Perkins lit up Virginia's University Hall for 27 points and 11 rebound in a Tar Heel victory, and posted 26 points and 12 rebounds in a win over No. 5 Maryland in College Park • Joined teammate Michael Jordan on the 1984 United States Olympic Team, winning a gold medal at the Los Angeles games.

JUNIOR SEASON (1982-83)

Perkins averaged 16.9 points and 9.4 rebounds and was a first team All-America and All-ACC • Posted a career scoring high of 36 points in a 101-95 victory over Ralph Sampson's Virginia Cavaliers in Charlottesville, and helped carry the Tar Heels to their second straight first-place finish in the ACC regular season race • Carolina reached the regional finals of the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive season before being upset by the Georgia Bulldogs • Perkins played with the gold-medal-winning U.S. Team at the 1983 Pan-American games.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1981-82)

Perkins capped his first All-America season by helping Carolina to the 1982 NCAA Championship, averaging 14.3 points per game and 7.8 rebounds on a Tar Heel squad that began and finished the season ranked No. 1 in the nation • Was first team All-ACC • Named to the All-Tournament teams at the NCAA East Regional and Final Four, notching 25 points and 10 rebounds in a matchup with Houston's Hakeem Olajuwon in the semifinals • The Tar Heels won their second consecutive ACC Tournament championship and won the ACC regular season crown with a 12-2 record.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1980-81)

Perkins was the ACC Rookie of the Year and MVP of the 1981 ACC Tournament • Averaged 14.9 points and 7.8 rebounds on a team that reached the NCAA Finals and won the ACC Championship • Was named to the NCAA West Regional All-Tournament team • Came to Carolina as a McDonald's High School All-America, after having played only two full seasons of organized high school basketball.

AFTER CAROLINA

Drafted fourth overall by the Dallas Mavericks in 1984, Perkins was named to the NBA All-Rookie team in 1984-85 • Led Dallas to the playoffs in five of his six seasons as a Maverick, including the Western Conference Finals in 1987-88 • Perkins helped guide three teams to the NBA Finals: the Los Angeles Lakers (1991), Seattle (1996) and Indiana (2000) • Played 17 years in the NBA.

J.R. Reid came to Carolina as one of the most heralded high school stars in the nation and lived up to his advance billing. He is fifth in career field goal percentage at UNC, with a 60.1 mark, was the ACC Rookie of the Year in 1987, and in his junior season led the Tar Heels to the ACC Tournament Championship, their first in seven years

Reid missed the first nine games of his junior year with a foot injury, but fought back valiantly • While his numbers weren't as high as during his sophomore season, he became a better all-around player • Was the MVP of the 1989 ACC Tournament, scoring 48 points and playing sensational defense over the three games as Carolina won its first conference title since 1982 • Reid's defense was essential to the Tar Heel effort in an epic win over Duke in the final • Scored his season high of 26 against eventual NCAA champion Michigan in the Southeast Regional • Named to the NCAA Tournament all-regional team for the third consecutive year.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1987-88)

Reid was a consensus All-America in 1988, the fifth UNC sophomore so honored • Averaged 18.0 points and 8.9 rebounds, while shooting 60.7 percent from the field • Selected to the U.S. Olympic Team for the 1988 games in Seoul, South Korea • Helped lead the Tar Heels to a first-place finish in the ACC regular season, the NCAA Final Eight, and a final national ranking of seventh in the AP poll.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1986-87)

The 1987 ACC Rookie of the Year, Reid scored 528 points and snared 268 rebounds while helping the Tar Heels to an undefeated ACC regular season and the finals of the NCAA East Regional • Reid twice scored 31 points in a game that season, hitting 13 of 14 field goals against N.C. State and going 15 of 18 from the floor in the NCAA Tournament versus Notre Dame • During one stretch of the year, he hit 35 of 40 field goal attempts • Was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated with a dunk against Wake Forest.

AFTER CAROLINA

Reid became the fourth Carolina player to enter the NBA draft with college eligibility remaining • Was the fifth pick overall of the 1989 NBA draft, going to the Charlotte Hornets • Currently playing professionally in Europe after a lengthy career in the NBA.

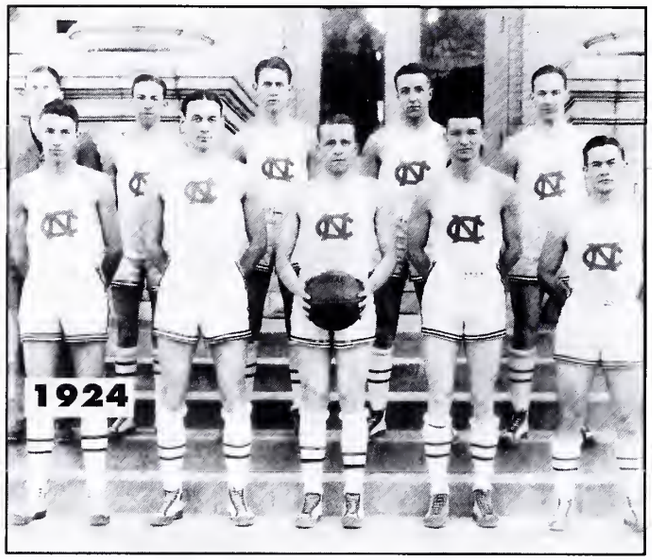
1924 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS/1946 FINAL FOUR

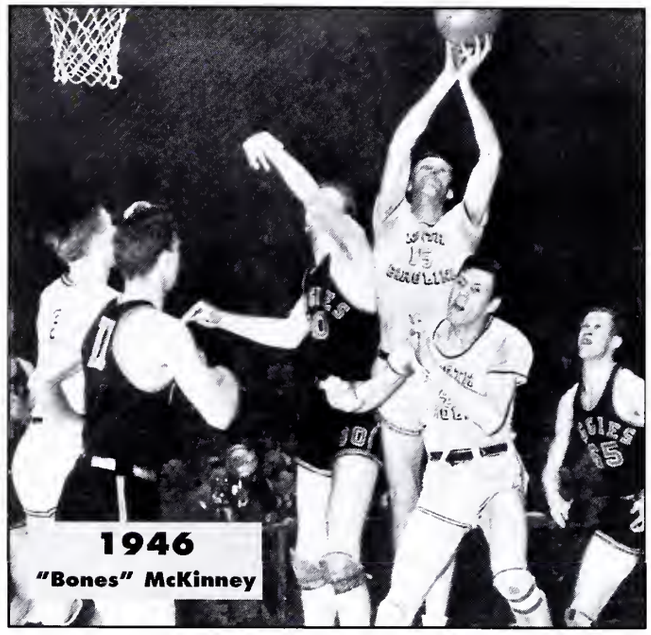


The first of Carolina's national championships came long before the term "March Madness" became an annual rite of spring. In fact, when Carolina won the 1924 national championship with a 26-0 record, there wasn't even an NCAA Tournament.

The Helms Foundation voted the Tar Heels as national champions after their perfect season, as there was no post-season tournament. Carolina defeated Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and Alabama en route to the Southern Conference championship.

Cartwright Carmichael, Jack Cobb, Bill Dodderer and Monk McDonald led the Tar Heel squad directed by first-year coach Norman Shepard. Carolina played its home games in the Indoor Athletic Center, also known as the Tin Can.

The championship season was also Shepard's last at the helm of the Tar Heels, as McDonald took over as head coach the following season. McDonald was the only former UNC player to coach the Tar Heels until Matt Doherty returned to Chapel Hill to take over in 2000-01.



North Carolina made the first of its NCAA record 15 Final Four appearances in 1946 under the direction of second-year head coach Ben Carnevale. Still known as the White Phantoms, UNC was led by All-America guard Jim Jordan, All-America forward John "Hook" Dillon and the legendary Horace "Bones" McKinney.

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record and had impressive regular-season wins at NYU and against previously unbeaten Navy. The Phantoms were beaten by Wake Forest, however, in the semifinals of the Southern Conference Tournament, 31-29. Despite Duke winning the league's postseason title, the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal and the Phantoms faced elimination as Dillon and guard Jim White fouled out with 10 and eight minutes to play, respectively. McKinney, a 27-year-old Durham native, led Carolina to a 57-49 win, however, with 11 points. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

Dillon and Washington native Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds left to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game. Seven-foot center Big Bob (Foothills) Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies. Carolina trailed only 36-33 when McKinney fouled out. A&M then built a 43-34 advantage. Dillon scored 16 points in the title game for UNC.

Carolina finished the year 30-5. Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia, led Carolina in scoring with 12.9 points per game. He earned his nickname because of the accuracy of his favorite shot, a hook shot. He was brilliant in the NCAA Tournament as he scored 16, 15 and 16 points in the three games.

Jordan, who was transferred to Carolina for ROTC by the Navy, was second on the squad with 389 points.

1957 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo.

Lennie Rosenbluth

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national championship was Chamberlain.

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA championship.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and the NCAA tournament berth. Three of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

The next Final Four appearance for the Tar Heels came under McGuire's replacement, Dean Smith, who began his Final Four legacy in 1967.

Larry Miller

It was the dawn of a new era. The year was 1967. A young head coach had brought a proud program back to the forefront of college basketball as Dean Smith's Tar Heels traveled to Louisville, Ky. for the program's first Final Four since the 1957 NCAA championship.

The lineup included one of Smith's best recruiting classes with five sophomores playing in the eight-man rotation. It was junior forward Larry Miller, though, who was the bread and butter of the Carolina squad. Miller's 22.5 points per game and clutch play throughout the season earned him ACC Player of the Year honors and led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record and the ACC title.

Carolina reached the Final Four via a 96-80 victory over Boston College in the Eastern Regional final with a lineup that hit its opposition from every angle. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned Eastern Regional Most Valuable Player honors with 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and sophomore center Rusty Clark snagged 18 rebounds to go with 18 points.

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals. Carolina couldn't overcome the dominant play of Flyer forward Don May, who scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark and Miller had strong outings in the loss, as Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

Though Carolina left Louisville without a win, the '67 Final Four proved to be the jumpstart to one of the greatest carecrs in college athletics. The Smith dynasty had officially begun as he went on to lead the Tar Heels to 11 Final Fours and two national championships.

The 1968 Final Four had a familiar feel to it as three teams from '67 were back in the semifinals. UCLA took on Houston for the second year in a row and Carolina faced another upstart team from Ohio. This time, however, the Tar Heels faced Ohio State to get to the title game.

Carolina beat the Buckeyes, 80-66, to advance to the championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and senior guard Larry Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the Most Valuable Player at the ACC Tournament.

Carolina played the defending champion UCLA Bruins for the NCAA championship. The Bruins were led by legendary coach John Wooden and National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor. The game was played in the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

Miller had 14 points and six rebounds, but that wasn't enough for Carolina to overcome the Bruins, who won their fourth championship in five years, 78-55. Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins.

1969 FINAL FOUR/1972 FINAL FOUR

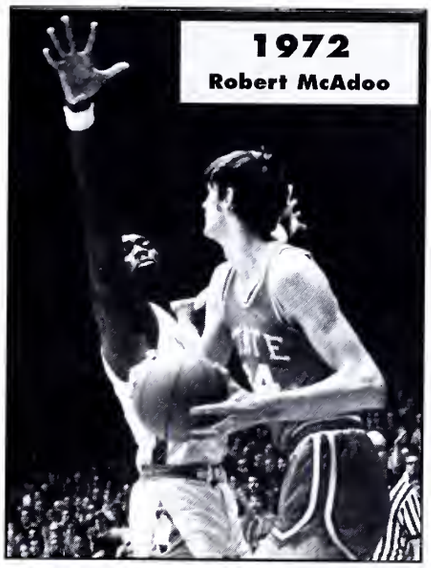
The 1969 Tar Heels didn't miss a beat despite losing two-time ACC Player of the Year Larry Miller to graduation. Junior guards Charles Scott and Eddie Fogler combined with seniors Rusty Clark, Bill Bunting and Dick Grubar to make up for Miller's absence and lead Carolina to its third consecutive Final Four.

Scott, fresh off of winning a gold medal with the 1968 U.S. Olympic team, earned first-team All-America honors with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game.

Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils, 85-74.

Carolina defeated Duquesne and Lefty Driesell's Davidson Wildcats in the NCAA tournament to advance to the national semifinal against Purdue. Scott was again the hero of both tournament victories as he had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson. His game-winning shot as time expired (see photo above) gave the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Davidson to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount and Bill Keller combined for 56 points to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory over the Tar Heels in the semi-finals.



Dean Smith's 1972 Tar Heels had a different feel from Carolina Final Four teams of years past. There was no Lennie Rosenbluth, Larry Miller or Charlie Scott to dominate the headlines with overwhelming individual performances. Instead, the '72 squad hit the opposition with a deep and balanced attack.

Center Robert McAdoo, a junior college transfer, and sharp-shooting senior forward Dennis Wuycik led five Carolina players in double figure scoring for the season.

The Tar Heels had earned their NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over the Maryland Terrapins in the ACC Championship. That win avenged an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Wuycik added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuycik (18), McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) then each outscored Penn's leading scorer in a 73-59 win to send UNC to the Final Four.

Carolina lost the national semifinal to Florida State, 79-75, after falling behind by 13 points at the half. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but the rest of the squad made just 19 of 51 shots from the floor against the Seminoles. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

McAdoo became the first underclassmen from Carolina to declare early for the NBA Draft. He went on to earn NBA MVP honors in 1975.

Sophomore forward Bobby Jones earned a spot on the 1972 Olympic team and flourished in the NBA, earning All-Defensive First Team honors for eight consecutive years. He earned the NBA sixth-man award as a member of the 1983 World Champion Philadelphia 76ers.

Karl has gone on to a successful coaching career. He is currently the head coach of the Milwaukee Bucks.

1977 FINAL FOUR/1981 FINAL FOUR

The 1977 season was one of the most memorable in Dean Smith's career. The Tar Heels overcame a litany of injuries to key players to advance to the Final Four, but lost to Marquette, 67-59, in the national championship game.

Senior forward Walter Davis was one of the best shooters in the country, Phil Ford ran the point to perfection, and forward Mike O'Koren was one of the top freshmen in the country.

The Tar Heels' road to the Final Four was not an easy one. Senior center Tommy LaGarde injured his knee in February and was lost for the rest of the season. Davis broke his finger in the ACC Tournament and Ford hyperextended his elbow in the NCAA Tournament. Still, the Tar Heels advanced to the championship game.

Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels to a 69-66 win over Purdue in the first round. Davis did not play against the Boilermakers.

Then, on St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed by 14 in the second half of the regional semifinal against Notre Dame. John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 victory.

Despite the broken finger, Davis made 7 of 11 shots from the floor en route to 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final. Kuester filled in for Ford and hit 13 of 14 free throws en route to victory.

Carolina faced high-powered UNLV in the national semifinal. The Rebels led 49-43 at the half, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds and Davis, who made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19 points), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

Davis and O'Koren had 20 and 14 points, respectively, but Ford's injured elbow limited him to a 3 for 10 night from the field.

Carolina lost to Ralph Sampson and Virginia twice during the 1981 regular season, as Sampson averaged 23 points and a dozen rebounds. However, the Tar Heels exacted their revenge in the Final Four.

Carolina was sent west by the NCAA committee, despite winning the ACC Tournament. The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and foue blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

Then it was on to Philadelphia and only Sampson and the Cavaliers stood in the Tar Heels' way of a return trip to the national finals.

It was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Cavaliers and ACC Tournament champion Tar Heels — a clash between outstanding front lines as Carolina matched Sampson with a dominant frontcourt of forwards James Worthy and Al Wood and Perkins.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight's Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Sophomore point guard Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

The Tar Heels shot just 43 percent from the floor and committed 19 turnovers.

1982 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers The Shot. It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael Jordan.

Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate. He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory. It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. Throughout the game, Worthy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal victory over Houston. Sam Perkins had 25 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro. Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels using a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.

Top-ranked and top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes, 52-50, in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

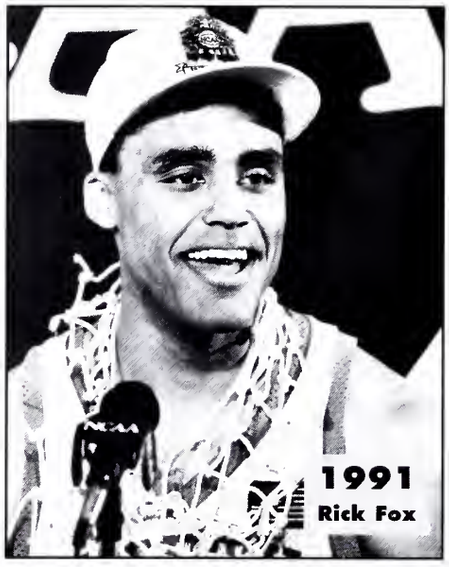
1991 FINAL FOUR



Rick Fox was born in Toronto, grew up playing softball in the Bahamas and played high school basketball in Indiana. So, it may seem a little strange that he ended up donning Carolina Blue for Dean Smith.

But, it just so happens that Fox watched Carolina as a boy and saw Michael Jordan seal the deal on the 1982 national championship. From that moment on, he knew he wanted to be a Tar Heel. In 1991, the senior forward led Carolina back to the Final Four for the first time since Jordan's celebrated shot.

Fox was joined in the starting lineup by seniors Pete Chilcutt (center) and King Rice (point guard), junior guard Hubert Davis and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Dean Smith's eighth trip to the Final Four pitted him against his former assistant, third-year Kansas head coach Roy Williams.

The Tar Heels reached the Final Four as the number one seed in the East Region after crushing Duke, 96-74, in the ACC Championship game. Carolina then cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double-digit margins.

Carolina then beat Temple, 75-72, in the Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon made 12 of 23 shots and had 31 points, and missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

1993 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal— Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the "Fab Five," had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn't have been any farther apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team — talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fastbreak layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first, but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost, 79-78, courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas setup a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half and the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson's driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese's dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

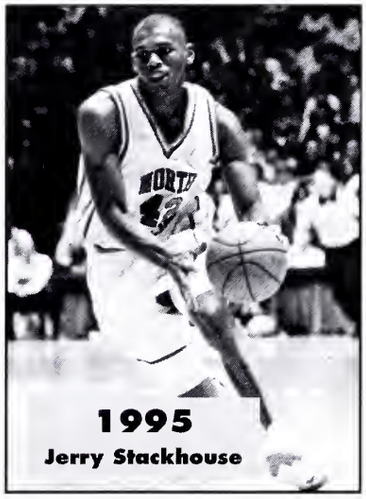
1995 FINAL FOUR/1997 FINAL FOUR



Two years after winning the national championship, the Tar Heels were back in the Final Four. This time, sophomores Rasheed Wallace, Jeff McInnis and Sports Illustrated Player of the Year Jerry Stackhouse were the focal point of the team.

Carolina, Wake Forest, Virginia and Maryland were consistently Top 10 teams throughout the season, and UNC earned the number two seed in the Southeast Region after losing 82-80 in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and the Demon Deacons in a classic ACC championship game.

Earlier in the season, Carolina beat Duke in what many consider to be the greatest game between the Tobacco Road rivals. Dean Smith took his Tar Heels into Cameron Indoor Stadium in on Feb. 2 and left after 50 minutes of basketball with a 102-100 victory in double-overtime. Duke rallied from a 17-point first half deficit to take a nine-point second half lead, only to see the Tar Heels come back and extend the game to overtime.

The Tar Heels appeared to have won the game by scoring the first nine points of overtime, but the Blue Devils forced a second overtime with a 30-foot shot by Jeff Capel at the buzzer. Carolina prevailed, though, as Donald Williams hit a difficult running jumper and McInnis stole the subsequent inbounds pass in the final seconds of the second overtime to seal the two-point victory.

In the NCAA Tournament, Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Stackhouse's 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse dominated the game with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Williams had 18 points, Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Arkansas, the defending NCAA champions, beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game. Corliss Williamson topped the Razorbacks with 21 points. Williams had 19 for Carolina.

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 points in the second half, but was outscored 41-9 and lost to the Terps, 85-75.

However, by the time the season was over, the Tar Heels had run off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament, established Dean Smith as the winningest coach in history and earned another trip to the Final Four.

The defining moment of the season may have come after Carolina lost to Virginia, its third consecutive ACC loss. UNC faced an 0-4 start after trailing NC State by nine points with 2:34 remaining. But the Tar Heels scored the final 12 points of the game to win, 59-56.

UNC was 3-5 after the first half of the league schedule, but won their final eight regular-season ACC games. Carolina then beat Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to win the ACC title.

One of the most memorable wins in Carolina history came in Winston-Salem on March 15 as the Tar Heels beat Colorado, 73-56, to advance to the Final 16 and earn Smith's 877th win, breaking the record of Kentucky's Adolph Rupp.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds, and ACC rookie of the year Ed Cota dished out nine assists in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final. The victory over Louisville was Smith's 879th and final victory at the helm of the Tar Heels, as he retired before the start of the 1998 season.

Unfortunately, Carolina again shot poorly in the RCA Dome in Indianapolis, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter was sensational with 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively, for the Cats.

1998 FINAL FOUR/2000 FINAL FOUR

Coming off a national semifinal appearance, the 1997-98 Tar Heels were certainly among the favorites to return to the Final Four. Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Antawn Jamison, Vince Carter and Shammond Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookei season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned as head coach in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years. The Tar Heels didn't skip a beat.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carter's spectacular athletic ability and highlight-reel dunks earned him second-team All-America honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game. Despite a leg injury that threatened to keep him out of the game, Jamison scored 22 points and grabbed 18 rebounds in the title game against the No. 1 ranked Blue Devils.

The Tar Heels beat Navy in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, but got a strong challenge from UNC Charlotte in round two. Shammond Williams scored 32 points as the Tar Heels won, 93-83, in overtime.

Carolina then toppled rising powers Connecticut and Michigan State by double-digit margins to advance to the Final Four. Connecticut went on to win the 1999 national title and Michigan State won in 2000.

Jamison and Carter each scored 20 in the regional semifinal win over the Spartans. Jamison and Williams then combined for 39 points in a 75-64 win over the Huskies in the regional final.

Utah built a 13-point lead at the half in the national semifinal and Carolina never was able to pull even, despite a brilliant 21-point outing from Carter. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

Carolina didn't enter the 2000 Final Four in typical fashion. After a disappointing season that included a four-game losing streak and a first round exit in the ACC tournament, the Tar Heels opened the NCAA tournament against Missouri as an eight seed— equalling the lowest seed in UNC history.

Led by freshman guard Joseph Forte, the Tar Heels didn't falter in their newfound role as underdog, though, and marched on to an NCAA record 15th Final Four.

Many expected Carolina to lose to the quick and athletic Missouri Tigers in the first round of the South Regionals, but junior center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory.

That victory set up a second round matchup with the third ranked and number one seed Stanford Cardinal. The Carolina defense stymied the dangerous Cardinal squad, holding them to 34 percent shooting while Forte tallied 17 points and five rebounds en route to a 60-53 upset victory. The victory propelled the Tar Heels to their familiar perch in the Sweet 16 to face fourth-seeded Tennessee.

Again, the Carolina defense stepped up while Forte provided the offensive firepower as the Volunteers shot 36 percent from the field and Forte scored 22 points and grabbed five more rebounds. Carolina overcame a seven-point deficit with Haywood on the bench to take the 74-69 victory. Senior point guard Ed Cota scored six points in the final 3:01 and Julius Peppers came off the bench to muscle in six points and six rebounds in place of Haywood to ensure the victory.

It was the same story against Tulsa in the South Regional final. The Tar Heel defense held the Golden Hurricane to 37 percent shooting and Forte had his most productive game of the tournament with 28 points and eight rebounds. The 59-55 victory silenced the doubters and sent Carolina to Indianapolis for the Final Four.

Carolina lost to Florida in the national semifinal, despite 20 points and 12 rebounds from Haywood, but the 2000 postseason run will go down as one of Carolina's most memorable.

2001-2002 NORTH CAROLINA BASKETBALL

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

Learfield Communications is in its second full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams, primarily basketball and football.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Marketing in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 13 other schools under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Syracuse, Oklahoma, Indiana and Purdue.

"Our goal is to continue and add to the tremendous tradition and fan following at Carolina," says Gary Sobba, the General Manager for Tar Heel Sports Marketing. Sobba moved to Chapel Hill from Dallas, where he worked in the Learfield national sales office.

"I have worked on various college campuses for the last 15 years," adds Sobba, "and if there is a better athletic program in the country than this one, I don't know where it is."

Formerly owned by Chapel Hill-based VilCom, Tar Heel Sports Marketing is in its ninth year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Marketing is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television and print products.

THSM brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio on Thursday nights for the head coaches on their radio call-in shows or watch game highlights Sundays on "Inside Carolina Basketball." When you are at the Smith Center, pick-up the official game program.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home.

Head Coach Matt Doherty will give fans a new opportunity to phone in and talk about the Tar Heels every Thursday evening during the basketball season on the "Matt Doherty Live" call-in show from Michael Jordan's 23 restaurant in Chapel Hill.

Coach Doherty can also be heard on "Inside Carolina Basketball," a daily five-minute program featuring conversations with the Tar Heels' Head Coach. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Basketball with Matt Doherty" is a half-hour television program seen each week on a network of stations in North Carolina and on cable throughout much of the United States. The show features highlights of the previous games, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players and a preview of upcoming action.

Dan Sears

The Tar Heel Sports Network on-air team (left to right): Dave DeWitt (analyst), Mick Mixon (analyst/producer), Woody Durham (play-by-play) and Stephen Gates (scoreboard anchor).

Woody Durham is in his 31st year as the "Voice of the Tar Heels." A native of Mebane, N.C., Durham grew up in Albemarle, N.C., and began his broadcasting career with WZKY Radio at age 16. He graduated from UNC in 1963 with a degree in Radio, Television and Motion Pictures.

In 1981, Durham was named vice president and executive sports director at Tar Heel Sports Marketing. Since taking over play-by-play duties in 1971, he has become a permanent fixture behind the microphone during Tar Heel football and basketball games. Durham has been named North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year 10 times.

Woody and his wife of 38 years, Jean, are parents of two sons, Wes and Taylor. Wes, 35, is in his sixth year of play-by-play duties for Georgia Tech. Taylor, 28, is a network recruitment manager with International Sports Properties of Winston-Salem.

Mick Mixon is in his 13th year as color analyst. Mixon was named North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year in 1999. A Chapel Hill native, Mixon graduated from UNC in 1980 with a degree in broadcast journalism.

Mixon joined the network in 1989 from Columbia, S.C., where he was sports director at WIS Radio. He also has served as play-by-play voice of the Maine Guides of the Class AAA International League and as sports director of WCGC Radio in Belmont, N.C.

He married Kristin Lyn Tucker (AB Journalism 1990) in 1999. Mixon teaches a popular sports journalism class in the UNC School of Journalism.

INTERVIEWS

Media should direct requests for head coach Matt Doherty to Steve Kirschner, Associate Athletic Director for Communications. Whenever possible, Doherty will meet with the media before each game, either in person or via teleconference. Those press conferences will run approximately 30 minutes and may be accessed by out-of-town media via teleconference. Contact the Athletic Communications Office for the phone number and schedule.

Media should direct requests for specific players to Matt Bowers, Assistant Athletic Communications Director. The interview period will generally be just before practice. Please make specific player requests at least 24 hours in advance.

POSTGAME

Following games the Tar Heel locker room is open to the media for 20 minutes. At the Smith Center, players will be available in the Carolina locker room and the players' lounge. Assistant Athletic Communications Directors Matt Bowers and David Tinson will be on hand to assist the media and players. Coach Doherty meets with the media in the press room after the game.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Coach Doherty is available each Tuesday morning on the Atlantic Coast Conference basketball coaches' teleconference. Please call Brian Morrison in the Atlantic Coast Conference Office at (336) 851-6062 for the number.

CREDENTIALS

Working press and photo credentials and press parking for Carolina's home games may be obtained by writing Steve Kirschner. Please make your request at least two weeks in advance on your company's letterhead stationery.

Kirschner's mailing address is: Athletic Communications Office, University of North Carolina, P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-2126. Requests may be faxed to Kirschner's attention at (919) 962-0612. Requests are screened to ensure a working press row at the Smith Center.

Credentials are usually mailed approximately 10 days prior to each game or, if time does not permit, are held at the press will call window located in the UNC Athletic Ticket Office on the north side of the Maurice J. Koury Natatorium. Koury Natatorium is immediately adjacent to the Smith Center.

FILING

Ten (10) telephones are available in the press room of the Smith Center. Anyone desiring a private line should contact Bell South in Raleigh at 919-780-2800 or 800-767-2355 to make arrangements. Please use Kirschner or Smith Center Managing Director Angie Bitting as the contact person for placement of your phone in the press room. No courtside phone hookups are allowed at the Smith Center. The Carolina Media Relations Office has two fax machines available on a first-come, first-served basis after each game.

PRESS ROW & PRESS ROW SERVICES

Press seating at the Smith Center is at floor level, either at the scorer's table or behind the two baselines. Radio and video crews and overflow press seating is on the mezzanine level on the Smith Center's north concourse. The new Smith Center press room is located on the arena floor level next to the UNC locker-room. Please contact any usher in the Smith Center and he/she can give you directions to the press room's location.

Programs, media guides and game notes will be available in the press room before each game. A halftime box score will be provided in the press room as well as a full postgame book consisting of final and halftime box scores, a full play-by-play and coaches' quotes. The head coaches from both teams will be brought to the press room following the game for press conferences.

The Carolina locker room will be open after the game in accordance with Atlantic Coast Conference regulations. Access to the visiting team locker room will be at the discretion of the visiting team's sports information director. A luncheon or dinner will be available to the media in the press room approximately 90 minutes before tipoff of each game.

The North Carolina Athletic Communications Office is located on the main level of the Dean E. Smith Center. Parking is available in the lot behind Koury Natatorium and can be accessed from Skipper Bowles Drive. Enter the building via the sidewalk which runs between the Smith Center and the Natatorium. The office is on Level 2 directly across the hallway from the men's basketball office.

DIRECTIONS TO PRESS PARKING

(access only with authorized parking pass)

■ From eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/Durham International Airport

Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because the road splits about five miles past the airport and the right lane heads toward Durham. Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-B. Signs marking this exit are marked in any of the following ways: UNC-Chapel Hill/Carrboro, Kenan Stadium - Dean E. Smith Center, 54 West. Exit 273-B is a right-hand exit. Stay straight on 54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile.

Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go to the top of the hill. Turn left onto Skipper Bowles Drive. Just before the Smith Center on your right is a very large parking lot. That is the media lot. An attendant will check for your pass and allow you to turn into the lot.

■ From north of Chapel Hill

Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South all the way to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.

■ From Charlotte and west of Chapel Hill

Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South all the way to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.

■ From south of Chapel Hill

Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.
